 5. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Introduction

The Business Practices Committee (the Committee) was established in terms of section 2 of the Harmful Business Practices Act, No. 71 of 1988 ("the Act"). The purpose of the Act is to provide for the prohibition or control of harmful business practices. A "harmful business practice" is any business practice that, directly or indirectly, has or is likely to have the effect of harming the relations between businesses and consumers, unreasonably prejudicing any consumer or deceiving any consumer.

2. The complaint

The business practices of Cambridge Medical Aid and International Medical Aid came to the attention of the Committee when members of the schemes lodged complaints with the Committee. These complainants alleged that these schemes paid some medical accounts months after submission and that other accounts had not been paid at all. Since then the Committee received further complaints of late and non-payment of members' medical accounts.

3. The preliminary investigation

On 30 May 1995 investigating officers (officials) of the Committee visited the offices of Cambridge Medical Aid at 42 Goldman Street, Florida. On 8 June 1995 a subcommittee of the Committee resolved to undertake a preliminary investigation in terms of section 4 (1) (c) of the Act into the business practices of Cambridge Medical Aid and International Medical Aid.

During the meeting on 30 May 1995 the officials held discussions with Mr Peter Haupt (Haupt), who said that he was the administrator of Cambridge Medical Aid. It appeared that Nelpe CC (93/10866/23) traded as International Medical Aid Group (International) and Mel-way Marketing CC (95/15827/23) traded as Cambridge Medical Aid (Cambridge).

According to a document dated 12 December 1994, the only member of International was M. Dumas. Another document dated 30 March 1995 showed that the proprietor was E. J. Woodcock (Woodcock) and yet another document dated 31 March 1995 showed that the "member" of International was M. Dumas and E. J. Woodcock. In a circular dated 20 December 1994 to members, International conceded to all members that there was a delay in the payment of claims. The circular stated:

"We must first of all make a great BIG apology to all our members for the delay in a number of claim payments — our growth rate exceeded all expectations and we just did not have enough staff in our assessing department to keep up. Thanks to those ladies of ours who have worked till 21:00 each night to try catch up".

Although International apologised for the delay in payment of claims, there was no apology for the non-payment of medical accounts.

The heading of an undated circular sent to members apparently before 7 March 1995 was: "Good news for all international medical aid group members!". The following are excerpts from this circular:

"Dear Members and Service-Providers

The International Medical Aid has received a new boost by the investment of a Cape Town Based Investment Group who have taken over the shares of the company and therefore, as of 7 March 1995, the new Managing Director will be E J Woodcock. The immediate effect of this substantial investment has been the immediate settlement of all due outstanding claims up to and including claims for January 1995, and all claims for February and March 1995 are being processed and will be paid in April 1995"

and

"The next significant change is a scheduled change of name, for both the CC and the Medical Aid itself—to Melway Investments cc trading as Cambridge Medical Aid. The name change has been planned in detail and will be a gradual implementation (members will receive newly designed cards over the next 90 days) to ensure that no hiccups occur." (sic)

This circular contained several misleading statements. For example, there could be no person called managing director because Melway Investments was a close corporation and the "... boost by the investment of a Cape Town Investment Group" was, according to Haupt, a loan of R250 000 obtained by Woodcock. The Cape Town "Investment Group" was Mel-way Marketing CC. This loan, also according to Haupt, was intended to pay the outstanding medical bills of the members of International.

In an undated circular on a letterhead of Cambridge, signed by Woodcock, a "Letter of Undertaking" was given. It is not clear to whom this undertaking" was given. The following is the full text of this "undertaking":

"This letter serves to confirm that the Board of Administrators of Cambridge Medical Aid, will be paying all outstanding claims and un-paid cheques, owned by International Medical Aid, in full".

This undertaking was apparently not fulfilled. The Committee received further complaints about the nonpayment of medical accounts. On 22 June 1995 Cambridge sent a circular to "All Members" about the payment of "EX-INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL AID CLAIMS". The circular stated inter alia that:

"Our original forecast of completion date was proven to be far too ambitious, but, your patience and understanding was not misplaced".

Neither International nor Cambridge was registered as medical schemes by the Registrar of Medical Schemes. As far as could be determined International and Cambridge held bank accounts at Allied, Bank of Lisbon, First National Bank, Saambou and Volkskas.

4. The formal investigation

On 7 August 1995 the Committee resolved to conduct a formal investigation in terms of section 8 (1) (a) of the Act into the business practices of Mel-way Marketing CC trading as Cambridge Medical Aid, Nelpe CC trading as International Medical Aid, Woodcock (ID 56040170106), Haupt (ID 5604095072085) and any employee, agent or representative of the said businesses. Notice of this investigation was given in Government Gazette No. 16632 of 1 September 1995. On 5 September 1995 the Chairman of the Committee also issued a press release about the notice of the investigation in the Government Gazette.

The Committee was in possession of three affidavits in Afrikaans by employees of International and Cambridge. The following are brief summaries of these affidavits:

Ms. A said that she thought that Haupt was the owner of International. She received several calls each day about medical account claims not paid or cheques received by members that were subsequently marked "Refer to Drawer" since she was employed. Towards the end of April 1995 she was allegedly told by Haupt that International no longer existed and that the scheme was now called Cambridge. Ms A believed Haupt controlled Cambridge. Ms B was later transferred to the claims department where she was in charge. At some stage Haupt instructed her not to tell dissatisfied clients that he (Haupt) was still with Cambridge. (Haupt denied this allegation). At the end of July 1995 Haupt told the personnel that Cambridge was closing because he lost everything ("... het alles verloor"). The bank returned her last salary cheque marked R/D. She tried unsuccessfully to obtain the monies due to her and eventually she received a cheque drawn on the First National Bank, Tokai, Cape Town. Libby Woodcock (Woodcock) signed this cheque but it was also returned by the bank as a "R/D" cheque.

