HIGH ALERT: SCAM WARNING!!!

TO ALL SUPPLIERS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS OF THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS

It has come to the attention of the GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS that there are certain unscrupulous companies and individuals who are defrauding unsuspecting businesses disguised as representatives of the Government Printing Works (GPW).

The scam involves the fraudsters using the letterhead of GPW to send out fake tender bids to companies and requests to supply equipment and goods.

Although the contact person's name on the letter may be of an existing official, the contact details on the letter are not the same as the Government Printing Works. When searching on the Internet for the address of the company that has sent the fake tender document, the address does not exist.

The banking details are in a private name and not company name. Government will never ask you to deposit any funds for any business transaction. GPW has alerted the relevant law enforcement authorities to investigate this scam to protect legitimate businesses as well as the name of the organisation.

Example of e-mails these fraudsters are using:

PROCUREMENT@GPW-GOV.ORG

Should you suspect that you are a victim of a scam, you must urgently contact the police and inform the GPW.

GPW has an official email with the domain as @gpw.gov.za

Government e-mails DO NOT have org in their e-mail addresses. All of these fraudsters also use the same or very similar telephone numbers. Although such number with an area code 012 looks like a landline, it is not fixed to any property.

GPW will never send you an e-mail asking you to supply equipment and goods without a purchase/order number. GPW does not procure goods for another level of Government. The organisation will not be liable for actions that result in companies or individuals being resultant victims of such a scam.

Government Printing Works gives businesses the opportunity to supply goods and services through RFQ / Tendering process. In order to be eligible to bid to provide goods and services, suppliers must be registered on the National Treasury's Central Supplier Database (CSD). To be registered, they must meet all current legislative requirements (e.g. have a valid tax clearance certificate and be in good standing with the South African Revenue Services - SARS).

The tender process is managed through the Supply Chain Management (SCM) system of the department. SCM is highly regulated to minimise the risk of fraud, and to meet objectives which include value for money, open and effective competition, equitability, accountability, fair dealing, transparency and an ethical approach. Relevant legislation, regulations, policies, guidelines and instructions can be found on the tender's website.

Fake Tenders

National Treasury's CSD has launched the Government Order Scam campaign to combat fraudulent requests for quotes (RFQs). Such fraudulent requests have resulted in innocent companies losing money. We work hard at preventing and fighting fraud, but criminal activity is always a risk.

How tender scams work

There are many types of tender scams. Here are some of the more frequent scenarios:

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to a company to invite it to urgently supply goods. Shortly after the company has submitted its quote, it receives notification that it has won the tender. The company delivers the goods to someone who poses as an official or at a fake site. The Department has no idea of this transaction made in its name. The company is then never paid and suffers a loss.

OR

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to Company A to invite it to urgently supply goods. Typically, the tender specification is so unique that only Company B (a fictitious company created by the fraudster) can supply the goods in question.

Shortly after Company A has submitted its quote it receives notification that it has won the tender. Company A orders the goods and pays a deposit to the fictitious Company B. Once Company B receives the money, it disappears. Company A's money is stolen in the process.

Protect yourself from being scammed

- If you are registered on the supplier databases and you receive a request to tender or quote that seems to be from a government department, contact the department to confirm that the request is legitimate. Do not use the contact details on the tender document as these might be fraudulent.
- Compare tender details with those that appear in the Tender Bulletin, available online at www.gpwonline.co.za
- Make sure you familiarise yourself with how government procures goods and services. Visit the tender website for more information on how to tender.
- If you are uncomfortable about the request received, consider visiting the government department and/or the place of delivery and/or the service provider from whom you will be sourcing the goods.
- In the unlikely event that you are asked for a deposit to make a bid, contact the SCM unit of the department in question to ask whether this is in fact correct.

FOREWORD

The Department of Small Business Development is mandated to lead and coordinate an integrated approach to the promotion and development of entrepreneurship, Small, Micro and Medium Enterprises (SMMEs) and Co-operatives and to ensure an enabling legislative and policy environment to support their growth and sustainability. The DSBD in line with its mandate is embarking on the process of developing the inaugural South African SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy in order to create an enabling environment to support formation, expansion and maintenance of existing small businesses.

The aim of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy is to deepen access to finance and in the process increase the number of small enterprises that are established, reduce level of concentration or monopolies in certain sectors of the economy, transform the ownership patterns of the economy, address the financial literacy challenges amongst small businesses in both formal and informal sectors by promoting financial education focusing on unserved and underserved areas such as townships and rural areas and advocate for a compliance light environment for small enterprises.

The application of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy is expected to eliminate issues related to lack of co-ordination on SMMEs funding support programmes, double dipping and ecosystem fragmentation. As part of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy development process, an implementation plan was generated to guide the operationalisation of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy by outlining practical steps on how to implement the Policy, outline the role players to be involved in various initiatives, anticipated risks and mitigating factors as well as the intended outcomes of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy.

It is anticipated that the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy will be adopted and implemented by both the private and public sector financiers. This Funding Policy, once implemented, has the potential of assisting in defragmenting the sector, improving coordination, increasing developmental impact on SMMEs and Co-operatives funding support programmes with a view to contribute meaningfully to a vibrant and productive SMME and Co-operative sector.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Small, Medium and Micro enterprises (SMMEs) have formed an integral part of South Africa's economic development policy since democratisation. As it is the case in many other developing countries, SMMEs are seen as the engines of growth and the sector that will provide the most job opportunities. The National Development Plan (NDP) envisages that 90% of the 11 million jobs will be generated by small enterprises in 2030. In the South African context, support for SMMEs also constitute a major lever in the inclusive transformation of the economy.

The community involvement and structure of Co-operative enterprises are also key elements in bringing rural and under-developed regions in the country closer to full economic participation. Co-operative enterprises hold significant promise in enabling and empowering ordinary community members to improve local economic conditions, thus creating a pathway to greater prosperity for such communities.

The Department of Small Business Development (DSBD) has done significant work in formulating an overarching Framework for the development of the SMME sector, published as the National Integrated Small Enterprise Development (NISED) Strategic Framework. The NISED Strategic Framework aims to provide a pragmatic strategic Framework for all actors engaged in SMME development including clear direction, measurable outcomes, and specific programme of interventions. Pillar 3 of the NISED Strategic Framework aims to deliver effective support and service delivery (financial and non-financial) to SMMEs.

The National Treasury has also prioritised improving the access to finance ecosystem for SMMEs through one of the three pillars namely, Pillar Two: Extending access to financial services for SMMEs which forms part of the National Financial Inclusion Policy "An Inclusive Financial Sector for All". The SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy has been developed to provide Policy guidelines in support of the NISED Strategic Framework and the National Treasury's Financial Inclusion Policy.

Based on an analysis of the current access to finance landscape, the funding constraints faced by SMMEs and Co-operatives and lessons from other developing countries, Policy interventions have been identified that will improve the situation and enable the estimated 3.2 million SMMEs and 43,062 Co-operatives in the country to achieve their full potential in terms of contributing to inclusive economic growth.

These interventions are:

1. Improve coordination in the SMMEs and Co-operatives access to finance ecosystem

Given the number of actors involved in this ecosystem it is important to improve the coordination of efforts to increase the impact of interventions. The Policy provides guidelines to improve the coordination efforts.

2. Database of small businesses

The DSBD should coordinate the aggregation of data on the small business sector across various publicly available datasets to enable a fully informed assessment of the state of the finance ecosystem as a way of gathering much needed information on businesses in the SMME and Co-operative sector.

3. Improve the provision of start-up capital

The DSBD should develop centralised fund structures in partnership with the private sector similar to the model used by the SA SME fund in order to direct market-based start-up capital towards small businesses.

4. Targeted funding instruments for SMMEs and Co-operatives

The DSBD in partnership with other role players should assist in determining what funding instruments are required during the life cycle of small enterprises and enable an environment in which these services can be provided to all SMMEs and Co-operatives.

5. Improve Business Development Support

Some of the issues relating to financial management of SMMEs and Co-operatives such as the use of appropriate financial products and the informed interaction with FSPs should be addressed through improved coordination of the BDS services prevalent in the sector.

6. De-risking SMMEs finance through credit guarantee

The DSBD should support continued implementation of the recommendations to reform the Khula Credit Guarantee (KCG) scheme. Furthermore, the capital position of the scheme need to be strengthened.

7. Implementation of a Movable Asset Collateral Registry

The DSBD should conduct comprehensive stakeholder engagement aimed at establishing alignment around the requirements for and implementation of a movable asset collateral registry.

8. Establish a simplified business registration and legal processes for winding up SMMEs

It is recommended that South Africa, as it is the case in some other jurisdictions, consider the establishment of simplified and more affordable legal processes to deal with business registration and winding up of SMME business operations.

9. Credit information systems for small businesses

The DSBD to support initiatives currently underway to promote a holistic and comprehensive solution to the credit information infrastructure problem for SMMEs and Co-operatives, extending the information to also include alternative information to that currently being used.

10. Easing small businesses cash flow constraints through timely payments and invoice factoring

The regulations enforcing timeous payment of invoices to small businesses must be codified into law. Furthermore, a liquid, transparent and accessible invoice factoring market is required and will be enabled as part of financial sector development.

11. Affordable and appropriate insurance for small businesses including Co-operatives

A comprehensive demand side survey should be conducted by the role players to inform both industry and policymakers with in-depth insights into the insurance needs of small businesses.

12. Improve and monitor the SMMEs and Co-operatives access to finance market

The DSBD should lead in ensuring that the finance ecosystem which is better aligned to the needs of SMMEs and Co-operatives is established and monitored. DSBD should constantly examine the structure of the market to identify shortcomings in the current structures, monitor the range of financial products and services to assess to what extent the whole life cycle of the sector is covered, cooperating with financial regulators to ensure that problem areas are addressed.

13. Improve informal SMMEs access to the finance ecosystem

Recognising the importance of and the disadvantages faced by informal enterprises, DSBD should work with other actors to improve the informal sector's use of financial services and their contribution to economic growth, without requiring full formalisation and without increasing the risk to the ecosystem.

14. Create accessible funding environment for targeted groups

The role players should ensure that there is a meaningful participation of enterprises owned by targeted groups (Youth, Women, Persons with disabilities) by constantly engaging with organisation representing them to ensure that there is alignment of demand and supply of support programmes.

15. Incorporate digital financial services in SMMEs and Co-operatives access to finance

It is recommended that the SMME sector should appreciate and recognise the importance of using digital financial services in business transactions and to protect SMMEs, regulators should take reasonable steps to ensure that there is responsible market conduct by financial service providers.

16. Improve Microfinance Institutions capacity to deliver sustainable financial solutions

In order to deepen access to finance to unserved and underserved microenterprises, a partnership model need to be adopted by the role players in both public and private sectors for the purposes of building the capacity of a range of MFIs with a view to reach all microenterprise market segments in the country including townships and rural areas.

17. Improve Co-operatives Access to Finance

Dedicated funding instruments should be developed focusing on the entire Co-operatives lifecycle. The minimum capital requirements imposed by the Prudential Authority constraints CBIs' use of funds for growth purposes. While these requirements have been instituted to ensure greater stability it is crucial that the requirements are reviewed in the light of the realities being faced by CBI.

1. THE POLICY CONTEXT

South Africa's development policy framework has long recognised Small, Medium, and Micro enterprises (SMMEs<sup>1</sup>) as a core engine of inclusive economic growth and employment creation. As such, development of SMMEs has been a key anchor of successive policy documents beginning with the Reconstruction and Development Programme (RDP) in 1994, to the New Growth Path in 2010 and the current National Development Plan (NDP) Vision 2030.

The 1995 National Strategy for the Development and Promotion of Small Business: White Paper placed a strategic focus on SMMEs and identified several constraints facing small enterprises<sup>2</sup>. These included the legal and regulatory environment, access to markets, access to finance, the acquisition of skills and managerial expertise, access to appropriate technology, the tax burden, access to information and advice and access to quality business infrastructure in poor areas or poverty nodes, all of which remain relevant today.

The enactment of the National Small Business Act of 1996 provided for the implementation of the White Paper by providing guidelines to organs of state on the promotion of small businesses in South Africa and giving effect to the establishment of several implementation structures. This included the National Small Business Advisory Body and the Ntsika Enterprise Promotion Agency - which were subsequently reorganised into three entities, namely, the Small Enterprise Development Agency (sefa)<sup>3</sup>, the South African Micro Finance Apex Fund (SAMAF) and the Khula Enterprise Finance Limited. In 2012, the SAMAF and the Khula Enterprise Finance Limited were then merged into the Small Enterprise Finance Agency (sefa)<sup>4</sup>.

In an effort to promote a diversified pool of economic enterprises, in 1997, the South African Government established a Co-operative Policy Task Team (Task Team). This Task Team was mandated to draw learnings from the Co-operatives sector in the country and other jurisdictions and discuss main policy issues relating to the development, promotion, and support of Co-operative<sup>5</sup> enterprises. The work of the Task Team led to the establishment of a task force spearheaded by the Co-operative Development Unit of the Department for Trade, Industry and Competition (dtic).

In 2004, through the dtic established task force, governments vision to develop and promote Co-operative enterprises was outlined in the National Co-operative Development Policy and adopted by the Minister of Trade and Industry. This was followed by the enactment of the Co-operatives Act in 2005. To develop an implementation strategy that would enable government to realise the objectives of the Co-operatives Act, a baseline study on Co-operatives was conducted in 2009. The study identified best practices that could be adopted in the development of a Co-operative strategy for South Africa and this subsequently led to the publication of the Integrated Strategy on the Development and Promotion of Co-operatives in 2011.

In recognition of the importance of small businesses in the South African economy and considering the fragmented approach taken by Government in developing the sector, in 2014 a new dedicated Ministry of small businesses, the Department of Small Business Development, was established with the mandate to lead and coordinate an integrated approach to the promotion and development of entrepreneurship, SMMEs and Co-operatives, and to ensure an enabling legislative and policy environment to support their growth and sustainability.

The establishment of the DSBD was lauded by the SMME and Co-operative sector as a step in the right direction towards more coordinated SMMEs and Co-operatives support and led to an increased number of entrepreneurs, SMMEs and Co-operatives seeking support from government through the range of support programmes developed by the DSBD. This increase in demand for support has put significant pressure on the limited public sector resources available to the sector and has led to Cabinet through the Medium-Term Strategic Framework (MTSF 2019-2024) approving the development and implementation of specific interventions by the DSBD to unlock further funding support interventions for the SMME and Co-operative sector in the form of SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy.

<sup>1</sup> Micro enterprises are defined as enterprises with less than 10 employees and an industry dependent turnover of between R5m to R20m; small enterprises are defined as enterprises with more than 10 to 50 employees and an industry dependent turnover of R15m to R80m and medium enterprises are defined as enterprises with 50 to 250 employees and an industry dependent annual turnover of R35m to R220m, Schedule 1 of the National Small Enterprises Act of 2019.

<sup>3</sup> Seda is an agency of the South African government responsible for the provision of non-financial business development and support to SA SMMEs, www.gov.za.

<sup>4</sup> Sefa is an agency of the South African government responsible for the provision of development finance to SMMEs and Co-operatives that are not able to attract commercial credit, www.sefa.org.za.

<sup>5</sup> A co-operative is defined as an autonomous association of persons united voluntarily to meet their common economic, social, and cultural needs and aspirations through a jointly owned and democratically controlled enterprise, International Co-operative Alliance's Statement of Co-operative Identity, 1995.

Previously the DSBD commissioned an evaluation of the Integrated Strategy for the Promotion of Entrepreneurship and Small Enterprises (ISPESE) to assess Government's efforts towards SMME promotion and support, and to recommend additions and amendments to the strategy. The evaluation identified challenges in the implementation of the ISPESE and provided a theory of change for the SMME ecosystem in South Africa. The findings of the evaluation and recommendations were translated into the Draft Incubation and Business Development Services Policy (IBDS), which is aimed at fostering a BDS market in South Africa that is coherent and delivers equitable, accessible and quality services to small enterprises and Co-operatives, and the National Integrated Small Enterprise Development (NISED) Strategic Framework published by the DSBD in 2022. The NISED Strategic Framework aims to provide a pragmatic strategic framework for all actors engaged in SMME development including clear direction, measurable outcomes and specific programme of interventions. Specifically, Pillar 3 of the NISED Strategic Framework aims to deliver effective support and service delivery (financial and non-financial) to SMMEs.

Concurrently, National Treasury has through its draft Policy document "An Inclusive Financial Sector for All" prioritised the financial inclusion of SMMEs thereby supporting the responsible extension of credit to SMMEs by building on the recommendations outlined in the 2020 SMME Access to Finance Action Plan. This is outlined in one of the three pillars underpinning the National Financial Inclusion policy.

As such, this SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy has been crafted to address the joint objectives of Pillar 3 of the NISED Strategic Framework and Pillar 2 of the National Treasury's draft Financial inclusion Policy whilst taking into consideration work previously done in the promotion and support of small businesses. Specifically, the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy seeks to provide a holistic, coordinated and pragmatic framework for strengthening the provision of development finance towards the SMME and Co-operative sector with a view to improve access to finance for SMMEs and Co-operatives.

