Notes:

- Dividends paid during the six months ended 30 June 1975 comprise:
Ordinary Dividend 27 of R80 000 (ten cents per share as provided in the audited financial statements at 31 December 1974);
Six Per Cent Cumulative Preference Dividend 57 of R3 000 for the six months ended 30 June 1975.
- The under provision arose as a result of budget proposals introduced after the completion of the Rhodesian subsidiary's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 1974.
- Amounts applicable to the Rhodesian subsidiary have been converted to South African currency at the approximate rates of exchange applicable at the respective dates above.
- The seasonal nature of the group's business generally results in lower earnings in the first half of its financial year. The provisions for taxation have been determined with due regard to the applicable economic development area tax concessions.
- Between the close of the last financial year and this interim report the company acquired—on 1 April 1975, on the conversion of "B" shares to ordinary shares in Durity Clothing Holdings (Pty) Ltd, a further six per cent interest (thus increased to 64 per cent) for a consideration of R50 000. The company has a commitment to acquire the remaining equity (by conversion of "B" shares on a similar basis) in that subsidiary for an amount of R300 000 payable in six equal annual amounts from 31 March 1976, and with the effect from 1 July 1975 the entire issued share capital of, and amounts of R200 000 owing by, Connoisseur Apparel (Pty) Ltd (which manufactures men's highgrade outerwear in Durban) for a cash consideration still to be determined. This amount will not exceed four per cent of Dugson Holdings Ltd share capital and reserves at 31 December 1974. This acquisition will not have any material effect on the net tangible assets of the group nor on its earnings per ordinary share in the current year.
- Prevailing trade conditions are less buoyant than traditionally experienced and the effects thereof on the results for the current year preclude our making any forecast.
