SCHEDULE

Definitions

1. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise indicates, or unless redefined herein, a word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Structures Act and the section 12 notice has the same meaning and –

“authorised municipalities” means the local municipalities designated as NC061, NC062, NC064, NC065, NC066 and NC067 that were established by the section 12 notice;

“district municipality” means the district municipality designated as DC6 that was established by the section 12 notice;

“previous authorisation” means an authorisation referred to in Government Notice No. 1227 of 28 November 2000;

“section 12 notice” means Provincial Notice No. 28 of 2000, published in the Northern Cape Provincial Gazette No. 555 dated 22 September 2000, which established the district municipality and local municipalities specified therein in terms of the Structures Act; and

“Structures Act” means the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998).

Authorisation

2. (1) The authorised municipalities are authorised to perform the functions and exercise the powers mentioned in –

- (a) section 84(1)(b) and (d) of the Structures Act, in their respective areas of jurisdiction; and
- (b) section 84(1)(c) of the Structures Act, or any aspect thereof, to the extent that those functions and powers were performed or exercised before the effective date referred to in the section 12 notice by the transitional local councils or transitional rural councils mentioned in the definition of “disestablished municipality” in the section 12 notice.

(2) Any authorised municipality must assume full responsibility and accountability for the functions or powers that it has been authorised to perform or exercise in terms of subitem (1), and their effective and efficient performance or exercise, as the case may be.

Legal, practical and other consequences of the authorisation

3. (1) The regulation of the legal, practical and other consequences of a previous authorisation continue to apply to an authorisation in terms of item 2 in so far as it is applicable.

(2) In so far as an authorisation in terms of item 2(1)(a) extends the previous authorisation, the provisions regarding –

- (a) the transfer of assets, rights, liabilities and obligations;
- (b) the transfer of staff;
- (c) administrative units; and
- (d) the continued application of by-laws and resolutions,

set out in the section 12 notice, apply, with the necessary changes required by the context, to that part of the performance of a function or exercise of a power by an authorised municipality that relates to the extended part of the authorisation.

(3) For purposes of subitem (2), any reference in the provisions of the section 12 notice referred to in that subitem to –

- (a) a disestablished municipality, must be construed as a reference to the district municipality; and
- (b) a new municipality, must be construed as a reference to the relevant authorised municipality.

Legal, practical and other consequences of revocation of previous authorisation

4. (1) As a result of the revocation of the previous authorisation related to the performance of the functions and the exercise of the powers mentioned in section 84(1)(i) of the Structures Act, the provisions regarding –

- (a) the transfer of assets, rights, liabilities and obligations;
- (b) the transfer of staff;
- (c) administrative units; and
- (d) the continued application of by-laws and resolutions,

set out in the section 12 notice, apply, with the necessary changes required by the context, to the performance of a function or exercise of a power related to an environmental health service.

(2) For purposes of subitem (1), any reference in the provisions of the section 12 notice referred to in that subitem to –

- (a) a disestablished municipality, must be construed as a reference to an authorised municipality;
- (b) a new municipality, must be construed as a reference to the district municipality; and
- (c) the effective date, must be construed as 1 July 2003.

SCHEDULE

Definitions

1. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise indicates, or unless redefined herein, a word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Structures Act and the section 12 notice has the same meaning and –

"authorised municipalities" means the local municipalities designated as EC101, EC102, EC103, EC104, EC105, EC106, EC107, EC108 and EC109 that were established by the section 12 notice;

"district municipality" means the district municipality designated as DC10 that was established by the section 12 notice;

"previous authorisation" means an authorisation referred to in Government Notice No. 1282 of 28 November 2000;

"section 12 notice" means Provincial Notice No. 79 of 2000, published in the Eastern Cape Provincial Gazette No. 654 dated 27 September 2000, as amended by Provincial Notice No. 88 of 2000 published in the Eastern Cape Provincial Gazette No. 661 dated 5 October 2000, which established the district municipality and local municipalities specified therein in terms of the Structures Act; and

"Structures Act" means the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998).

Authorisation

2. (1) The authorised municipalities are authorised to perform the functions and exercise the powers mentioned in –

- (a) section 84(1)(b) and (d) of the Structures Act, in their respective areas of jurisdiction; and
- (b) section 84(1)(c) of the Structures Act, or any aspect thereof, to the extent that those functions and powers were performed or exercised before the effective date referred to in the section 12 notice by the transitional local councils or transitional rural councils mentioned in the definition of "disestablished municipality" in the section 12 notice.

(2) Any authorised municipality must assume full responsibility and accountability for the functions or powers that it has been authorised to perform or exercise in terms of subitem (1), and their effective and efficient performance or exercise, as the case may be.

Legal, practical and other consequences of the authorisation

3. (1) The regulation of the legal, practical and other consequences of a previous authorisation continue to apply to an authorisation in terms of item 2 in so far as it is applicable.

(2) In so far as an authorisation in terms of item 2(1)(a) extends the previous authorisation, the provisions regarding –

- (a) the transfer of assets, rights, liabilities and obligations;
- (b) the transfer of staff;
- (c) administrative units; and
- (d) the continued application of by-laws and resolutions,

set out in the section 12 notice, apply, with the necessary changes required by the context, to that part of the performance of a function or exercise of a power by an authorised municipality that relates to the extended part of the authorisation.

(3) For purposes of subitem (2), any reference in the provisions of the section 12 notice referred to in that subitem to –

- (a) a disestablished municipality, must be construed as a reference to the district municipality; and
- (b) a new municipality, must be construed as a reference to the relevant authorised municipality.

Legal, practical and other consequences of revocation of previous authorisation

4. (1) As a result of the revocation of the previous authorisation related to the performance of the functions and the exercise of the powers mentioned in section 84(1)(i) of the Structures Act, the provisions regarding –

- (a) the transfer of assets, rights, liabilities and obligations;
- (b) the transfer of staff;
- (c) administrative units; and
- (d) the continued application of by-laws and resolutions,

set out in the section 12 notice, apply, with the necessary changes required by the context, to the performance of a function or exercise of a power related to an environmental health service.

(2) For purposes of subitem (1), any reference in the provisions of the section 12 notice referred to in that subitem to –

- (a) a disestablished municipality, must be construed as a reference to an authorised municipality;
- (b) a new municipality, must be construed as a reference to the district municipality; and
- (c) the effective date, must be construed as 1 July 2003.