1.1 DEFINITION OF SMALL, MEDIUM AND MICRO ENTERPRISES

1.1.1 Definition of an SMME: An international perspective

The terms MSME and SMME are used interchangeably worldwide due to the absence of a universally accepted definition of these terms. The geographic situation of SMMEs, along with legislation, influences the various definitions of these types of enterprises. In addition, definitions differ across countries and industries. Due to the diversity of small businesses, every simple definition is subject to criticism (Orobia & Byabashaija, 2013; Islam, Keawchana & Yusuf, 2011; Leopoulos, Kirytopoulos & Malandrakis, 2006).

The European definition includes both qualitative and quantitative characteristics as criteria for defining small businesses. The Ministry of Small and Medium Enterprise Development defines small businesses as enterprises that are registered under the Companies Act or Cooperative Act with the employment level of not more than 100 people (Loecher, 2000; Chimona, 2013).

As indicated above, the definition of what constitutes a small or medium-sized enterprise is still an issue. The most common measures used in defining small businesses include the number of employees, annual turnover, industry, ownership and value of fixed assets, production methods and legal status (Agyei-Mensah, 2011; Abor & Quartey, 2010).

1.1.2 Definition of an SMME: A South African perspective

The South African definition, as per the National Small Enterprise Act, 1996 (Act No. 102 of 1996) as amended, considers the total full time equivalent of paid employees and annual turnover categories. The Act defines small enterprise as a separate and distinct business entity, together with its branches or subsidiaries, if any, including cooperative enterprises, managed by one owner or more predominantly carried on in any sector or subsector of the economy mentioned in column 1 of the table below.

The National Small Enterprise Act was amended in 2019 to incorporate the new turnover threshold values to account for inflation and define small enterprise using two proxies as opposed to three that were used previously used. The amended definition is as follows:

Table 2: The South African definition of SMMEs

2. THE SOUTH AFRICAN SMMES AND CO-OPERATIVES LANDSCAPE

2.1 Small, Medium and Micro Enterprises

a) Market Landscape

The FinScope Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) Survey South Africa conducted in 2020 found that South Africa has an estimated 2.6 million entrepreneurs, 46 per cent are female, running 3.2 million SMMEs<sup>6</sup>. Of these entrepreneurs 37 per cent are young business owners. The estimated number of SMMEs aligns with previous studies such as the FinScope MSME Survey South Africa 2010 which found 2.8 million SMMEs<sup>7</sup>, the 2019 StatsSA QLFS report which found 2.5 million SMMEs and the 2016 Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) report which found 2.9 million SMMEs in South Africa<sup>8</sup>. In fact, according to these estimates the level of entrepreneurship and the number of SMMEs in South Africa has remained fairly flat over the last decade.

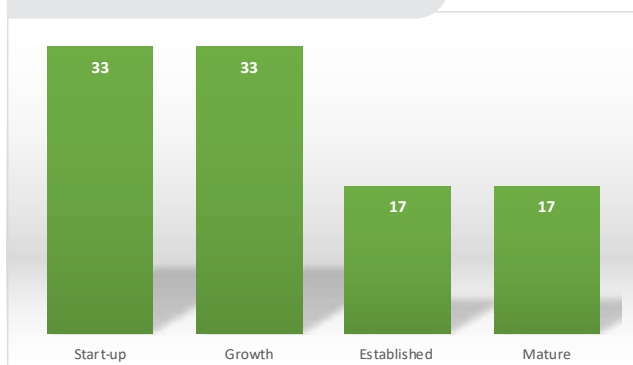

As per the NDP, SMMEs are at the forefront of addressing poverty and creating much-needed employment. Currently South Africa's SMMEs contribute 40 per cent towards the Gross Domestic Product (GDP). The majority (84 per cent) operate in either the personal services (e.g. hairdressing, landscaping, auto repair) or wholesale/retail trade sectors where there are limited opportunity for value addition and by extension limited impact on GDP.

The SMMEs in South Africa are largely micro enterprises (54 per cent) and operate on an informal basis. Only 37 per cent of South African SMMEs are formally registered with the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission (CIPC) and/or other government registration channels such as the local municipalities and only 30 per cent of are registered for tax. However, those SMMEs that are formally registered are a significant driver of the economy, contributing over R2.9 trillion to GDP.

The South African SMMEs provide 87 per cent of employment opportunities in the country, with owners comprising 20 per cent of this employment figure. Research conducted by FinFind found that while SMMEs contribute between 2 to 3 million formal full-time jobs in South Africa, a significant portion of these can be attributed to the entrepreneur themselves identifying as being employed by the enterprise. This phenomenon is even more prevalent in the micro and informally run businesses. This is confirmed in the MSME Voice, a research report commissioned by the IFC in 2020 which found that the rising level of unemployment is the key driver to most people pursuing informal self-employment opportunities.

The majority of the South Africa SMMEs, as depicted in figure 1, are either in the start-up or growth phase of the business development life cycle and many do not make it past these two phases as 70 per cent of businesses in South Africa fail within five years<sup>12</sup>. The high rate of business mortality is of concern given the sector's envisioned contribution towards the country's inclusive economic growth goal. The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) South Africa Report 2016/2017<sup>13</sup> indicated that for every person exiting a business in 2016, there were 1.5 people engaged in entrepreneurial activity. This compares poorly to the regional average of 2.4.

While the SMME sector has grown over the years, a number of hurdles have been identified that are impeding the sector from having greater impact on GDP growth and employment creation. Entrepreneurs surveyed in the FinScope MSME Survey South Africa 2020 highlighted hurdles encountered in access to finance (73 per cent), access to markets (32 per cent) and regulatory red tape (28 per cent)<sup>14</sup> as the biggest impediments to starting and running a business.

b) Financial Inclusion Landscape

The SMMEs in South Africa are not financially served to the same extent as the individuals. The 2020 FinScope MSME Survey South Africa found that 84 per cent of SA SMMEs were financially included<sup>15</sup> with 81 per cent of them being formally served<sup>16</sup>. However the level of formal financial inclusion is largely attributable to the use of financial products and services by business owners in their personal capacity instead of that of the business.

The South African business owners make use of the full spectrum of financial products (figure 2), but the usage level varies between different financial products. The use of transactional accounts is the highest (80 per cent) among SMMEs relative to the other product categories. Of the 80 per cent of business owners using transactional accounts, 70 per cent indicated that they use their own personal account for business purposes. This can be expected given the high prevalence of sole proprietorships and informally run businesses. The use of personal transactional accounts for business purposes by SMMEs in South Africa is concerning, as transactional accounts are deemed the anchor product for participating fully in the financial system thus SMMEs ability to acquire other financial products and services may be limited their personal ability instead of that of the business. It is critical that BDS services make SMME owners aware of the advantages of separating the two aspects.

Source: FinScope MSME South Africa 2020

The ability to make and receive payments is deemed as a gateway to the beneficial use of financial services. Although South African SMMEs have access to and make use of a transactional account this usage does not translate to the use of the digital payment functions of such accounts. Most SMMEs, in fact over 60 per cent, make and receive their payments in cash. This erodes the benefits which can be derived from the use of digital payments, which according to a study conducted by IZA World of Labour includes an increase in business profitability as digital payments allow for more efficient and cost-effective financial transactions<sup>17</sup>.

Adopting a saving culture is important for SMMEs as it creates a cashflow buffer during lull periods and allows for asset accumulation for further investment in the business in other periods. According to the 2020 FinScope MSME South Africa, three quarters of the business owners surveyed reported that they were saving for their business, with most of these savings held with banks and only four per cent occurring through the informal savings market. Savings in the SMME sector<sup>18</sup> is more prevalent among formal enterprises, small and medium businesses and in the industrial sector with the informal and micro businesses lagging behind.

Insurance provides a cushion against costly and unforeseen events and is therefore important for SMMEs, but only 33 per cent of South African SMMEs report having some form of insurance cover for their business. The majority of such coverage is the statutorily required workman's compensation or coverage required by financiers over financed assets with other business insurable risks not covered by SMMEs. Respondents to the FinScope 2020 MSME Survey indicated that the biggest reason for not covering insurable risks is the high cost of premiums and lack of knowledge about risks and insurance products. It is also likely that the low insurance penetration can also be attributed to the high rates of informality within the SMME sector. The development of appropriate, easy-to-understand and conveniently delivered insurance products for the SMME sector requires a concerted effort to improve the situation and reduce operational risk for the sector.

<sup>15</sup> Financially included refers to business owners who have/use both formal and informal financial products and/or services for business purposes <sup>16</sup> Formally served refers to business owners who have/use formal financial products and/or services provided by a formal financial institution (bank and/or non-bank) <sup>17</sup> How digital payments can benefit entrepreneurs, IZA World of Labour, 2017 <sup>18</sup> FinScope MSME Survey South Africa 2020, FinMark Trust <sup>19</sup> Enterprise Survey, World Bank, 2007

Lack of funding has been identified as one of the contributing factors to the lack of growth in the SMME sector. According to the FinScope MSME survey, only 33 per cent of businesses reported having accessed credit. This aligns with estimates from the World Bank<sup>19</sup>, which primarily focused on established formally run businesses and indicated that only a third of formal SMEs accessed credit.

This is compounded by the fact that, as noted above, a significant number of entrepreneurs conduct their business affairs through personal bank accounts. Applying for financing in their personal capacity further limits access to financing for entrepreneurs as many will not meet financier underwriting requirements. Many of these entrepreneurs will also have not accumulated sufficient fixed assets to pledge as surety. This constrains SMMEs in accessing the necessary credit to invest in and grow their businesses.

Micro-finance often plays a major role in consumer and SMME financing in developing countries. Such institutions typically have the advantage of local knowledge and community involvement, allowing more beneficial market engagement. However, in South Africa micro-finance plays a relatively minor role in SMME financing. This situation requires further analyses and possible policy interventions to address the challenges in a sustainable manner.

The provision and use of digital financial services (DFS) have increased significantly over the last decade. This is also evident in the SMME market, where digital payment services, on-line lending and investment services are available from many new and existing financial service providers. In addition, new types of services are being offered, for example peer-to-peer and crowd-funding access to capital services, as well as digital cross-border remittances and payments.

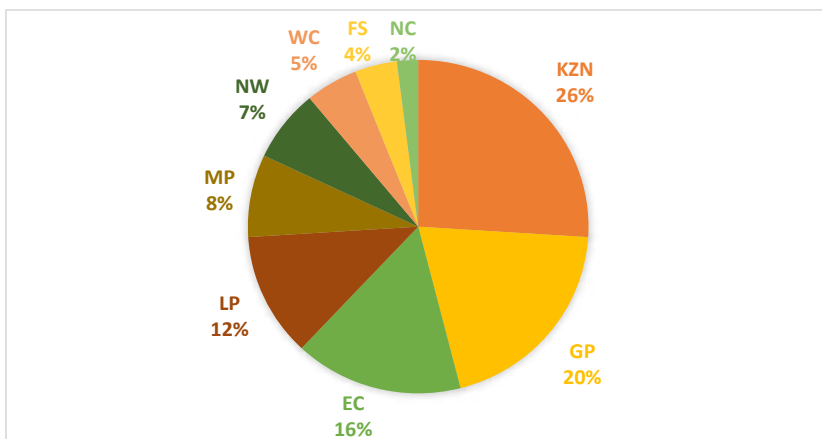

In addition, existing service providers like banks have converted existing services to a digital service and have added new services to extend their digital offering. DFS services in general hold the promise of an expanding range of easily available services, often available at less cost than the traditional services. However, the lack of or the reduced instance of human interaction during the acquiring process leaves consumers, including SMMEs, vulnerable to unfair business practices and often result in a lack of understanding of the risks and true costs of the digital services. This has to be countered by greater and more effective oversight by financial service regulators, particularly market conduct regulators.

In order to derive maximum benefits offered by the digital financial services, financiers should implement simplified lending processes by introducing common application and business plan templates as well as automated loan origination system to eliminate human errors, bring transparency to the process, fastrack funding decisions and increase the volume of funding to SMME and Co-operative sector.

2.2 Co-operatives

a) Market Landscape

In a 2017 study conducted by Ravinder Rena (NWU School of Business and Governance), "Co-operatives in South Africa: A Review", it was estimated that South Africa had 43,062 Co-operatives located mainly in Kwa-Zulu Natal, Gauteng, Eastern Cape and Limpopo (figure 3).<sup>20</sup> A relatively small number in comparison to the 2.6 million Co-operatives in the world reported in the 2014 global census on Co-operatives.<sup>21</sup>

Source: CIPC Register 1922 – 2011

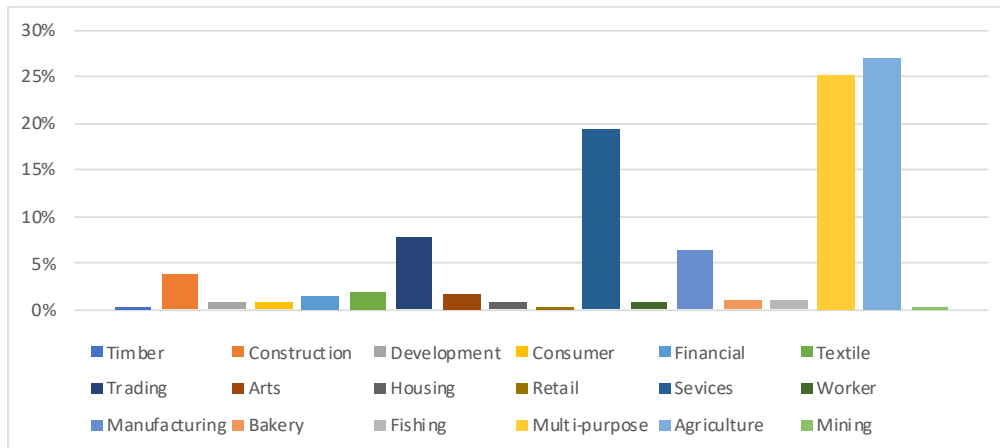

<sup>20</sup> Co-operatives in South Africa: A Review, Indian Journal of Science and Technology, Vol 10(45), DOI: 10.17485/ijst/2017/v10i45/117678, 2017 <sup>21</sup>Measuring the Size and Scope of the Co-operative Economy: Results of the 2014 Global Census on Co-operatives, United Nations, 2014

From a membership perspective, according to the 2009 dti baseline study on Co-operatives, very few of the South African Co-operatives had more than 100 members (less than 12 per cent) with the majority (65 per cent) estimated to have fewer than ten members (65 per cent) while 23 per cent had between 11 and 20 members. Of those affiliated to Co-operatives 40 per cent were youth, aged between 16 and 34 and there were 20 per cent more female Co-operatives members than male members.<sup>22</sup> Of the Co-operatives surveyed in the dti study, 93 per cent were primary Co-operatives<sup>23</sup>, 6 per cent secondary Co-operatives<sup>24</sup> and one per cent tertiary Co-operatives with most of them operating in the agriculture sector or as multi-purpose Co-operatives (27 per cent and 25 per cent respectively) while the textile and mining Co-operatives had the least numbers as shown in figure 4.<sup>26</sup>

Source: The dti baseline study of co-operatives in South Africa, 2009

More than 80 per cent of South African Co-operatives are less than 3 years old<sup>27</sup> and approximately 12,252 have been liquidated during the period 1965 to 2020<sup>28</sup>, indicating a high failure rate among these entities. The main reason for this failure has been found to be state contracts that had been promised (or expected) but did not materialise, followed by poor business management, conflict between Co-operative members, the economic recession and resultant decrease in financial support, skills development and capacity building, all of which when coupled with competition from larger companies culminated into increased vulnerability in the sector.

Although supported as a means to address the unemployment crisis and stimulate the much-needed growth in the country only 13 per cent of Co-operatives had employees and of those with employees 84 per cent employed less than 15 individuals, while 48 per cent of them employed between 1 and 5 individuals. A significantly low employment contribution in relation to global trends where Co-operatives provide jobs or work opportunities to 10 per cent of the employed population.<sup>29</sup>

According to the dti baseline study, 70 per cent of Co-operatives have an annual turnover of less than R50,000. While the study could not quantify the sectors total contribution to the country’s GDP it was found that larger Co-operatives contribute 0.33 per cent to GDP while the smaller Co-operatives contribution to GDP could not be quantified.<sup>30</sup>

The study further found that South African Co-operatives have dual characteristics consisting of two extremes, namely relatively young and emerging Co-operatives, and the older more established ones. The emerging Co-operatives present higher vulnerabilities due to their level of business maturity as a result these Co-operatives require support to foster their growth and enable them to achieve their full potential in contributing to the economy. The older more established Co-operatives on the other hand have been in operation for a longer period and have shown potential for success as they have been able to achieve positive economic gains. These Co-operatives were found to require slightly different type of support which should focus on developing more markets for them.

b) Financial Inclusion Landscape

There is no publicly available data in South Africa which focuses on the level of financial inclusion among Co-operatives. While datasets such as the FinScope MSME survey indicate the level of financial inclusion for SMMEs in South Africa this data is insufficient for drawing information on the Co-operatives sector. This lack of data limits the insights that can be drawn on the Co-operatives sector from an access to financial services and products perspective and therefore limits evidence driven interventions which government and the private sector can put in place to increase the level of financial inclusion for the sector.