Mr B alleged that the ladies in the office at some stage worked during a weekend to process fresh cheques for members because the payment of the original cheques was stopped. When they completed this task Haupt put the envelopes containing the cheques in the boot of his car. Approximately two weeks later clients started calling the offices because they did not receive the cheques. Since then the ladies in the office had to lie to clients ("... moes ons vir die kliënte lieg"). They were supposed to tell claimants that the cheques were in the post. She suspected that Haupt threw away the cheques. She concluded her affidavit by saying that she knew Haupt was wrong, but that she lied for him.

Ms C said that Cambridge had 2 500 members and 40 employees. Haupt gave all the instructions at Cambridge. Since December 1994 she realised that things were wrong with management because so many cheques were returned R/D. Haupt apparently bought properties in the name of Woodcock. (This was denied by Haupt). Ms C alleged that Haupt and Woodcock were engaged.

The investigation officers of the Committee could not verify the truth of these allegations as the books of account were unavailable. Nevertheless, in an undated document some assets of Woodcock are given as:

34 van Santen Road, Horizon View, Roodepoort
Units 64, 67 and 42, The Gables
Erf 275 Little Falls, Ext 1
Units 281 to 292 and 293 to 304, flats in Bridgeworth
Erf 2384 Gordons Bay

The following time-share units paid in full:

Unit 4112, Boma International
Unit 34, Week 35, Durban Sands
Week 17, 18, 19, Umhlanga Sands
Unit 31, Week 40, Cape Cordonia
Unit 2643, Week: Floating, Magalies Park
Week 24, Mabula Game Lodge

1994 Toyota Camry 220 SEI and a 1994 Corolla 1.6 GL

Vehicles leased through businesses included a 1989 Mercedes 300 SE, a 1988 Toyota Cressida 3 Litre and a 1987 Nissan Sentra 1600

100% interest in:

Nelpe CC, trading as International Medical Aid
Intertrust Car Hire CC
Petlib Properties CC
Libpet Distributors CC trading as International Liquor
Waynel Distributors trading as International Food Wholesalers
LWP Trading Co. trading as International Electrical Contractors

50% interest in W. Smith Insurance Brokers CC.

Numerous unsuccessful attempts were made by the investigating officers to trace Woodcock in order to verify the allegations against her. On 30 January 1997 Haupt told an official of the Committee that he knew Woodcock was in Johannesburg, but that he did not have her address or telephone number.

On 10 August 1995 Cambridge informed the Committee that it had "... decided to discontinue the trading activities of Mel-way Marketing CC t/a Cambridge Medical Aid". Somebody signed the letter for Woodcock. Newspapers reported that Haupt was taken into custody by the Commercial Crime Unit of the South African Police Services. He was charged with fraud amounting to R6 million.

This course of events effectively rendered the investigation by the Committee into the business practices of International and Cambridge irrelevant.

5. Conclusion and recommendations

Haupt was an unrehabilitated insolvent and this disqualified him from being a member of International or Cambridge. He was, however, the person who managed International and Cambridge. De jure, Haupt was the administrator, however, de facto he was much more. Woodcock misled the members of International into believing that International received a boost by the investment of an investment group and that their outstanding claims would be paid.

In the Committee's experience it is known that consumers are not always informed or are unaware of the differences between registered and unregistered medical schemes. A registered medical scheme is registered by the Registrar as such. Although such registration does not guarantee the success of a scheme, the Registrar has a measure of control over it. There is no statutory control over unregistered medical schemes. The latter schemes are illegal in terms of the provisions of the Medical Schemes Act, No. 72 of 1967.

This is the Committee's fourth report about an unregistered medical scheme. In its first report (see Report No. 38 Medisave Medical Aid Society) the Committee recommended to the Minister that he declares unlawful the business of Medisave Medical Aid Society. Another unregistered medical scheme, Medical Traditional and Burial Scheme and run by Mr Joe Morema, was liquidated. This occurred before the Committee could come to an agreement with Mr Morema in terms of section 9 of the Act. In its third report [see Report No. 45 Access Medical Aid Consultants (Pty) Ltd] the Committee recommended to the Minister that he declare unlawful the business of Access Medical Aid Consultants (Pty) Ltd. The Minister accepted the recommendation of the Committee set out in Reports 38 and 45. In all the above cases many members suffered severe financial losses.

The Committee has also recently submitted its recommendations about Ultracare Medical (Pty) Limited (Report 53) to the Minister of Trade and Industry for his consideration. The Minister has not yet considered these recommendations and the Committee can thus not comment on the contents of Report 53.

International and Cambridge had many dissatisfied and disillusioned members. The Committee believes the investigation revealed that International, Cambridge, Haupt and Woodcock were involved in harmful business practices. There are no grounds justifying the practices in the public interest. It is accordingly recommended that the Minister under section 12 (1) (b) of the Act declare unlawful the harmful business practice in respect of which:

- (i) P. Haupt (ID 5604095072085); or
- (ii) E. J. Woodcock (ID 5604040170106); or
- (iii) any employee, agent or representative of P. Haupt or E. J. Woodcock is involved in the management or administration or receives consideration for or concerning a medical scheme as defined in section 1 of the Medical Schemes Act, No. 72 of 1967.

and that P. Haupt and E. J. Woodcock or any employee, agent or representative of P. Haupt or E. J. Woodcock be directed to—

- (i) refrain from the application of the harmful business practice;
- (ii) cease to have any interest in a business or type of business that conducts the harmful business practice, or to derive any income from it;
- (iii) refrain from any time applying the harmful business practice; and
- (iv) refrain from obtaining any interest in a business or type of business applying the harmful business practice or from deriving any income from it.