SMMEs and Co-operatives require funding in various forms depending on the stage of development and business needs. These include grant funding to support ideation<sup>32</sup> and development of proof of concept, seed capital to fund pre revenue start-ups<sup>33</sup>, working and growth capital for established enterprises and risk capital to provide exits for entrepreneurs in matured businesses. Research by the IFC estimates the need for capital in the South African SMME sector at R590b<sup>34</sup>. According to the report on the South African small enterprise ecosystem published by the Department of Small Business Development in 2017, the financial providers are as follows:

Funding for SMMEs is dominated by banks which provide R160bn in credit to the sector while funding for Co-operatives is mainly provided through government and its development financing institutions. While a significant source of funding for the SMME sector, the risk appetite of and the regulatory demands on banks lead to strict underwriting criteria for the extension of credit to SMMEs, thereby reducing the ability of entrepreneurs to access credit. As such, the majority of bank lending is directed at larger and more established businesses rather than the small and micro segment which struggles to meet bank lending requirements.

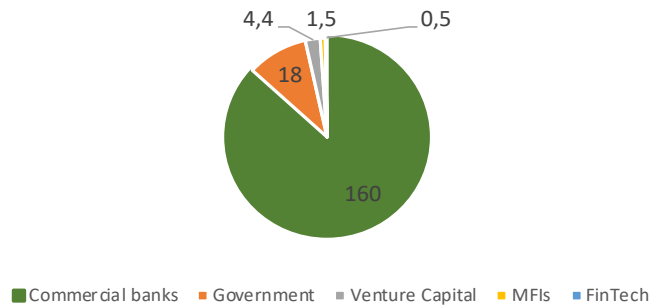

<sup>31</sup> The World Bank defines the credit infrastructure as the set of laws and institutions that enables efficient and effective access to finance, financial stability, and socially responsible economic growth through credit reporting, secured transactions & collateral registries; and insolvency & debt resolution. <sup>32</sup> Ideation is the stage of developing an idea that solves the problem in the process of creating a business opportunity. <sup>33</sup> The stage where the opportunity has been proven that it is real and the product solves the problem. <sup>34</sup> Unseen sector, IFC, 2018

According to the OECD, only 26 per cent of business credit extended by banks is directed towards SMMEs<sup>35</sup>, with the lion's share of this going towards established medium sized businesses.

The direct government support in the form of grants and loans amounts to R17bn. In its report "Financing Small Business in South Africa"<sup>36</sup>, the World Bank notes that there are a number of opportunities to improve support to this sector provided by Development Financial Institutions (DFIs) in order to align funding with the needs of SMMEs. These include improved collection of data on SMMEs requiring financing and consolidation of the various funding programs available in order to lower costs and simplify the funding landscape.

The risk capital from private financiers other than banks amounts to R55bn. As such, the South African market provides R230bn in funding to the SMME sector. This represents a shortfall of $30bn<sup>37</sup> or approximately 8 per cent of GDP.

The government is providing support for SMMEs through various initiatives to ensure that the sector grows and is sustainable. However, the World Bank's Doing Business 2020 shows South Africa's overall ranking dropped to 84 from 82 in 2018<sup>38</sup>. While South Africa's Doing Business score has not changed appreciably, the lower ranking suggests that other countries are improving their business environments faster than South Africa. South Africa thus needs to do much more with respect to policies and regulations for meaningful change in support of SMMEs.

While notarial bonds on immovable property of significant value may serve as surety, the complex and expensive processes for registering notarial bonds makes it uneconomical and unattractive for most financiers. Furthermore, many entrepreneurs will not be able to show proof of regular income at levels required by financiers for personal lending. As such, sole proprietors and informal entrepreneurs will struggle to raise financing. The lack of information on SMMEs creditworthiness leads to financiers demanding collateral that cannot be offered by most SMMEs, leading to higher interest rates based on the assumed credit risk.

3. CHALLENGES TO SMMES AND CO-OPERATIVES ACCESS TO FINANCE IN SOUTH AFRICA

3.1 SMMES Access to Finance Challenges

a) Early-Stage Financing

The SMMEs at the beginning of their lifecycle typically cannot access bank financing because they do not yet have tangible assets or a revenue track record, and so they rely on personal savings or funding from friends and family. However, given South Africa's historic context, it is not likely that the majority of the population will have personal assets nor the extended networks which could facilitate funding of an early-stage business. Private equity (PE), venture capital (VC) and angel investors would traditionally provide early-stage financing in mature markets.

Although South Africa has a well-developed PE/VC market, the vast majority of funds are channelled into late-stage investments – less than 4 percent of PE funds under management go towards early-stage investments, and VC funds earmarked for start-ups equate to less than 2 percent of funds committed to later stage investments. An alternative to risk-based start-up funding such as PE/VC and angel investment is the extension of grants. Grants are funds made available to entrepreneurs with no requirement for the ventures to repay the funds. As they are not meant to be repaid, the quantum of grant funding available is often small, available to a very specific subset of entrepreneurs and limited to very specific uses. Grants are made by the various arms of government as well as some non-profit private organisations.

As grants do not require repayment, they form a very attractive funding mechanism for ventures which have not established their commercial viability. Specifically, businesses in the development and start-up phases will find it difficult to secure funding on commercial terms as the viability of the business has not been established. However, the lack of repayment means that grants represent a significant drain on the fiscus. This in addition to the very specific and tailored nature of grants implies that grant funding is not a sustainable model for stimulating entrepreneurship on a large scale. Hence, there is a start-up capital financing gap in South Africa that constitutes a barrier to entrepreneurship.

b) Working Capital

Among many access to finance challenges faced by South African SMMEs, cash flow constraints are often cited as a significant hurdle to the survival and growth of small businesses. SMMEs struggle to obtain the required capital to purchase equipment, machinery, business vehicle, invest in day to day operations and service contracts due to their weak financial position. One source of cash flow challenges faced by SMMEs is the late payment of invoices submitted to large clients, particularly government. National Treasury reports that national departments alone owed SMMEs R415 million in invoices not paid after 30 days in the 2021 financial year. Similarly, large corporate clients often impose 60 to 90 day payment terms on smaller suppliers, creating a significant lag between when entrepreneurs must lay out cash in order to provide goods or services and when they receive payment.

c) Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) financing

Enterprise and supplier development programmes, with financing as a component of the programme, can play a major role in SMME financing. A number of corporates and industries have set up such programmes and have achieved some success, albeit it on a limited scale. The involvement of corporates in terms of the skills development of SMMEs is a major contributing factor to the success achieved. It is important that these programmes are assessed and that learnings are extracted to enable larger scale deployment of the programmes.

d) The South African SMME credit information landscape

A credit information system primarily serves the purpose of providing credit risk information about potential lenders. This allows credit providers to objectively assess the credit risk associated with a loan applicant and to base the credit decision and the interest rate payable on such information. Without a credit risk system each application would require individual data gathering and analyses, which will add to the cost of the application and which may result in inaccurate risk assessments. This is equally true for consumers and SMMEs.

Currently, consumer credit information is collected from all credit providers who extend consumer credit. The data infrastructure for this is provided by the South African Credit and Risk Reporting Association (SACRRA). SACRRA is a not-for-profit, voluntary association, which was established in 1989. Members share credit and risk performance data of consumers (i.e. payment profiles).

Credit information data thus currently exists primarily at consumer level. The National Credit Act defines SMMEs with assets or turnover below R1 million as consumers, leading to consumer-type information being gathered for these enterprises. The credit risk of the SMME itself is often not measured. Instead, creditors assume that the creditworthiness of the owner(s) is an indicator of the credit risk of the business. For start-ups and small businesses, this is not necessarily the case. Due to lack of access to finance, many SMMEs are self-funded by the owner(s) and business cash flow is often supplemented by the owner(s) in their personal capacity. This can have a negative impact on consumer credit ratings for SMME owner(s).

According to the World Bank, even where one or more credit reporting systems are in place, these rarely include reliable and complete information on SMMEs, thus exacerbating the SMME "credit gap" in many markets. Access to accurate, meaningful, and sufficient information on SMMEs for lenders, enhances their ability to assess SMME creditworthiness, and to make well-founded, fact-based credit risk assessments. Conversely, the absence of Credit Reporting Service Providers (CRSP) focused on SMMEs becomes a significant inhibitor to the provision of credit to small businesses.<sup>39</sup>

e) De-risking of SMME financing

I. Patrial credit guarantee schemes

A key impediment to the extension of credit to the SMME sector is that commercial lenders consider these businesses to be high risk borrowers, particularly because many entrepreneurs have little or no assets to pledge as collateral to back the loans, few small businesses keep financial records to indicate the financial performance of the business and the sector is dominated by underdeveloped financial management controls.

One mechanism for reducing the risk faced by lenders, and thus making SMME lending more attractive, is to mitigate the credit risk in part by providing a guarantee in the case of loan defaults to the lender for loans extended to SMMEs provided that certain guidelines for the assessing and monitoring of the loan process are met.

In South Africa, The Khula Credit Guarantee Scheme seeks to achieve this goal. The Scheme is run by Khula Credit Guarantee (SOC) Limited (KCG) a wholly owned subsidiary of sefa. KCG is a licensed non-life insurer authorised by the Prudential Authority under the South African Reserve Bank (SARB) and is open to all commercial banks and qualifying financial intermediaries. While the Khula Credit Guarantee Scheme has been operational for 26 years, it has been under-utilised by lenders due to several weaknesses that undermined the incentives for using it. Subsequent to a diagnostic review of the Scheme by the World Bank, a number of recommendations have been adopted which have seen the Scheme redesigned to address identified shortcomings with a view of increasing the guarantee utilisation rate.

II. Movable asset collateral registry

The issue of a lack of assets to pledge as collateral for loans is cited as a major impediment to the extension of credit to the SMME sector. While most small businesses lack the fixed property that lenders prefer to hold as collateral, they may have movable assets of some value at their disposal, such as the business's inventory, cash and cash equivalents, equipment, account receivable or the entrepreneur's personal assets such as furniture. A movable asset register<sup>40</sup> with a supporting legal framework would provide a legal and institutional framework that will record the ownership and use of movable assets as collateral for small enterprise finance and will make it possible for credit providers to make a legal claim on such collateral, should the lender default. This then ultimately lowers the risk for lenders and enables increased lending to this market. Currently South Africa does not have a movable asset registry although the legal framework for registration of notarial bonds on specific movable assets is in place.

3.2 Co-operatives Access to Finance Challenges

There is a need for a differentiated financial support products for various types of Co-operatives as a way of responding to the specialised needs of the Co-operatives that will set Co-operatives apart from other types of enterprises. A Co-operatives Development Fund should be established jointly with the Co-operative sector and other role players including potential funders. The Fund must provide funding to different types of Co-operatives such as worker-owned Co-operatives and user-owned Co-operatives. The Funding interventions within the Co-operative sector must advance the principle of equity and support collaborative marketplaces for Co-operatives buyers and service providers.

The funding instruments for Co-operatives should be administered using the following criteria as a benchmark:

- Labour Intensity: This is an important technical requirement for an economy that is confronted with high levels of unemployment.
- Skill intensity: The focus must be on low skill intensity in order to combat the scourge of structural unemployment. Through "learning-by-doing" and integration of education and training to economic and social activity.
- Value Addition: This is important for the production of social surplus, which is the basis of long-run economic growth.
- Redistribution: The Co-operatives activities that must be prioritised are those which encourage Industrial development, are pro-poor and not reproduce income inequality and plight of the historically disadvantaged communities.
- Export Orientation: Prioritise funding to Co-operatives that operate in sectors that exhibiting high export-orientation because that stand to benefit the economy through foreign exchange earnings and thus ease balance of payments problems.
- Import Orientation and Penetration: The Co-operatives that operate in sectors that suffer from high import-penetration, and yet have a major role to play in meeting the goals of the country's growth and development trajectory must be supported through strategic trade policy intervention, technological capacity building, infrastructure and access to critical inputs.
- Water Intensity: Proceeding from the fact that South Africa is a water scarce country, Co-operatives funding must seek to direct them towards sustainable development activities in order to encourage environmentally and socially sustainable business activities. This will lead to a decline in water intensity of production over time. It will also significantly add to sustainable development, and release water to be used for social needs and food production in agriculture.
- Legislative burden and cost of compliance: The South African legislative environment requires that businesses comply to certain pieces of laws in order to operate effectively and enable free trade in the value chains within which they operate. One of the challenging legislative requirements are linked to the aspects of environmental protection and management through instruments such as the need to trade and operate through a licence or permit for instance fishing rights permit, waste licence, animal trading permit, and others.

<sup>40</sup> A movable asset registry is a register of non-fixed assets used as collateral for commercial loans. It is supported by a legal and regulatory framework to be effective.

a) Enterprising Co-operatives

Although the capital needs of Co-ops are normally financed through internal sources such as member share capital, membership fees and loans, this is not always feasible thus emerging Co-operatives still find it difficult to attract and retain adequate capitalisation. The member-based operation of Co-operatives and their surplus sharing method based on use makes them less attractive to venture capital and Angel investors. Government entities, DFIs and private sector financial institutions often do not understand the structures of Co-operatives, which result in limited support provided to Co-operatives. Consequently, Co-operatives experience difficulties in retaining earnings, increasing capital requirements because existing incentives and support structures developed for SMMEs do not address the need of Co-operatives across their life cycle and sector.

According to the dti Baseline Study, only a limited number of Co-operatives have accessed finance in the past two years, whether as a loan or a grant. For example, of the 159 Co-operatives that have applied for loans, only 39 (24.5 per cent) have succeeded. Similarly, of the 181 Co-operatives that have applied for grants, only 61 (34 per cent) have succeeded.

Despite various government institutions providing support to Co-operatives, support rendered to the sector has been negligible, unfocused, unco-ordinated and lack systematic and sustained targeting resulting in inadequate and in some instances non-existent budget allocations dedicated to the Co-operative sector.

b) Financial Co-operative Institutions

Financial Co-operative Institutions, also known as Co-operative Banking Institutions (CBIs) and registered with the Prudential Authority, rely on member share capital, return on investments, interest on loans and service fees to enable them to provide financial services and related products to their members. For emerging CBIs, the reliance on available sources of income/revenue during the initial stage has proven to be a constraint on their growth. This is primarily due to limited interest income from loans being available at start-up, which is the main source of revenue for CBIs. The minimum capital requirements imposed by the Prudential Authority further constrains CBIs' use of funds for growth purposes.

To overcome the capacity constraint that CBIs face in employing suitably qualified staff during the crucial start-up phase government, and private entities, such as the Banking Sector Education and Training Authority (BANKSETA) and tertiary educational institutions, are approached to cover the cost of providing relevant training to staff members.

To enable the sector to grow, it needs to access sources of external funding which it can use for on-lending to its members in a responsible manner. The Prudential Authority limits external borrowings to 15 per cent of total assets. There is a further prudential requirement that fixed assets may not exceed 5 per cent of total assets. While these requirements have been instituted to ensure greater stability it is crucial that the requirements are reviewed in the light of the realities being faced by CBI.

Some of the CBIs that are performing well are supported, especially at start-up phase, by financially stable entities that have a common bond relationship with the CBI, particularly if those entities have a large member base that can act as a source for deposits and funding for the CBI. A common bond is a prerequisite for registration with the Prudential Authority and non-members may not use the services of a CBI. There are only a few registered CBIs who have such relations, such as Union membership-based CBIs. A CBI is allowed to service both individuals and enterprising members (juristic members), depending on its business plan and objectives of the CBI. They can therefore provide products that respond to their members' needs which would include business related financial products.

The CBIs are key in extending access to finance for SMMEs and other members as they are a self-help member-driven entity, operating within a community with a common bond. The Co-operative Banking Sector Strategic Options Paper developed by the World Bank highlights that members of CBIs perceive their financial Co-operative (CBI) as the preferred institution to obtain financial assistance for personal and business loans. However, without proper funding and sufficient deposits from members, these institutions are unable to provide quality services to their members, including SMME members. Part of the power of CBIs in South Africa is the ability to support businesses and to bring financial skills to local communities through the involvement of their members. CBIs can provide the building blocks for economic development in underserved communities and rural areas.

3.3 Microfinance sector

The first microenterprise credit organisation in South Africa was the Get Ahead Foundation (GAF), which disbursed its first loans in 1987 in the township of Atteridgeville, West of Pretoria. In the early 90s, three more group-based lending organisations were launched namely the Small Enterprise Foundation (SEF), Women's Development Banking (WDB), and the Rural Finance Facility. All of these new DMFIs targeted the rural areas of South Africa and employed an adapted model of the Grameen bank group lending. Despite the high level of interest and investment in the microfinance sector in other parts of the world, only five DMFIs are operational in South Africa namely Small Enterprise Foundation, Phakamani Foundation, Siyakhula Microfinance Institutions, Get Ready Investment Holdings and Akanani Finance Company while another 45 organisations have started operating but had to close due to capacity issues and a longer period of time that is required before an organisation can reach self-sufficiency. The sponsors and investors do not have appetite for these challenges.

In South Africa the Microfinance sector can be divided into two namely, the mainstream commercial microfinance institutions (MFIs) that focus on the provision of consumption loans to employed individuals and these MFIs require an applicant to present a payslip or other proof of employment and Development Microfinance Institutions (DMFIs), on the other hand, lend to self-employed individuals who are operating micro and small enterprises which are too small or informal to access loans from formal financial institutions. The DMFIs are the main focus of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy.

The microfinance sector in South Africa has advanced a total of 254 971 loans as at 30 September 2021, representing a loan book of R754 million. Loans advanced to women (99 per cent), youth (20 per cent) and persons with disabilities (1 per cent). The average loan size is R2,957. The total number and value of loans disbursed by the current DMFIs since inception stands at 3.5 million loans valued at R8.4 billion, with an average loan size of R2,400. MFIs are serving businesses that include tuckshops or spazas, fruit and vegetable vending, catering and baking, beverages, traders in nuts and meat, traders in new and used clothing, dressmakers, hairsalons and room rentals. Despite the good progress reported by the microfinance sector, the sector is experiencing a number of challenges that can be grouped into the following categories:

(a) Client market challenges

The density of microenterprises in South Africa is less than in other developing countries, both in urban and rural locations, which means that it is more expensive to reach them, microenterprises in South Africa have a lower level of business and technical skills in relative terms. There is an increasing competition between microenterprises and formal businesses, with new malls and retail chains expanding in townships and smaller towns. The arrival of foreign nationals, with entrepreneurial experience and access to financing networks, has also created competition for local microenterprises.

(b) Institutional challenges

South Africa is experiencing a serious shortage of skilled individuals who are experienced in microenterprise lending methodologies and global best practices. This is exacerbated by the fact that most Micro Finance Institutions (MFIs) have not had access to technical assistance from global experts in the field, consequently they have had to learn the lessons from scratch.

The operating cost ratios for MFIs in South Africa are high in relation to other African countries and the country's MFIs have the highest salary burden ratios in the world. Donors and investors are not investing sufficient funds in the microfinance sector and this has led to the closure of various microenterprise finance initiatives due to a lack of sufficient funding or patient capital.

(c) Environmental challenge

In light of the perceived high level of crime in South Africa, MFIs cannot collect loan repayments in cash. This means that all transactions must be channelled through the banking system, which results in high transaction costs for both the MFI and its clients. The judicial system in South Africa effectively prohibits microenterprise lenders from taking movable assets as collateral, either through a pledge or through an asset finance agreement, due to the cost and time frames involved in obtaining a judgement through the Magistrates courts.

This has created a challenge wherein almost no lending is extended to micro or small enterprises requiring loan sizes between R25,000 and R100,000<sup>41</sup>.

Box 1: Supporting SMMEs through Microfinance

In Bangladesh, the Grameen Bank was started by Professor Muhammed Yunus in 1979 after successfully lending his own money to about 500 women across a selection of villages after observing the impact and good repayment rates.

- In 1983, Grameen Bank had pioneered the centre group lending methodology serving 58,000 borrowers. Government then passed an ordinance transforming the project into an independent specialised bank for the poor, owned 40 per cent by borrowers and 60 per cent by government.
- In 2006, Grameen had serviced 6.2 million borrowers (97 per cent female) with an average loan balance of USD77, and 6.9 million savers with an average savings balance of USD31. Grameen has continued to grow since then and government ownership has declined over time.
- In 2017, Grameen had 2,568 branches serving 81,400 villages, 93 per cent of all villages in Bangladesh.
- By the end of 2019, 16 million microenterprises were serviced by the Grameen bank with loans worth USD 7 billion<sup>42</sup>.

4. POLICY PROPOSALS

Given the above background, the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy seeks to amplify Pillar two (2) of the National Treasury Financial Inclusion Policy by implementing the following interventions that are aimed at improving the access to finance ecosystem for SMMEs and Co-operatives. In particular, improving the manner in which the various actors in the ecosystem relate to each other, broadening the range of financing instruments available to SMMEs and Co-operatives, improving access to credit by building an appropriate credit infrastructure for SMMEs and Co-operatives, promoting the use of transaction account and payments services for SMMEs and Co-operatives, encourage the design and uptake of suitable insurance for SMMEs and Co-operatives:

4.1 Improving coordination in the SMME and Co-operative access to finance ecosystem

As with all ecosystems with a number of different actors involved, coordination to achieve maximum impact is a perpetual challenge. Where some of these actors are independent organisations with specific statutory mandates coordination can become complex. It is therefore proposed that coordination for the SMME and Co-operatives access to finance ecosystem is formalised and that this effort is led and operationalised by DSBD, in close conjunction with National Treasury.

This coordination should recognise that actions are required at different levels, be it a national, a particular industry segment or a particular element of a value chain level. Appropriate platforms should be established, with clear and approved mandates and with all relevant stakeholders involved. Agreement on objective and appropriate measures of success should form part of the operations of these platforms.

At a national level it will not always be possible to formulate a single programme to which all actors can contribute, although in some cases that might be the case. However, it is crucial that all actions contemplated by the different actors are brought to the platforms and considered by all participants to ensure that, as far as possible, such actions support the overall objective of improving the ecosystem and that unintended consequences can be avoided.

The members of the national coordination forum should at least include:

- DSBD (and its agencies)
- National Treasury
- the dtic
- Department of Social Development
- Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development
- SARB, FSCA, NCR, CBDA and ICASA
- BASA, ASISA, SAIA and MFSA
- Representative organisations of SMME and Co-operative enterprises
- Representatives of the general business sector

The structure of coordination platforms for specific segments or value chains should be determined by the nature and objectives of the desired cooperation. In these instances the feasibility of aggregating the demand of goods and services as well as aggregating the supply of SMME goods and services should be investigated and operationalised where possible.

4.2 Database of small businesses

In South Africa, there is a lack of reliable data on small business. Obtaining an accurate count of the number of SMMEs and Co-operatives covering both informal and formal sector is a challenge. It is essential that a reliable estimate of the number of SMMEs and Co-operatives is established to inform resource allocation and programme design. The National Department of Small Business Development has developed a dedicated portal (www.smmesa.gov.za) to obtain information about SMMEs operating in the country.

To incrementally build a reliable database of SMMEs and Co-operatives, DSBD will coordinate the aggregation of all publicly accessible small business data sets under the www.smmesa.gov.za database. This will include small business data gathered via the CIPC's BizPortal site and tax data gathered by SARS and information provided by local actors such as Municipalities including Local Economic Development Offices, Ward Councillors, Industry Associations (South African Informal Traders Alliance, Business Chambers etc), membership-based organisations, Business Development Providers including Professional Bodies and any other relevant stakeholders.

More importantly, DSBD will leverage the extension of financing to the SMME sector as a mechanism for gathering data on the sector. Data on businesses receiving financial support through the various publicly supported financing facilities will be added to the small business database. DSBD will also engage BASA, other representative bodies and regulators on the provision of similar data for businesses receiving private sector financing. The database will thus provide a view on SMMEs activities in the country. In addition, the DSBD in partnership with other role players should constantly conduct national surveys of the SMME sector that will, among other benefits give a reasonably accurate account of the informal and formal SMMEs.

It is critical that in all these data gathering exercises sufficient data is gathered to enable gender-disaggregated analysis. Without such specific insights the development of policy interventions to address gender issues and the design of specific initiatives will be insufficiently informed. It has been shown in a number of other jurisdictions that addressing gender imbalances require gender-specific actions.

4.3 Improving the provision of start-up capital

The South African entrepreneurs cite lack of start-up capital as a significant hurdle to establishing new ventures. While direct monetary support from government will be required to assist entrepreneurs with start-up capital, grant funding and other direct means of support are not sustainable at scale. As such it is imperative that policy makers establish risk-based vehicles that crowd in private sector institutional support for funding start-up ventures.

One such vehicle is the SA SME Fund, a R1.4 billion fund that has invested in 5 VC firms and 5 growth equity firms, as well as two initiatives to support transformation in the fund management industry. These investee managers then identify eligible SMMEs in which to invest on both an equity and debt basis. The fund, which is a partnership between the government and the private sector, has been a critical emerging player in the fundraising environment. Of the total investment, approximately 56 percent is in VC / early-stage with the remaining in growth capital.

Most notably, the SA SME Fund is a public-private partnership developed by the CEO Initiative, a partnership between the government and CEOs to stimulate the economy and create jobs. The fund is capitalised by more than fifty publicly listed firms and the Public Investment Corporation (PIC). This thus provides a model for stimulating private sector institutional support for directing risk-based capital towards SMMEs.

As such, to address the dearth of early-stage capital flowing to SMMEs, there is opportunity for DSBD to leverage the model followed by the SA SME Fund in creating a central fund in partnership with private sector players. The benefit of such a model is that it would allow highly tailored interventions in the start-up ecosystem. For example, this fund could issue a request for proposals (RFP) for funds that invest in early-stage ventures in strategic industries (i.e., health tech) and then partner with established local and/or international fund managers with the requisite expertise to direct capital to deserving ventures. This central fund could also be utilised, if necessary, to provide funding other than start-up funding should that become a necessity.

The second option that must be considered is to establish a Fund of Funds. The Code series 400 of the BBBEE Act, stipulates that measured entities must spend two (2) per cent of Net Profit after Tax (NPAT) towards Supplier Development and one (1) per cent of NPAT on Enterprise Development for black owned or at least 51% black owned EMEs and QSEs. However, these allocations are not necessarily deployed in full in a particular year. The Fund of Funds can be capitalised using underspending from the one (1) per cent allocated to Enterprise Development component. Care must be taken to ensure that this is only implemented in case of access to finance market failures and not as an alternative to finance markets.

4.4 Targeted Funding Instruments for SMMEs and Co-operatives

The SMME sector should not be treated as a single homogenous market as it consists of SMMEs with different financial needs. For instance, entry level enterprises consist of informal enterprises where there is no distinction between business and individual personal financial needs. In most cases the personal account is combined with business account and this is attracting risks to the business owner from budget management and cash flow perspectives. In light of the fact that most of the informal SMMEs blur the line between business and individual, alternative lending models should be developed to support personal lending for business purposes.

This means that a suitable funding mix is required to address funding needs of various SMMEs including those operating in the informal sector. The design and features of the funding product need to be matched with the exact funding needs for SMMEs. Seda and sefa as well as other agencies, should develop support mechanisms for SMMEs at different stages of development in order to improve programme targeting, quality and relevance of support programmes<sup>43</sup>.

The Department of Small Business Development is currently providing funding to small enterprises through a variety of funding instruments such as the Township and Rural Entrepreneurship Programme, Business Viability Programme, Small Enterprise Manufacturing Programme, Co-operatives Development Support Programme, Informal Micro Enterprise Development Programme and Shared Economic Infrastructure Fund. The financiers must implement a combination of loans and grants funding (Blended Finance) to lower the cost of borrowing and improve affordability on the part of the SMMEs and Co-operatives. The return on investment on the grant component can be measured through developmental impact (i.e jobs facilitated, contribution of small enterprises to tax revenue, inclusion of targeted groups, contribution to economic transformation and growth). With regards to small enterprises with predictable cash flows patterns, pure loans can be advanced to them.

The World Bank has published a comprehensive analysis of the various funding mechanisms available to SMMEs. DSBD will build upon this by developing a single government-wide portal which will direct SMMEs to the most appropriate funding programs.

4.5 Business Develop Support (BDS) <sup>45</sup>

Although the development of the BDS sector is strictly speaking not part of the access to finance policy and requires a policy and implementation plan dedicated to BDS, it is mentioned here because aspects of BDS are critical to the access and beneficial use of financial services, particularly access to finance. The section is not intended to be a complete description of BDS development, but rather of those elements of BDS most pertinent to access to finance.

It is generally recognised that the first three to five years of a new business are its most difficult and risky. While, for various reasons, many start-ups typically go it alone during this early phase of their existence, evidence shows that small and medium-sized enterprises that receive Business Development Support (BDS) which includes quality guidance and support from practitioners or advisors with specific expertise, knowledge, and skills early on in their lives reap significant benefits in terms of their early survival, later growth and development.

The BDS ecosystem in South Africa comprises of various role players such as Development Finance Institutions, incubators, government institutions, corporates, Centre for Entrepreneurships, Business Advisors and others. In light of the growing unemployment rate, the small business sector should onboard unemployed Accounting and Business Management graduates to render BDS services under close supervision to small enterprises more especially those operating in underserved and unserved areas (Townships and Rural) in order to increase reach and impact.

<sup>43</sup> Annual Review of Small Business and Co-operatives in South Africa, 2016/17. <sup>44</sup> Mapping of Access to Capital for Early Stage SMMEs in South Africa, 2019. <sup>45</sup> BDS is defined as services that improve the performance of the enterprise, its access to markets, and its ability to compete. Included in the scope of BDS is a range of business services

This has the potential of creating a good quality pipeline of investible small enterprises as is the case with the BDS provided by Nilepreneurs (Box1).

Box 2: Supporting SMMEs Through Appropriate BDS (Nilepreneurs)

NilePreneurs is an Egypt national initiative funded by the Central Bank of Egypt and the Egyptian Banking Sector. NilePreneurs has been supporting Egypt startups and SMEs in the domains of manufacturing, agriculture, and digital transformation since 2019 through applying different innovation instruments. The initiative was first piloted at Nile University and has expanded to 4 other universities and continues to grow.

The initiative provides advisory support services, and implementable financial and non-financial solutions to improve the entrepreneurial environment and help SMEs. NilePreneurs has 5 pillars that target business needs, tackle existing business problems and give them innovative solutions. These are:

- NP Learn which offers a learning journey for entrepreneurs through mentorships, idea hackathons and digital platform providing best practices from industry experts under 3 main programs.
- NP Innovate which supports startups and SMEs in pushing new innovations to the market by providing them with the right expertise in engineering to create new products or re-engineer others.
- NP Incubate which incubates innovative startups in strategic sectors in Egypt, in collaboration with a wide network in the entrepreneurial ecosystem. It supports these start-ups from ideation phase until commercialisation.
- NP Compete enables start-ups and SMMES to improve their market performance and achieve their growth goals through providing technical support and enabling innovation management and technology transfer.
- Khalik Digital allows SMEs to transform their current business models into advanced ones using digital technologies for creating new products and services as well as help them appear on various new channels.

Currently, small enterprises financial readiness is hampered by various factors such as gaps relating to entrepreneurship support structures, lack of coordination among business support programmes, limited tailoring of entrepreneurship support and other challenges relating to the development of entrepreneurship skills.

Access to finance is not useful if the SMMEs and Co-operatives cannot manage their finances or a business is not able to use borrowed funds productively. As such, access to finance should be intertwined with skills and access to markets, which jointly make up broader support environment . In other words, all businesses need to understand how to draw and live within a budget, to borrow responsibly, to avoid over-indebted and to make informed choices between different financial products<sup>47</sup>.

A number of SMMEs and Co-operatives lack the requisite financial skills and struggle with financial planning and management. Poor bookkeeping or documentation is a major contributor to most SMMEs and Co-operatives not receiving funding from lenders. The absence of proper bookkeeping and documentation create serious problems to both SMMEs and lenders.

Good quality financial record keeping among SMMEs in South Africa is reported to be low<sup>48</sup>. This is partly attributable to the fact that SMMEs do not have the requisite accounting system to generate records, or they prefer to remain unknown to evade paying tax. The FinScope Survey revealed that about 46% of the small businesses keep financial records, and the balance is attributable to micro and informal businesses that do not keep records of their business transactions. This is a source of concern as it has the potential of depriving SMMEs an opportunity to access funding from financiers.

The majority of SMMEs and Co-operatives who are eligible for funding are still unable to secure finance they need due to the lack of financial readiness. This also means that they are unable to produce the documents that funders required to assess bankability and affordability for the purposes of approving funding applications. The documents typically include but are not limited to bank account detail, up to date management accounts, current financial statements, budgets and business plans.

In some instances, SMMEs and Co-operatives do not know who the funders are, what type of funding are available, or which of these fit their needs and the qualifying criteria are. Consequently, they applying for products that they do not match their needs. DSBD could play a role by making information available on what type of products (and classes of providers) are appropriate for which situation.

There is a need to deepen financial literacy by improving synergies between business support institutions such as Seda and other Business Development Service providers with a view to promote financial education to SMMEs and Co-operatives. Seda and other Business Development Service providers should institutionalise the practice of assisting SMMEs and Co-operatives with pre-funding support (compliance, directing small businesses to the relevant financiers, matching funding to business needs etc).

The pre-funding support will assist in ensuring that the potential funding applicants are made aware of the information requirement of various financiers throughout the entire application process up to the approval stage.

Prohibitive requirements where these are found should be addressed with the relevant regulators and financial institutions<sup>49</sup> should assist by encouraging SMMEs to open business accounts by creating more seamless account opening process. Financial literacy should be offered by financial institutions as a value-added service linked to a business account package. A South Africa Financial Literacy Strategy should be developed to curb or reduce financial illiteracy. The DSBD and Department of Basic Education should work together to ensure that business management is integrated into the school curriculum.

BDS services are particularly important in addressing some of the issues faced by youth entrepreneurs. As the youth is hardest hit by unemployment, with 64 per cent of those aged 15–24, and 42 per cent of those aged 25–34 unemployed, youth entrepreneurs should be equipped to start and run their enterprises. Some of the issues that the youth face more than other groups is a lack of knowledge about business in general and how to go about structuring a business plan. Enhancing the school curriculum would be a good start, but BDS providers should be encouraged to focus on youth outreach programs through basic business literacy programs. Mentorship programs, especially during the initial few years, would be welcome additions to the support for youth entrepreneurs.

4.6 De-risking SMMEs and Co-operatives finance

(a). Partial credit guarantee scheme

Partial credit guarantee schemes (CGS) are aimed at providing credit providers with some cover in the case of loan defaults for those transactions covered under such a scheme.

In South Africa the Khula Credit Guarantee (KCG) Scheme was established in 1987 to provide indemnity to enable SMMEs and Co-operatives to establish, expand or acquire new or existing businesses in circumstances where they would not, without the support of an indemnity cover, qualify for such financing in terms of the participating financial institution's SMME lending criteria. KCG assists SMMEs and Co-operatives to obtain financing from financial institutions namely commercial banks, non-bank financial institutions, corporates with Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) programmes and other lenders of incidental credit. KCG addresses the market failure emanating from lack of funding by commercial banks by providing commercial lenders a guarantee in the case of loan defaults for loans made to qualifying SMMEs in the process making lending to small businesses less risky for creditors. KCG increase access and provision of finance to SMMEs and Co-operatives which are perceived to be high risk and not ordinarily qualify for finance from commercial banks.

A diagnostic review of the scheme was conducted by the World Bank. To date, sefa and KCG management team have been working towards implementing some of the recommendations from the diagnostic to improve the operations of the scheme.

The DSBD will continue to support the implementation of the KCG diagnostic recommendations which include but not limited to stop loss mechanism, risk based pricing structure, clearly defined claim payout process, diversification of the product range and industries. Following the implementation of some of the recommendations of the diagnostic review, the KCG portfolio performance since inception in terms of taken ups has increased to R1.9 billion. It is recommended that these efforts continue and that consideration is given to the implementation of the remaining World Bank recommendations. The DSBD and sefa will continue to solicit funding to re-capitalise the scheme from both the national government as well as international DFI partners in order to ramp up utilisation of the KCG.

(b). Movable asset registry

As mentioned above, SMMEs often lack sufficient fixed assets to offer as collateral to lenders, but may well have movable assets that could be offered and that will increase SMMEs availability to access finance. Some developing countries have adopted such an arrangement and have achieved significant success, for example Ghana, Zambia, Malawi and Nigeria .

In 2015, the World Bank in an effort to assist the SA government in developing a credit infrastructure that supports SMMEs conducted a diagnostic study to analyse how the use of a modern centralised collateral registry would be effected in South Africa and what legal framework would be required should such a reform be introduced. The diagnostic found that there is merit for a secured transaction reform as this had a potential to increase funding to SMMEs.

It is recommended that this effort is prioritised and that DSBD will drive efforts towards establishing a movable asset collateral registry in South Africa. To push this agenda item forward, DSBD will hold extensive stakeholder consultation with all credit providers in order to establish alignment between industry and policy makers and identify an roadmap for the introduction of this mechanism. This will feed to the development of a law to support implementation of the movable asset registry as well as the establishment of the operational infrastructure for such a scheme.

4.7 Establishing a simplified business registration and legal processes for winding up SMMEs

As part of the natural life-cycle of business, some enterprises will be in a position where business processes have to be legally terminated. Legal processes for winding up businesses are quite costly, complex and can result in some SMMEs and their creditors being disadvantaged. It is therefore recommended that South Africa, as it is the case in some other jurisdictions, consider the establishment of a simplified and more affordable legal processes to deal with the winding up of SMME business operations. This will be to the benefit of both the business owners and creditors, as an expedited and less costly process will result in reduced resource wastage.

As part of this review, the readmission of owners (directors) of wound-up SMMEs should be considered as well. The nature of SMMEs is such that the incidence of business failure is higher than for corporates, so this factor should be taken into consideration so that genuine entrepreneurs are not unnecessarily excluded from pursuing business opportunities.

4.8 Credit Information systems for small businesses

There is a need for the development of dedicated SMMEs and Co-operatives credit information systems, models and risk assessment tools in order to make finance accessible to SMMEs and Co-operatives. Development Finance Institutions should align SMMEs and Co-operatives risk assessment and credit models with their developmental mandate.

The industry, through the business credit information project spearheaded by SACRRA have started an initiative aimed at collecting business data to bridge the gap which currently exists in the sector. This project though has not received much traction since its implementation due to lack of funding. The sector through closed loop initiatives has started to explore initiatives of sharing SMME data including alternative types of information for risk assessment purposes. This indicates a need from the credit providers to use other types of data particularly when assessing SMMEs. Initiatives in this regard will need to be synthesised and coordinated to ensure that one common solution with support from all stakeholders is adopted and implemented.

The National Credit Regulator (NCR), with the support of the World Bank, is implementing an alternative data project as it was done in Chile (Box 3), which explores ways in which alternative data can be used to advance lending to unbanked segments. This is a particularly important project for SMMEs, who as noted earlier in the document, predominately use personal accounts to lend for business purposes.

Box 3: Using Alternative Data for Credit Scoring (MSME scores in Chile)

Equifax Chile launched the Predictor Inclusion Score, a risk score derived from encrypted mobile usage data, in February 2017. When Equifax receives a credit inquiry from an unbanked person who may work for a microenterprise or small business, it checks its traditional credit database and if no record is found, it then (with consumer consent) queries the telecommunications database using the mobile number for matching. Equifax returns a score on exact cell phone number matches, calibrated to a credit score. The score allows retailers and financial institutions to evaluate financial services requests from microenterprise and small business owners, many of whom lack traditional credit and financial data.

In addition to telecommunications data, Equifax is developing analytical tools based on socio-economic relationships, retail and agricultural data to supplement traditional credit data, providing new insights on this segment that allow financial institutions to make differentiated credit offers to microenterprise and small business owners whom they were previously unable to evaluate for credit purposes.

DSBD will partner with and support SACRRA, NCR and other bodies exploring SMME credit reporting with a view to develop a well coordinated holistic solution, serving the whole industry and where adequate provision has been made for the inclusion of alternative data to inform credit decisions, e.g. digital payments data made and received by SMMEs.

BDS services should assist SMMEs to accurately record and use sufficient data on their business transactions to enable the enterprises to be accurately informed about their financial status. This in turn will assist credit providers to accurately assess the risk profiles of the enterprises.

4.9 Easing small businesses cash flow constraints through timely payments and invoice factoring

The late payments of invoices submitted by SMMEs to larger clients, be they government Departments or private sector, is a significant drag on the working capital of small businesses which may already be in precarious financial circumstances.

National Treasury has issued Treasury Regulation 8.2.3 which provides that "Unless determined otherwise in a contract or other agreement, all payments due to creditors must be settled within 30 days from receipt of an invoice or, in the case of civil claims, from the date of settlement or court judgement". However, this currently does not carry the force of law and it is an unfortunate reality that many government Departments routinely exceed the prescribed 30 day payment period. To encourage further compliance, National Treasury has issued Treasury Instruction Note Number 34 which requires all government Departments to submit exception reports detailing the number of invoices remaining unpaid after 30 days and the reasons thereof. Similarly, in the private sector large clients will often force smaller suppliers to discount their invoices in return for shorter payment terms. From a policy perspective, DSBD, should work towards codifying regulations aimed at ensuring timely payment of invoices to small businesses into law.

DSBD will seek to promote a liquid and transparent market for discounted invoices. South Africa currently has an active invoice factoring market serviced mostly by commercial banks and non-bank private lenders. This however remains out of reach for most SMMEs due to limitations on the type of invoices and invoiced businesses that are eligible for factoring. DSBD will work with the industry to enable widely-available invoice-backed liquidity to SMMEs at scale.

4.10 Affordable and appropriate insurance for SMMEs including Co-operatives

South African SMMEs have significant insurable risks that represent a preventable cause for the demise of many businesses. This is particularly true for agri-based SMMEs in light of climate change and its effect on weather patterns.

Entrepreneurs consistently cite high cost of premiums and lack of knowledge about risks and insurance products as reasons for low insurance penetration. It is thus clear that there is a misalignment between the demands of the SMME market and the products and services provided by the insurance industry. It is proposed that DSBD facilitate a comprehensive demand side study in order to inform both the insurance industry as well as policy makers with in-depth insights into the insurance needs of the SMME market. DSBD should then partner with ASISA, SAIA and SASRIA to assist the industry in developing SMME focused products, distribution channels and consumer education strategies.

4.11 Structure of the SMME Access to Finance Market

In conjunction with National Treasury and the financial regulators, DSBD should monitor the effectiveness of the financial service structures in addressing the SMME access to finance needs. In particular, the following will be investigated:

- Ensuring that the classes of access to finance credit providers are sufficient to cover the entire SMME sector. The factors that will be taken into account are the capital adequacy requirements of the Basel models and whether a new class of bank with limited functionality (and hence risk) with lower Basel compliance (eg Basel II) can assist in improving access to finance at reasonable cost without unnecessarily increasing systemic risk.
- Ensuring a full DFI for the SMME sector, ideally by repositioning sefa to play the role of market maker, infrastructure provider and specialist financial support functions more explicitly, thereby enabling other FSPs to deal directly with SMMEs in a more efficient and beneficial manner. This will include the management of the partial credit guarantee scheme, the management of the start-up SME Fund mentioned earlier, coordinating the enrichment of the SMME credit information systems, actively participating in the movable asset registry and providing funding in a coordinated and structured manner to FSPs in the SMME access to finance sector.
- Considering the incorporation of the Co-operative Banking Development Agency (CBDA) into sefa. If feasible, this could improve support for the development of Co-operative financial institutions, including the funding of such institutions.
- Sefa, seda and CBDA will enable support for financial intermediaries in the SMME access to finance space.

4.12 Informal SMMEs and Access to Finance

As mentioned, the majority of SMMEs in South Africa operate in the informal space. Such SMMEs are limited in terms of their ability to grow and contribute more meaningfully to GDP. It is also not realistic to expect all such SMMEs to move to full formality. Rather, a pathway to increased formality through financial and economic inclusion will be pursued. DSBD will play a key coordinating role in this, following the below mentioned broad policy interventions:

- Increase access to finance for informal businesses by working with National Treasury and the Financial Intelligence Centre to provide enabling guidelines to recognise informal SMMEs as enterprises in the financial system, without the burden of full formalisation. In effect, a tiered approach to recognising SMMEs will be pursued.
- Improve the ability to uniquely identify informal SMMEs on a voluntary basis, working with CIPC and other authorities to establish a simple yet verifiable identification system. Such a system could be a prerequisite for all governmental support but should not enable SARS to levy taxes simply because of a basic registration. This will improve access and also render government assistance more efficient.
- Include SMMEs run by identifiable migrants in this approach. In other words, if the business owner can be legally identified, such enterprise should be included in the efforts mentioned above.
- Include identifiable SMMEs in the alternative data system for credit assessment, specifically by including digital payments data from such enterprises.

4.13 Create accessible funding environment for targeted groups

Access to finance for targeted groups (Youth, Women, Persons with disabilities) is very low. The targeted groups should be provided with the necessary funding support to equip them to start and run businesses, this will assist the targeted groups to meaningfully participate in all economic activities, own productive assets and create opportunities for self employment and employment of others. The Department of Small Business Development has designed and implemented funding instruments for persons with disabilities and youth (Amavulandlela, Youth Challenge Fund). There is no dedicated funding instrument(s) for women owned small enterprises. It is proposed that a Women Enterprise Fund be established to cater for small enterprises owned by women.

The role players should ensure that there is a meaningful participation of enterprises owned by targeted groups (Youth, Women, Persons with disabilities) by constantly engaging with organisations representing them to ensure that there is alignment of demand and supply of support programmes.

4.14 Monitoring of the SMME Access to Finance Market

The MEL mechanisms for the program as a whole are described in section 5. A complementary function is to monitor the scope of service provisioning by all FSPs, including Fintechs. This will allow DSBD to assess what needs in the small business sector are not being met or are being met inadequately, enabling DSBD to inform small businesses as to what is available and can be used for what purpose. This monitoring will also enable DSBD to interact with policymakers and financial regulators to address issues of concern in the market. The use of a regularly conducted demand-side survey will be one of the tools for this monitoring function.

4.15 Incorporating Digital Financial Service Provisioning in SMME and Co-operative Access to Finance

Digital financial services (DFS) are playing an increasing role in financial service provisioning in South Africa, as it is elsewhere in the world. While such financial services, either in the form of Fintech services or digital services offered by established FSPs, can play a major role in increasing access to financial services including finance, there are also significant risks involved in DFS.

DSBD will play a key role in monitoring such services and ensure that the financial regulatory authorities are aware of the services, that adequate data is available to assess the market presence and penetration of the services and that any concerns regarding the market conduct of such providers are identified and referred to the FSCA. Where necessary, DSBD in conjunction with regulatory authorities, should initiate steps to ensure that DFS are provided in a fair and transparent manner and that such services meet identified needs in the SMME sector.

4.16 Improve Microfinance Institutions capacity to deliver sustainable financial solutions

The Microfinance Institutions are operating in a difficult environment that impact negatively on the institutions ability to provide viable financial services to their clients. The issues that are hampering the performance of the microfinance sector include but are not limited to a serious shortage of skilled individuals who are experienced in microenterprise lending methodologies and global best practices for the sector, lack of patient capital from donors or financiers causing sustainability issues, managerial and operational capacity issues of the DMFIs, high business discontinuance rate, limited reach and impact due to their small number (currently less than five: Small Enterprise Foundation, Phakamani Foundation, Siyakhula Microfinance Institutions, Get Ready Investment Holdings and Akanani Finance Company).

4.17 Implementation of a Movable Asset Collateral Registry

The immovable collateral required by various financiers is not aligned with the asset composition of small enterprises. To address this matter and unlock funding to the SMME sector, a movable asset collateral registry is required. DSBD should conduct comprehensive stakeholder engagement aimed at establishing alignment around the requirements for and implementation of a movable asset collateral registry.

5. POLICY TO IMPLEMENTATION

To realise the policy objectives, DSBD will collaborate with relevant sector role players across the private and public sectors to coordinate public and private sectors support with a view to gain consensus on key access to finance issues to be addressed. This coordination forum will take form through envisaged SMME working group which will be established through the National Treasury's Financial Inclusion Sub-Working Group and will at a minimum, comprise of SMMEs and co-operatives representatives, development finance institutions, academia, FSP representatives, industry bodies such as SABTIA, Business Chambers, BASA, DMA, MFSA and SAVCA as well as business accelerators, incubators and business development service providers. Chaired by the DSBD the Forum will oversee the implementation of the policy, use the M&L information to make adjustments to the program.

5.1 Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL)

Funding interventions should constantly be evaluated for their effectiveness with a view to scale up those programmes that are performing well and change/ terminate those that do not perform well. Currently, there is no uniform and consistent approach to Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning on funding support interventions to SMMEs and Co-operatives in the country. There should be clear set of uniform indicators or measures to assess the performance of the funding initiatives as well as their impact on SMMEs and Co-operatives.

DSBD should reduce the extent of data fragmentation by determining data needs, and then work with the regulatory authorities (SARB, FSCA and NCR) to ensure that such data points are collected and are available to DSBD. Developing a common reporting framework for adoption by both the private and public sector financiers to measure the supply of SMMEs and Co-operatives finance and to identify areas that require special attention and development.

A continuously monitoring and assessment mechanism of the funding programmes is needed in order to inform and strengthen programme design and delivery of funding support programmes. To effectively implement the Funding Policy, the Monitoring and Evaluation system as well as an implementation plan will be developed.

6. THE WAY FORWARD

This document is a revision of the first Draft SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy which was drafted by the DSBD in the 2021/22 financial year and released for public comments through a series of consultation sessions held in April 2022. The document incorporates comments from the consultation sessions, outlines governments objectives towards strengthening the provision of finance towards the SMME and Co-operative sector and proposes an approach to the implementation of the policy objectives.

The revised SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy will be presented to the the internal DSBD governance structures, Economic Sectors, Investment, Employment and Infrastructure Development (ESIED) Cluster and Cabinet for noting and approval and gazetted for public comments for a minimum duration of 30 days. It is envisioned that this process will be completed by 31 March 2022.

To effectively implement the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy, the proposals to be enclosed in the final Policy will be translated into an implementation plan which will outline the steps that need to be taken to achieve the Policy objectives and provide tools to track progress and measure the impact of the Policy. It is expected that all role players will come on board and actively participate in the process of setting high level outcomes, outputs and associated impact indicators to be used in tracking the implementation of the SMMEs and Co-operatives Funding Policy. DSBD will in collaboration with other government Departments, regulators and industry representative bodies establish the coordination forum in 2024, which will include

- A SMME Access to Finance Working Group;
- A Co-operatives Access to Finance Working Group.

A SMME and Co-operatives Access to Finance Monitoring and Evaluation framework will also be developed in 2024. The realisation of this policies objectives will also be supported by additional research papers that focus on the identified priority areas.

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE, INDUSTRY AND COMPETITION

NO. 3354

28 April 2023

NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*BRAVO GROUP MANUFACTURING PROPRIETARY LIMITED*AND*L&P SOUTH AFRICA PROPRIETARY LIMITED*CASE NUMBER: 2021NOV0019

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 08 November 2021, the Competition Commission (the "Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger wherein Bravo Group Manufacturing Proprietary Limited ("Bravo") intends to acquire the business conducted by L&P Springs South Africa Proprietary Limited ("L&P SA"), as a going concern. Post-implementation of the proposed transaction, Bravo will have direct control over the whole of the business of L&P SA, as contemplated in section 12(1)(a) of the Act.

Parties and their activities

2. The primary acquiring firm, Bravo is wholly owned by Bravo Brands Proprietary Limited, which is in turn wholly owned by Rockwood Fund I Partnership (an en commandite Partnership). Bravo controls numerous firms outside of South Africa. Within South Africa, Bravo does not control any firm.

3. The primary target firm, L&P SA is ultimately wholly owned by Leggett & Platt, Incorporated (“L&P USA”), a company registered in accordance with the laws of the Missouri. L&P SA does not control any firm.
  4. Bravo manufactures lounge furniture and sleep products through two separate divisions, namely its “Lounge Division” and its “Sleep Division”. The Lounge Division manufactures lounge suites and recliners, coffee tables and headboards under the brands La-Z-Boy, Grafton Everest, Alpine Lounge and Gommagomma. The Sleep Division manufactures mattresses and base sets under brands such as Sealy, Edblo, Slumberland and King Koil. The division also sources “Top-of-Bed” products locally and internationally for distribution to its customer base. Top-of-Bed products consist of mattress protectors, pillows, fitted sheets and pillow protectors. The Sleep Division also imports adjustable bases for distribution to its customer base. Relevant to the proposed transaction are Bravo’s activities relating to the manufacture of mattresses conducted through its Sleep Division.
  5. L&P SA manufactures and supplies a variety of open coil and fabric-encased mattress innersprings including Bonnell, VertiCoil, Offset, Pocket, Semi-Flex and Multi Decker versions. The various innersprings are used in the manufacture of mattresses by firms such as the Acquiring Firm.

Competition Assessment

6. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction does not result in a horizontal overlap. However, the proposed transaction presents a vertical overlap as L&P SA manufactures and supplies mattress innersprings to mattress manufacturers, such as Bravo.
  7. The primary target firm is involved in the manufacture and supply of various mattress innersprings which are used in the manufacture of mattresses. In particular, L&P SA manufactures and supplies a variety of open coil and fabric-encased mattress innersprings. The Commission set out to consider whether the two types of innersprings (open coil and fabric-encased) make up the same product market. Fabric-encased innersprings are also referred to as pocket springs.

8. Open coil mattresses have a network of uncovered coils, while pocket spring/fabric encased mattresses are made of individually wrapped springs. The Commission has found that the benefits of open coil mattresses are that they are usually very affordable, promote airflow which helps you sleep cooler, the mattresses are lighter and easier to move, and they support the sleeper's body weight very well. The downside of open coil mattresses is that they tend to dip in the middle. Because the coils are all connected it has a high level of motion transfer making the mattresses less durable and meaning that they wear out quickly.
9. Fabric-encased springs on the other hand are durable and usually last 8-10 years, depending on the quality of the mattress. They distribute weight evenly, relieving pressure points. Because the springs are not all connected (unlike open coil) this allows one person to move during the night without the other person noticing the shift. The disadvantage of fabric-encased springs is that because of all the material around each coil, this mattress doesn't have very good airflow, the beds are heavy and hard to move, and the mattresses tend to be expensive.
10. According to the merging parties, open coil and fabric-encased mattress innersprings are substitutable as they perform the same application which is to offer comfort and support to the user of the mattress. This was supported by third parties contacted by the Commission.
11. Regarding geographic market, the Commission considered a national market which is consistent with the geographic market proposed by the merging parties. The Commission therefore considered the impact of the merger in the following relevant markets:
  - 11.1. The national upstream market for the manufacture and supply of innersprings; and
  - 11.2. The national downstream market for the manufacture of mattresses.

Vertical assessment

12. L&P SA (the Target Firm) manufactures mattress innersprings which it supplies to mattress manufacturers, such as Bravo (The Acquiring Firm). The merging parties have confirmed that there is an existing relationship between L&P SA and Bravo. The Commission has considered whether the merger will result in input and/or customer foreclosure.

Input foreclosure

13. The Commission considered whether the merged entity would have the ability and incentive to foreclose customers of L&P SA from receiving supplies of mattress innersprings from the merged entity post-merger. The Commission also received concerns from customers to this effect. The merging parties submitted that it is their intention to continue to supply innersprings to the current customers of L&P SA on a non-discriminatory basis.
  14. Regarding the ability to foreclose, the Commission considered the extent to which L&P SA has market power upstream. The Commission was not able to collect complete market share data, however based on the limited data collected by the merging parties, the Commission was able to deduce that L&P SA and Option Springs are of a similar market size representing two of the largest innerspring manufacturers in South Africa.
  15. The Commission however found that the merged entity is not likely to have the ability to foreclose downstream customers of L&P SA as there are alternative suppliers with excess capacity. In the event that the merged entity takes the decision to no longer supply 3rd party customers of L&P SA post-merger, the customers would have access to other suppliers such as Option Springs.
  16. The Commission also noted that certain customers have submitted that Option Springs offers an inferior alternative due to having relatively poorer quality springs. The Commission however noted evidence from a customer that innersprings are generally made according to the customer's specifications. This means spring manufacturers are able to manufacture various designs to order. Further, the Commission noted that Bravo and other major mattress manufacturers purchase a significant proportion of their innerspring requirements from this competitor of L&P SA and accordingly, the Commission accepted this as a signal that this competitor produces innersprings of an acceptable quality.
  17. For these reasons, the Commission found that the merged entity is not likely to have the ability to engage in anticompetitive input foreclosure.

Customer foreclosure

18. The Commission considered whether the proposed transaction would result in customer foreclosure. Customer foreclosure is likely to take place if Bravo is an important customer to competitors of L&P SA in the demand for mattress innersprings and if post-merger, Bravo stops procuring the relevant products from those competitors. In considering this, the Commission noted that Bravo only procures mattress innersprings from two firms, L&P SA and L&P SA's competitor. This means, in essence, the assessment considered whether the foreclosure of this competitor would be harmful to competition.

19. In assessing whether the merged entity would successfully engage in a foreclosure strategy, the Commission considered whether there were alternative customers to whom this competitor could sell. The Commission encountered challenges in calculating market shares for the downstream market. Although there are numerous players active in the downstream level of the market, the submissions received by the Commission suggest that Bravo and another firm in the market are the largest players in the downstream market. This firm is however vertically integrated and does not purchase innersprings from 3rd party suppliers.
  20. Market participants consider Bravo to be the largest manufacturer of mattresses in South Africa. This is because it has a number of well-known and leading brands with broad product ranges within each and it is extensively supported by strong marketing and large chain resellers. Bravo manufactures mattresses and base sets under brands such as Sealy, Edblo, Slumberland and King Koil. Competitors of Bravo estimated that it has a market share between 30% and 50% in the manufacturing and supply of mattresses in South Africa.
  21. A competitor of L&P SA which is the only other supplier of mattress innersprings to Bravo stressed that losing Bravo as a customer would result in it having to downscale its business significantly. This competitor submitted data showing that Bravo is its largest customer and that its business would be negatively affected if it loses Bravo as a customer. The Commission confirmed that there are no other customers of the size of Bravo which could replace Bravo's business for this competitor.
  22. The Commission further found that the merged entity will have the incentive to foreclose this competitor. The merging parties submitted that Bravo intends to substitute its purchases from L&P SA's competitor with its own production post-merger so as to become 100% self-sufficient. This at face value indicates that the merging parties would have an incentive to foreclose this competitor post-merger.

23. The Commission's analysis also revealed that L&P SA has been operating below capacity over the past five years. In addition, the Commission's failing firm analysis below confirmed that L&P SA has been loss-making for the past five financial years. It seems likely that Bravo will seek to increase L&P SA's capacity utilisation and improve its financial performance through increased insourcing. The Commission therefore found that the merged entity will have an incentive to foreclose L&P SA's competitor.
  24. The Commission however noted that this competitor is only partially reliant on Bravo's purchases. In the event that Bravo stops purchasing from this competitor, this competitor would still have access to its other customers. It was not obvious that losing Bravo as a customer would result in a substantial lessening of competition as this competitor would continue to operate and impose a competitive constraint on the merged entity.
  25. Further, as discussed in the failing firm section below, it may be necessary for Bravo to insource its requirements of innersprings in order to improve L&P SA's poor financial performance.

Failing Firm

26. The merging parties had initially not relied on the failing firm defence. Following the Commission's communication that the proposed merger may raise competition concerns, the merging parties submitted several reasons why the proposed merger should be allowed to proceed, one of the reasons submitted was the fact that the target firm is loss making. Despite various management changes and cost cutting initiatives, attempts to turn the business around had unfortunately not been successful.
  27. The Commission's analysis confirmed that L&P SA has been loss-making in the last few years preceding the merger filing. Notwithstanding its poor financial performance, the company appeared to have a healthy balance sheet.
  28. The analysis suggested that L&P SA may be performing poorly but it is not necessarily under immediate financial danger given the relative strength of its balance sheet. However, given its sustained poor financial performance over the five years preceding the merger filing, it can be concluded that L&P SA is in an unsustainable financial position. Without support from its parent company, unless its performance improves, it is likely that L&P SA would eventually be liquidated in the medium to long-term.

29. L&P SA's parent company had been unequivocal in that it would not continue to support L&P SA financially going forward. This means that L&P SA will eventually become uncompetitive as its financial position deteriorates further. L&P SA may not be in a financially critical position currently, but its financial position will likely worsen over time which will hamper its ability to compete over time. Although L&P SA is not a failing firm, the Commission notes that its financial performance will likely negatively affect its ability to remain competitive over time.

Remedies

30. Given the concerns received from customers and competitors, the Commission requested that the merging parties consider remedies which would address the concerns raised by some of L&P SA's customers. Although the merging parties did not agree with the Commission's findings that the merger raises foreclosure concerns, the merging parties offered a supply condition to address the input foreclosure concerns. According to the condition provided by the merging parties, the merging parties commit to continue to supply L&P SA's other customers on a non-discriminatory basis and on terms which are economically feasible for a period of 2 years post-merger.
31. Regarding the concern raised by L&P SA's competitor, the merging parties disagreed with the submission made by this competitor and noted that the merger does not raise the risk of customer foreclosure as this competitor has access to other customers. Notwithstanding the merging parties' disagreement with this competitor that it would be foreclosed, the merging parties offered a supply condition according to which Bravo would continue to purchase innersprings from this competitor for two years following the implementation of the merger. This offer fell short of Bravo's current purchases of innersprings from this competitor.
32. The Commission however imposed an amended version of the merging parties' proposal which will require Bravo to purchase a higher minimum percentage of its innersprings requirements from this competitor of L&P SA for two years following the implementation of the merger. Although this falls short of Bravo's current purchases from this competitor, the Commission accepted this for the following reasons:

- 32.1. The Commission has found that the merged entity does not have the ability to foreclose L&P SA's competitor and that any customer foreclosure would only be partial and would not result in this competitor exiting the market. This competitor will continue to compete even after it loses the business of Bravo; and
- 32.2. The Commission has found that the target firm has been struggling financially and it is therefore important for the target firm's financial sustainability that it increase its sales volumes. Bravo's purchase of the struggling business of L&P SA, effectively saves L&P SA from future liquidation therefore expecting Bravo to continue purchasing innersprings from L&P SA 's competitor, while its own upstream arm is loss-making and operating well below capacity may undermine the rationale for the merger.

Public Interest

33. The proposed merger does not raise public interest concerns.

Conclusion

34. For the above reasons, the Commission approved the proposed transaction subject to the conditions attached as Annexure A.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:
ACINO PHARMA AG*AND*ASPEN PHARMACARE HOLDINGS LIMITED IN RESPECT OF CERTAIN PHARMACEUTICAL PRODUCT LINES (“TARGET ASSETS”)*CASE NUMBER: 2021NOV0027

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the ‘Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission’, that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 11 December 2021, the Competition Commission received notice of an intermediate merger whereby Acino Pharma AG (“Acino AG”) intends to acquire certain pharmaceutical product lines (“Target Assets”) from Aspen Pharmacare Holdings Limited (“Aspen”). Post-merger, Acino AG will exercise sole control over the Target Assets.

Parties

2. The primary acquiring firm is Acino AG, a company incorporated in accordance with the laws of Switzerland. Acino AG is directly controlled by Acino International AG which is in turn controlled by Pharma Strategy Partners GmbH (“Pharma Strategy”). Pharma Strategy is jointly controlled by Nordiac Capital CV1 Limited (“Nordic Capital”) and Avista Capital Holdings LP (“Avista Capital”). Nordic Capital and Avista Capital are listed entities whose shares are widely held and are not controlled by any firms. In South Africa, the Acquiring Group controls several firms.

3. All firms directly and indirectly controlled by Nordic Capital and Avista Capital are hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Acquiring Group”.
  4. The Acquiring Group has [CONFIDENTIAL]% shareholding by historically disadvantaged person/s (“HDPs”), as defined in section 3(2) of the Competition Act, 89 of 1998 (as amended) (the “Act”).
  5. The primary target firm is Aspen in respect of the Target Assets. The Target Assets are wholly owned by Aspen pre-merger. Aspen is a public company that is not controlled by any shareholder/s.
  6. Aspen’s shareholding is held as to [CONFIDENTIAL]% by HDPs and therefore, the Target Assets are indirectly held by HDP shareholders as to [CONFIDENTIAL]%.

Activities

7. The Acquiring Group is involved in the marketing, sale, promotion and distribution of pharmaceutical products globally. In South Africa, the Acquiring Group offers inter alia, over-the-counter and prescription medicines for the following therapeutic areas: cardiology and metabolism, central nervous system, gastroenterology, infectiology, oncology, pain and rheumatology, respiratory, urology and women’s health.
8. The Target Assets comprise of certain generic prescription pharmaceutical products under the brands Altosec, Aspen Graniseton, Ciavor, Grantryl, Trustan and Zuvamor, and related contracts, marketing authorisations, rights, intellectual property, inventory, records and information pertaining to these products. The Target Assets are used for the following therapeutic areas: gastroenterology, erectile dysfunction and cardiovascular diseases. The Target Assets are distributed exclusively [CONFIDENTIAL].

Overlap and competition assessment

9. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction does not raise any overlaps.

10. Considering the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any relevant market.

Public interest

Employment

11. The merging parties submitted an unequivocal statement that the proposed transaction will not have a negative effect on employment.
12. The Commission's investigation found that the merger will not result in any duplications. Furthermore, no employment concerns were raised. Accordingly, the Commission concluded that the merger is unlikely to raise any concerns as regards this public interest.

The promotion of a greater spread of ownership by historically disadvantaged persons and workers section 12(3)(e)

13. As indicated above, the Commission found that the Acquiring Group and the Target Assets have [CONFIDENTIAL]% and [CONFIDENTIAL]% HDP ownership respectively. The Commission concluded that because of the merger, the level of HDP ownership over the Target Assets will reduce by approximately 3.27 percentage points.
14. The merging parties submit that the merger does not result in any dilution of ownership by HDPs as the Target Assets do not have any HDP ownership attributable to them pre-merger. It is further contended that HDP ownership levels (i.e., BBBEE certification) are not strictly attributable to assets such as the Target Assets but to incorporated entities such as Aspen. Consequently, the merger will benefit the Acquiring Group's HDP shareholders and thus enhances the public interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and to address the concerns arising from section 12A(3)(e) of the Act, the merging parties have committed to creating at least [CONFIDENTIAL] new full-time employment positions post-merger. Moreover, the merging parties made local manufacturing commitments.
15. The Commission is of the view that the commitments tendered by the merging parties address the public interest concerns arising from this merger. Therefore, the Commission approves the merger subject to the conditions contained in Annexure A hereto.

16. The Commission found that the merger does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

17. The Commission approves the proposed transaction subject to the conditions contained in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*WISIUM SA PROPRIETARY LIMITED*AND*COMHAN PRODUCTS PROPRIETARY LIMITED*CASE NUMBER: 2021NOV0029

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 12 November 2021, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger wherein Wisium SA Proprietary Limited ("Wisium") intends to acquire 100% of the issued share capital of Comhan Products Proprietary Limited ("Comhan"). On completion of the transaction, Wisium will have sole control over Comhan.

Merging parties and their activities

2. The primary acquiring firm is Wisium SA Proprietary Limited ("Wisium"), a private company incorporated in South Africa. Wisium is controlled by Archer-Daniels-Midland Company ("ADM"). ADM is a firm incorporated in accordance with the laws of Delaware, United States of America. ADM, through its affiliates and subsidiaries, is a global producer of food and beverage ingredients as well as other products made from oilseeds, corn, wheat, and other agricultural commodities. ADM's products include natural flavours and colours, health and nutritional products, vegetable oil, corn sweeteners, flour, animal feed and biofuels.

3. The Target Firm, Comhan, is active in the field of human nutrition. In particular, the company specialises in the importation and distribution of food ingredients including flavourings, emulsifiers, stabilisers, sweetening blends, energy blends, compounds, and gum acacia. The target firm is a distributor for ADM's food additive products in South Africa and other countries in Sub-Saharan Africa. A majority of the products distributed by the Target Firm comprise products supplied by ADM.

Competition assessment

4. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that there is no horizontal overlap in the activities of the merging parties as they do not offer products or services that can be considered interchangeable by customers or consumers.
5. The Commission found that there is a vertical relationship in the activities of the merging parties as Comhan imports and distributes products supplied to it by ADM in South Africa. At the upstream level, ADM is the manufacturer of food and beverage ingredients as well as other products made from oilseeds, corn, wheat, and other agricultural commodities which Comhan distributes at the downstream level. Comhan therefore acts as a distributor of ADM/Wisium's products in South Africa.
6. The Commission considered whether the proposed merger would result in foreclosure concerns.

Input foreclosure: supply of food and beverage additives

7. For input foreclosure, the Commission assessed whether the ADM would have the ability and incentive to foreclose Comhan's competitors downstream and whether this foreclosure strategy would be harmful to competition. The Commission found that proposed transaction is not likely to result in input foreclosure as ADM does not use any other distributors in South Africa pre-merger. The Acquiring Firm therefore does not have the ability to foreclose competitors of the target firm from accessing important inputs.

Customer foreclosure: importation and distribution of food additives

8. For customer foreclosure the Commission assessed whether Comhan would have the ability and incentive to cease or reduce its importation and distribution of food additives from ADM's competitors upstream and whether the customer foreclosure strategy would be harmful to upstream rivals. Within the market for food and beverage additives, Comhan has an estimated market share of less than 10% - this suggests that Comhan is not likely to be a significant customer to competitors of the acquiring firm. Further, as noted above, a majority of the products distributed by Comhan prior to the merger comprise ADM products. Less than 5% of the products come from a foreign company based in France. Furthermore, the foreign company submitted that they do not have any concern regarding the proposed transaction. This shows that Comhan is not an important customer to competitors of ADM and no supplier is likely to be foreclosed post-merger.

Employment

9. Regarding employment, the merging parties submitted that The Proposed Transaction would have no merger-specific adverse effect on employment in South Africa. Specifically, the Proposed Transaction will not result in retrenchments or job losses.
  10. The Commission also considered the effect of the proposed merger on the promotion of a greater spread of ownership, in particular to increase the levels of ownership by historically disadvantaged persons and workers in firms in the market. The Commission notes that both the Acquiring and Target Firm are not controlled by shareholders who are historically disadvantaged persons. The Commission however engaged the merging parties regarding the impact of the proposed merger on the public interest clauses in section 12A(3) of the Competition Act.
  11. The Commission has requested that the merging parties commit to conditions according to which the merged entity will introduce certain shareholding in the merged entity which will be held by Historically Disadvantaged Person/s and/ or employees of the merged entity. The merging parties submitted that they could not commit the required shareholding as it is not commercially feasible. However, the merging parties proposed a suite of commitments intended to (i) promote participation by small and black-owned firms in the market and (ii) support workers and students who are also HDPs. Given the circumstances of this case, the Commission and the merged entity agreed to the conditions attached as Annexure A.
  12. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction subject to conditions.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*BAKERS TRANSPORT (PTY) LTD
AND
BARLOWORLD SPECIALISED TRANSPORT (PTY) LTD*CASE NUMBER: 2021NOV0053

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 26 November 2021, the Competition Commission (Commission) was notified of the intermediate merger whereby Bakers Transport (Pty) Ltd (Bakers) intends to acquire sole control over Barloworld Specialised Transport (Pty) Ltd, together with its subsidiaries, Manline Freight (Pty) Ltd and Manline Energy (Pty) Ltd (collectively, the Target Firms). Pursuant to the proposed transaction, Bakers will solely control the Target Firms.

Parties and their activities

2. Bakers is active in the road transport and logistics market in South Africa and neighbouring countries. Bakers' logistics services are mostly geared towards Fast Moving Consumer Goods and the packaging industry. In addition, Bakers operates its own Mercedes Benz accredited vehicle repair and servicing centre for its own transport operations (fleet management service). Bakers is wholly owned and controlled by historically disadvantaged persons as defined in section 3(2) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998 (as amended) (the "Act").

3. The Target Firms are owned by Barloworld Limited (Barloworld), a company listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE). The Target Firms are active in the broad logistics market, specifically transportation and warehousing of inter alia, fast-moving consumer goods, mining and agricultural commodities and hazardous cargo (e.g., fuel, chemicals and gas). The Target Firms also provide limited fleet management services to Bakers and Orange River Tankers (Pty) Ltd (Orange River Transport).

Competition analysis

4. The Commission found that the merging parties' conduct overlaps horizontally as regards road transportation and warehousing of consumer goods (contract logistics) and fleet management services. The Commission found that the merger is unlikely to raise any competition concerns.
5. The Commission also found that the merger does not raise any foreclosure concerns regarding fleet management services. The Commission found that foreclosure concerns are unlikely given that the merging parties provide such services internally and contracts with third parties have been terminated.
6. Considering the above, the Commission concluded that the merger is unlikely to result in a substantial prevention or lessening of competition in any relevant market.

Public interest analysis

Employment

7. The merging parties submitted an unequivocal statement that there will be no job losses because of the proposed merger. The merging parties further disclosed that the Target Firms retrenched 69 employees in April 2021 (the Retrenched Employees) due to financial distress (the Retrenchments).
  8. The Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (DTIC) participated in the merger on 08 December 2021 requesting the Target Firms to consider offering re-employment opportunities to the Retrenched Employees, as and when vacancies arise.

9. The Commission found that the Retrenchments may be merger specific. However, the Commission and the parties have agreed to conditions requiring that the merging parties endeavour to re-employ the Retrenched Employees should vacancies arise for 2 years post-merger. Barloworld has also agreed to establish a fund to afford each Retrenched Employee R25 000 to reskill or start a commercial enterprise. These conditions are included as Annexure A hereto.
10. The merger does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

11. The Commission therefore approves the proposed merger subject to the conditions in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*NOVUS PRINT (PTY) LTD*AND*PEARSON SA (PTY) LTD*CASE NUMBER: 2022AUG0049

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the abovementioned firms subject to conditions set out below:

1. On 26 August 2022, the Competition Commission received notice of an intermediate merger wherein Novus Print (Pty) Ltd ("Novus Print") intends to acquire 75% of the issued share capital in Pearson South Africa (Pty) Ltd ("Pearson SA"). Upon implementation, Novus Print will exercise control of Pearson SA.
2. The primary acquiring firm is Novus Print, a private company incorporated in South Africa. Novus Print is controlled by Paarl Media Holdings (Pty) Ltd ("Paarl Media Holdings"). In turn, Paarl Media Holdings is controlled by Novus Holdings Limited ("Novus Holdings"). Novus Holdings is controlled by A2 Investment Partners Proprietary Limited ("A2").
3. For the purposes of this transaction, all firms directly and indirectly controlled by Novus Print, Paarl Media, Novus Holdings and A2 are referred to as the "Acquiring Group".
4. The primary target firm is Pearson SA, a private company incorporated in South Africa. Pearson SA is controlled by Pearson Holdings Southern Africa (Pty) Ltd (75%). The remaining shareholding in Pearson SA is held by Black Economic Empowerment entities Sphere RB Investment (Pty) Ltd (22.5%); and Pearson Marang Education Trust (2.5%). The B-BBEE shareholders will remain invested in Pearson SA post-merger.

Activities

Acquiring Group

5. The Acquiring Group comprises of a commercial printing, manufacturing and packaging business with four specialised printing plants, two packaging manufacturing plants and a tissue plant in South Africa.
6. Novus Print's publishing activities primarily involve magazine publication in the commercial and consumer space. Its products include in-flight magazines, community magazines, digital magazines, internal publications and trade publications. The Novus Group also prints educational material, but does not engage in the conceptualisation, development and publishing of educational courseware in South Africa or elsewhere.

Target Firm

7. The Pearson SA business involves the publishing and sale of educational materials, teacher training and other educational solutions (print and digital) for kindergarten to grade 12 ("K-12"), and higher education. The key brands within the Pearson SA business include Pearson (which focuses on higher education) as well as Heinemann and Maskew Miller Longman which both focus on the K-12 segment.

Overlaps

Horizontal relationship

8. The Commission considered the publishing activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction does not result in a horizontal overlap. This is because Novus Print is active in commercial publishing while Pearson SA is active in publishing courseware in the education sector in South Africa. The Commission's market investigation and case precedent confirm that courseware and commercial publishing are separate markets. For this reason, the proposed transaction is unlikely to give rise to unilateral anticompetitive effects.

Vertical relationship

9. The Commission found that the proposed transaction raises a vertical overlap as the Acquiring Group provides printing services to publishing service providers that compete with the target firm downstream.

Input foreclosure: access to printing services by Pearson's competitors

10. In respect of input foreclosure, the Commission assessed whether Novus could refuse to provide printing services to Pearson SA's competitors and whether this would leave Pearson's competitors without suitable alternatives. Having considered, amongst others, the fact that Pearson SA's current printing procurement accounts for about [Confidential] of Novus's overall revenue for book printing (which includes fiction, non-fiction and educational books), the Commission is of the view that it is unlikely that the transaction will result in anticompetitive input foreclosure.
11. The Commission received a concern that since the merged entity will be vertically integrated, Pearson SA will receive upstream print prices that are so low that their books can be priced significantly lower than that of any downstream competitor, making it impossible to compete with Pearson SA. Though Novus submits that it would not be rational to price significantly lower to Pearson SA and recover only 75% of the downstream profit, they nonetheless offered a pricing remedy to the effect that Novus Print will not supply printing services to competitors of Pearson SA at prices less favourable than the prices paid by Pearson SA to Novus Print for services of like grade and quality in equivalent transactions for a period of 5 (five) years.

Customer foreclosure: Loss of Pearson as significant customer

12. In respect of customer foreclosure, the Commission found that the Pearson SA business has an estimated market share of more than 30% in the downstream market for publishing of courseware. Market participants confirm that Pearson SA is the largest courseware publisher.
  13. The Commission is concerned that the proposed transaction may result in customer foreclosure of other printing service providers, who are either small and medium enterprises and/or owned by HDPs. To resolve the concern, the Commission imposed a procurement condition which is discussed below under the public interest considerations.

Employment

14. The merging parties provided an unequivocal undertaking that the proposed transaction will not give rise to a negative effect on employment. In particular, no merger specific retrenchments will arise as a result of the proposed transaction.
15. The Commission received an employment concern from the Chemical Energy Paper Prints Wood and Allied Workers Union ("CEPPWAWU") relating to restructuring at Novus Print. They submit that a 10 (ten) year moratorium should be imposed if the proposed transaction is approved.
16. Considering the employment concerns, the merging parties agreed to the imposition of a 5-year moratorium on merger specific retrenchments post-merger.

Effect on the ability of small and medium businesses, or firms controlled or owned by historically disadvantaged persons to effectively enter into, participate in or expand within the market

17. As mentioned above, the Commission found that Pearson SA currently procures printing services from SMEs and firms owned or controlled by HDPs. The merging parties submit that it is the intention of Novus Print that Pearson SA will continue to procure printing services from Pearson SA's SME and HDP printing suppliers on similar terms and conditions as those that applied prior to the merger.

18. However, the Commission received significant concerns from SMEs and HDP printing suppliers about foreclosure effects considering that Novus Print is a significant printing service provider.
19. The Commission notes that Pearson SA's procurement of printing services from HDPs and SMEs account for a significant part of its printing costs. The Commission is concerned that the proposed transaction might lead to a reduction in the procurement of printing services from the current SME and HDP firms. As such, any post-merger reduction of printing orders from SME and HDP-owned printers may likely impact on the ability of these firms to effectively participate or expand in the market. Accordingly, the Commission imposed a post-merger procurement condition to alleviate any concerns that may arise post-merger.
20. In terms of the condition, the merging parties will continue to procure printing services from the Pearson SA's SME and HDP printing service providers on similar terms and conditions as applied prior to the merger, for a period of 5 (five) years from the implementation date. The merging parties agreed to the imposition of this remedy.

Other public interest considerations

21. There are no other public interest issues arising from the proposed transaction.

Conclusion

22. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction with conditions as set out in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*DEN BRAVEN SA (PTY) LTD*AND*PERMOSEAL (PTY) LTD*CASE NUMBER: 2022JAN0016

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)© of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 10 January 2022, the Competition Commission (Commission) received a notification of an intermediate merger wherein Den Braven SA (Pty) Ltd (DBSA) intends acquiring control of Permoseal (Pty) Ltd (Permoseal). Post-merger, DBSA will control Permoseal.

2. DBSA is a wholly owned subsidiary of Arkema Afrique, a company incorporated in France. Arkema Afrique is in turn a wholly owned subsidiary of Arkema France S.A. (Arkema), a company also incorporated in France. Arkema is a public entity listed on the Euronext Paris Stock Exchange, its shares are widely held, and it is not controlled by any single shareholder.
  3. Arkema controls several subsidiaries globally, however of relevance to this proposed transaction is its wholly-owned subsidiary Bostik Limited (Bostik). Bostik does not control any firms in South Africa. DBSA does not control any firms. DBSA and Arkema, and all the firms directly and indirectly controlled by them are collectively referred to as the Acquiring Group. DBSA does not have shareholding by any historically disadvantaged persons (HDPs).

4. The primary target firm is Permoseal. Permoseal is not directly or indirectly controlled by any single shareholder. Permoseal does not directly or indirectly control any firms. Permoseal does not have any shareholding by HDPs.

Competition assessment

5. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that there are horizontal overlaps between their activities as both parties are active in the supply of sealants and adhesive products in South Africa. The Commission also found a vertical relationship between the merging parties. Pre-merger, the target firm (Permoseal) has manufacturing and distribution agreements with Arkema (Acquiring Group) in relation to the Bostik brand.
6. The Commission has therefore, for purposes of assessing this transaction, considered sealants and adhesives as forming one product market. The Commission segmented the markets for sealants and adhesives by the type of customer groups that are supplied. This is because the distribution channels, packaging size, price and in some instances the products themselves, differ between DIY customers, construction customers and industrial customers. DBSA does not provide any products to industrial customers.
7. The merging parties' products are sold to customers located throughout South Africa. For DIY customers, the merging parties distribute their products through retail outlets, such as Built It, Builders, Cashbuild, and BuCo, that are located throughout South Africa. The Commission learned that competitors of the merging parties also generally supply their products throughout South Africa.
8. The Commission assessed the following markets: the national market for the supply of sealants and adhesives for DIY customers; the national market for the supply of sealants and adhesives for construction customers; and the national market for the supply of sealants and adhesives for industrial customers.
9. In the broad market for the supply of sealants and adhesives supplied to all customer groups, the Commission found that the merged entity will have a post-merger market share not exceeding 20%. In the market for sealants and adhesives for DIY customers, the Commission found that the merged entity will have a post-merger market share not exceeding 30%. The Commission found that the alternative suppliers of sealants and adhesives to the DIY customers include Henkel, Glue Devil, Qualichem, Pratley, Siltech, Soudal, Sika and A.B.E. All the customers contacted, indicate there are alternative suppliers available. These customers, except for one customer, submit that they can successfully negotiate prices and other terms of supply. This customer submits that because of the merged entity's post-merger dominant position. It will not be able to negotiate on price post-merger. However, as noted above, the Commission did not find the merged entity to be dominant.

10. In the market for the supply of sealants and adhesives for the construction customers, the Commission found that the merged entity will have a post-merger market share of less than 20%. The Commission found that the alternative suppliers in this market include A.B.E , Sika, Roya Adhesives . Soudal, and Siltec.
11. In the market for the supply of sealants and adhesives for industrial customers, the Commission found that the parties' activities do not overlap as DBSA is not active in this market. However, because Permoseal supplies some industrial adhesives under the Bostik brand, which is owned by the Acquiring Group, the market shares of that product may be attributed to the Acquiring Group. The Commission found a post-merger market share of less than 30%. From market share estimates submitted to the Commission by a competitor, DBSA is not considered active in this market. The alternative suppliers in the market for supplying sealants and adhesives for industrial customers are Henkel, Qualichem, Pekay, Adtech, Melton, and Unikem to mention a few. The Commission found that the proposed transaction is unlikely to lead to a substantial lessening or prevention of competition in the supply for sealants and adhesives for industrial customers.
12. With respect to the vertical effects the Commission found no evidence to suggest that foreclosure concerns will arise as a result of the proposed transaction. This is because Permoseal is the only firm that manufactures and distributes Bostik products, and this proposed merger does not change this.

13. The Commission engaged the employee representatives and trade unions representing employees of the merging parties to determine whether the proposed transaction would have a negative effect on employment. The employee representative of DBSA submitted that no employee has raised any concerns arising from this merger.
14. The trade union Chemical, Energy, Paper Printing, Wood and Allied Workers Union ("CEPPWAWU") representing the employees of Permoseal submitted that employees have raised concerns about their conditions of employment and their job security. CEPPWAWU stated that they held a meeting with the merging parties and the parties assured CEPPWAWU that the working conditions will not change and reiterated that the proposed merger will not result in any retrenchments and job losses. CEPPWAWU submits that it also had additional concern about the jobs of some DBSA employees and the merging parties stated that those employees will not be affected as they will be incorporated into Permoseal. Furthermore, CEPPWAWU submitted that its general concern is that in most cases after a merger or immediately after the expiry date of conditions, if any, most merged parties engage into the so-called "non-merger specific retrenchments". CEPPWAWU submitted that if the merger is approved, it should have conditions to guard against such.
15. To address these employment concerns, the merging parties offered to not retrench any employees as a result of the merger, for a period of 3 (three) years. In addition to the proposed remedy, the Commission considers it necessary to impose additional conditions aimed at ensuring that the merged entity maintains its pre-merger headcount by at least a period of 1 (one) year. Furthermore, that the merged entity informs the Commission of its intention to embark on retrenchments, including those retrenchments that the merging parties may deem operationally related, for a period of 3 (three) years post-merger.

Effect on the promotion of a greater spread of ownership

16. The Commission considered whether the proposed merger promotes ownership by historically disadvantaged persons ("HDPs"). The Commission found that DBSA has no shareholding by HDPs, and similarly the target firm Permoseal does not have any shareholding by HDPs. The Commission requested the merging parties to provide submissions on the effect of the merger on the promotion of a greater spread of ownership by HDPs and workers.

17. The merging parties have ultimately offered that at least by 2023, subject to the final approval of Arkema's shareholders, Board of Directors, and the French securities regulator (Autorité des Marchés Financiers) Arkema will establish an ESOP in terms of which it will offer each of the employees in South Africa 3 (three) shares at no cost to the employees. The value of the 3 (three) shares allocated to each employee would be EUR 320 with a cumulative value of EUR 119,680 (approximately ZAR 2 million). Should Arkema be unable to secure the necessary approvals for the implementation of ESOP before the end of 2023, it will inform the Commission and propose, for the Commission's approval, an alternative solution for the benefit of Employees in South Africa.
18. The merging parties have also tendered additional remedies in terms of which they would increase their current spend on enterprise development and training & development by 15%, respectively.
19. Considering the above tendered remedies relating to the ESOP and the increase in the merging parties' current spend of enterprise development and training and development initiatives, the Commission is of the view that its concerns relating to the promotion on greater spread of ownership by employees and HDPs will likely be addressed.

Conclusion

20. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction subject to the conditions in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*VANTAGE MEZZANINEFUND II
AND
CEDAR PARK PROPERTIES (PTY) LTD*CASE NUMBER: 2022JAN0031

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 22 December 2021 and 12 January 2022 respectively, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received separate merger notices in respect of an intermediate merger whereby Vantage Mezzanine Fund II Partnership ("VMF II Partnership") intends to acquire 100% of the issued shares in Cedar Park Properties (Pty) Ltd ("Cedar Park Properties"). Post-merger, VMF II Partnership will have sole control over Cedar Park Properties.
2. The proposed transaction arises out of an unmet debt obligation by Cedar Park Properties to VMF II Partnership. VMF II Partnership is realising its loan security by effecting a 100% of the shares in Cedar Park Properties.
3. As background to the proposed transaction, the Commission notes that in 2013, VMF II Partnership extended mezzanine funding / a loan facility to Cedar Park Properties for development of a mixed-use property adjacent to and above the Sandton Gautrain property known as "Kgoro Central". As a condition for this loan, Kgoro Consortium (Pty) Ltd ("Kgoro Consortium”) provided 100% of its shareholding in Cedar Park Properties as security to VMF II Partnership.

4. The proposed transaction was filed under Rule 28 of the Commission’s rules. This has occasioned the separate merger filings from the liquidators of Cedar Park Properties (“Cedar Park Liquidators”) and the legal representatives of VMF II Partnership, respectively.
  5. The primary acquiring firm is VMF II Partnership. VMF II Partnership is controlled by its general partner Vantage Mezzanine Fund II (Pty) Ltd (“VMF II”). VMF II holds shareholding in a number of firms globally.
  6. VMF II has shareholding by Historically Disadvantaged Persons (“HDP”). VMF II, VMF II Partnership and all the firms they control shall be referred to as the “Acquiring Group”.
  7. The Acquiring Group is a global mezzanine funder, which in essence entails providing alternative sources of financing where traditional banks are not willing to lend and wherein shareholders lack cash equity to invest into their respective businesses. Mezzanine funding is predominantly in the form of debt and, to a lesser extent, equity. The Acquiring Group, through VMF II Partnership, has provided mezzanine funding to businesses in South Africa through debt and equity.
  8. The target firm is Cedar Park Properties, a private company incorporated in South Africa. Cedar Park Properties is 100% controlled by Kgoro Consortium. Kgoro Consortium is controlled by Regiments Capital (Pty) Ltd (“Regiment”).
  9. Cedar Park Properties owns a mixed-use property adjacent to and above the Sandton Gautrain property known as “Kgoro Central”. Kgoro Central currently comprises of 2 (two) phases, the first phase being two floors above ground level comprising of a parking bay and street front retail space which has been developed. The second (undeveloped) phase has mixed-use development rights (residential, retail, office, entertainment and other amenities).

Relationship between the parties/ products (horizontal/vertical)

10. The Commission assessed the activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction does not give rise to any horizontal overlap. This is because the Acquiring Group does not have any interests (controlling or non-controlling) in retail property within the Sandton area and surrounding areas. Additionally, the proposed transaction does not give rise to any vertical overlap.
11. Based on the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any market in South Africa.

Views of third parties

12. During its investigation the Commission engaged with a third party in order to obtain its views in relation to the proposed transaction. In its submission, the third party indicated that its interests in the proposed transaction relate to commercial and social interests, namely (i) the recovery of monies owed by Cedar Park Properties to the third party; (ii) the development/and or completion of Kgoro Central and (iii) the promotion of B-BBEE entities and/or achievement of B-BBEE targets in the development of Kgoro Central. The Commission assessed the third concern under public interest.

History of Kgoro Central

13. The Commission understands that in 2009, the City of Johannesburg (“CoJ”) sold the land upon which Kgoro Central was developed by Cedar Park Properties through a tender process (“Kgoro Land”). The tender for the acquisition of the Kgoro Land required a potential purchaser to attain a minimum score of not less than 70% in respect of the following B-BBEE elements: (i) ownership and control (50%); (ii) procurement (23%); (iii) Investment in under privileged areas (12%); (iv) enterprise development (6%); (v) skills development (5%) and (vi) employment equity (3%).

14. Kgoro Consortium was successfully chosen as the preferred purchaser and developer of the Kgoro Land. Cedar Park Properties was awarded the tender to develop Kgoro Central and as part of the development, Kgoro Central was required to promote the socio-economic upliftment of HDPs by ensuring that certain B-BBEE targets towards the development of Kgoro Central are met. This B-BBEE targets related to (i) third-party suppliers, contractors, professional development team members comprising of the youth and women; (ii) labour force from the development community; (iii) tenants comprising of women and youth and (iv) employment of youth and women ("B-BBEE Targets"). This B-BBEE Targets are expressed in percentage form.

Assessment of the concern relating to recovery of payments owed by Cedar Park Properties to the third party

15. The Commission is of the view that since Kgoro Central, the only asset owned by Cedar Park Properties, is under liquidation and the third party is also a listed creditor of Cedar Park Properties, the proposed transaction is unlikely to affect the ability of the third party to recover a portion of what is owed to it.

16. Upon further engagement with the third party, it confirmed that the Commission is unlikely to have jurisdiction in relation to the repayment of the monies owed to the third party.

Assessment of the concern relating to the development/and or completion of Kgoro Central

17. In response to this concern, VMF II Partnership submits that the completion of the development of Kgoro Central is secured given that whoever purchases the Kgoro Central is obligated in terms of the Restricted Registered Servitude to develop the property in accordance with Phase 2 of the Sale and Development Agreement. The third-party has also confirmed this.

18. The Commission is of the view that the concern raised by the third party relates to contractual obligations and the said developments are unlikely to be negatively affected by the proposed transaction given the protection associated with the Restrictive Registered Servitude.

---

Effect on employment

19. The merging parties submit that the proposed transaction will not have any negative effect on employees at either the target or the acquiring firm. In particular, the merging parties submit that no retrenchments will arise as a result of the proposed transaction. Given the unequivocal statement that the proposed transaction will not result in any retrenchments or job losses and the fact that Cedar Park Properties had no employees at the time of liquidation, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to result in a negative effect on employment.

Effect of the proposed merger on the ability of small and medium businesses, or firms controlled or owned by historically disadvantaged persons, to effectively enter into, participate in or expand within the market.

20. The Commission found that the B-BBEE Targets with Cedar Park Properties were envisaged to be implemented during the development of Kgoro Central. In terms of the said B-BBEE Targets, Cedar Park Properties was required to promote the socio-economic upliftment of Historically Disadvantaged Persons (“HDPs”) by ensuring that the B-BBEE Targets highlighted above are met in respect of the development of Kgoro Central.
21. The third party was concerned that post-merger the above B-BBEE Targets will fall away.
22. The Commission is of the view that the B-BBEE Targets constitute important public interest objectives which the Commission has an obligation to advance. In this regard, the Commission concludes that the proposed transaction cannot be justified on public interest grounds. In this regard, the Commission requested the merging parties to consider the following conditions:
- 22.1. That VMF II Partnership notifies the Commission when it sells Kgoro Central to a third party, regardless of whether the sale constitutes a merger in terms of the Competition Act; and

22.2. That if VMF II Partnership does not dispose of Kgoro Central within a period of 24 months following the approval of the proposed merger, VMF II Partnership shall implement the B-BBEE Targets.

23. In response to the proposed conditions the merging parties indicated that regardless of whether or not the ownership of Cedar Park is transferred to VMF II Partnership, the property will remain under the possession and control of the Cedar Park Liquidators. As such, VMF II Partnership will not be the seller of Cedar Park/Kgoro Central, the liquidators would be. VMF II Partnership therefore could not formally notify any sale to a third party (i.e., in the prescribed form). However, it was submitted that VMF II Partnership is willing to undertake to advise the Commission, in writing, when it becomes aware of any impending sale of Cedar Park or Kgoro Central to any third party (notwithstanding that it will most likely, in any event be subject to a formal notification). This would afford the Commission an opportunity to assert its jurisdiction over any on-sale of Cedar Park or Kgoro Central, including an assessment of the appropriate public interest factors. VMF II Partnership has agreed to this being made a condition. The conditions are attached hereto as Annexure A.

24. The proposed transaction does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

25. Therefore, the Commission approves the proposed transaction subject to a condition that the merging parties will advise the Commission, in writing, if Vantage becomes aware of any impending sale of Cedar Park or Kgoro Central to any third party. The conditions are attached hereto as Annexure A.

2 RECORDAL

Competition assessment

- 2.1 The Commission found that the proposed merger does not raise any competition concerns.

Public Interest assessment

- 2.2 The Commission found that, in 2009, Cedar Park Properties had committed to certain B-BBEE Targets with the City of Johannesburg when Cedar Park assumed ownership of Kgoro Central. The said B-BBEE Targets were to be implemented during the development of Kgoro Central. To date, the B-BBEE Targets have not been realised as Cedar Park has failed to develop Kgoro Central. The City of Johannesburg is concerned that the B-BBEE Targets will fall away after the implementation of the Merger. The Commission is of the view that the B-BBEE Targets constitute important public interest objectives which the Commission has an obligation to advance.
- 2.3 Given that Kgoro Central is under the custodianship of the Cedar Park Liquidators pre- and post-merger notwithstanding the Merger, VMF will have no de facto control over, and will not be the seller of Kgoro Central when it is sold in liquidation to a third party. The Commission is concerned that a third-party purchaser is unlikely to be bound by the B-BBEE Targets. Since the Cedar Park Liquidators would be the sellers, VMF is unlikely to be able to formally notify any sale to a third party in the prescribed form as per the Competition Act.
- 2.4 In order to provide the Commission with an opportunity to assert its jurisdiction over any on-sale of Cedar Park and/ or Kgoro Central, including an assessment of the appropriate public interest factors, the Commission has requested VMF to advise the Commission, in writing, when it becomes aware of any impending sale of Cedar Park and/or Kgoro Central to any third-party purchaser. VMF has agreed to this being made a condition of the approval for the Merger.

3 CONDITION

- 3.1 In the event that Cedar Park and/ or Kgoro Central is disposed of to a third-party purchaser, the Acquiring Firm undertakes to inform the Commission in writing of the disposal of Cedar Park and/ or Kgoro Central to a third party within 10 (ten) Days of the sale.
- 3.2 The above condition does not derogate from any statutory obligation to notify such sale to the Commission as a merger.

4 MONITORING AND COMPLIANCE

- 4.1 VMF shall inform the Commission of the Implementation Date within 5 (five) Days of it becoming effective.
- 4.2 VMF shall notify the liquidators of Cedar Park of these Conditions within 5 (five) Days of the Approval Date.
- 4.3 As proof of compliance hereof, a senior official of VMF shall submit an affidavit attesting to the notification referred to in clause 4.2 above and provide a copy of the notice to the Commission within 5 (five) Days of the circulation of the notice.

5 APPARENT BREACH

In the event that the Commission receives any complaint in relation to non-compliance with the above Conditions, or otherwise determines that there has been an apparent breach by the Merging Parties of any of the above Conditions, this shall be dealt with in terms of Rule 39 of the Commission Rules read together with Rule 37 of the Tribunal Rules.

6 VARIATION OF THE CONDITIONS

The Merging Parties may at any time, on good cause shown, apply to the Tribunal for any of the Conditions to be waived, relaxed, modified and/or substituted.

7 CORRESPONDENCE

All correspondence in relation to the Conditions must be submitted to the following email addresses: mergerconditions@compcom.co.za and ministry@thedtic.gov.za.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*THE SHADOW CAPITAL (PTY) LTD & SHADOW CAPITAL AGRI (PTY) LTD*AND*BLUE OCEAN MUSSELS (PTY) LTD & GALLO GROUP (PTY) LTD*CASE NUMBER: 2022JUN0055

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 24 June 2022, the Competition Commission ("the Commission") received notice of a small merger whereby The Shadow Capital (Pty) Ltd (Shadow Capital) & Shadow Capital Agri (Pty) Ltd ("Shadow Capital Agri"), (together referred to as the "SC Group"), intend to acquire control of Blue Ocean Mussels (Pty) Ltd ("BOM") & Gallo Group (Pty) Ltd ("Gallo").
  2. Shadow Capital and Shadow Capital Agri are private companies incorporated in accordance with the laws of South Africa. Shadow Capital Agri is wholly owned by Shadow Capital. Shadow Capital is not directly or indirectly controlled by any entity. Shadow Capital and all the firms directly and indirectly controlled by it will hereinafter collectively be referred to as the "SC Group".
  3. The SC Group is a private investment group, which specializes in investing in and assisting small to medium size companies to grow into sustainable, successful businesses. They have particularly strong expertise in the agriculture sector where its management has been active for many years.

4. BOM and Gallo are private companies incorporated in accordance with the laws of South Africa. BOM is wholly owned by Terrasan Beleggings (Pty) Ltd (“Terrasan”). Terrasan Beleggings is controlled by the Terrasan Group Limited. Gallo is not directly or indirectly controlled by any entity. BOM and Gallo will hereinafter collectively be referred to as the “Target Firms”.
5. BOM is involved in the farming (harvesting & seeding), processing, sales and marketing of both fresh and frozen mussels. Gallo is only involved in the processing of mussels and is not active in the farming of mussels. Both the Target Firms produce frozen mussel products which are sold on a wholesale basis in South Africa. BOM and Gallo are both located in Saldanha Bay. As part of the proposed transaction, the operations of BOM and Gallo will be merged into a single entity and it will be named “New BOM”.

Competition Assessment

6. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction does not give rise to any horizontal overlaps between the acquiring group and the target firms. This is because the SC Group is an investment group that does not provide any frozen mussels products. The Commission however notes that the proposed transaction gives rise to a horizontal overlap between the activities of the two Target Firms. The Commission thus found that the proposed transaction results in a horizontal overlap in the market for the processing of mussels and the supply of frozen mussels.
  7. The Commission found that the merged entity will be the dominant supplier in the relevant market with an estimated market share of more than 70%. However, the investigation showed that the target firms were, for various reasons, unlikely to be effective competitors.
  8. The Commission consulted with customers of the Target Firms and some raised concerns about post-merger pricing, given the post-merger size of the merged entity. The Commission reviewed the post-merger strategy, price projections and efficiencies arising from the transaction and, found that it was unlikely that the merger would result in significant unilateral effects.

Efficiencies

9. The merging parties submit that the proposed transaction is pro-competitive and that any possible anticompetitive effects that theoretically arise are significantly outweighed by the pro-competitive and public interest benefits arising from the proposed transaction. The merging parties submit that as a low margin, labour intensive product, mussel processing businesses require volume to be profitable. The merger would allow the target firms to gain the scale to be competitive. The merger of the two target firms would thus result in a mussel company that will be able to grow employment, be sustainable and allow South African mussels to be exported competitively at scale for the first time.
10. The Commission considered the merging parties' production efficiencies pre-merger. The Commission was able to confirm the merging parties' submissions regarding current operational challenges and interrogate their submissions on post-merger improvements in operations and likely efficiency improvements. The merging parties were also able to provide information on likely pass-through of efficiency improvements to customers (through pricing and through exports) post-merger.

Assessment of the public interest issues

Effect of the merger on employment

11. The merger parties submitted that the merger would protect existing jobs at the target firms and if the anticipated volumes of the combined entity are achieved, the proposed transaction would create an estimated 73 new jobs. The merger did, however, raise concerns about a change in the terms and conditions of employment. The Commission also received concerns from the union (FAWU) in this regard.
  12. To address employment concerns, the merging parties agreed to remedies which will protect the terms and conditions of employment and ensure that there will be no merger-specific retrenchments for 2-years following the merger.

13. The merging parties also agreed to the following public interest conditions:

13.1. In the event that the merged entity meets certain production targets, the merging parties commit to creating an additional 73 positions for mussel sorters within the merged entity.

13.2. Within 5 (five) years, if New BOM meets certain production targets, the merging parties commit to the introduction of an ESOP to the benefit of the employees of New BOM.

13.3. The merging parties will ensure that they at least maintain their procurement of mussels from black-owned farms. The merging parties will also use their best endeavours to increase their procurement of mussels from black farmers over the next 5 (five) years.

14. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction with conditions attached in “Annexure A”.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*EASTVAAL MOTORS PROPRIETARY LIMITED*AND*COMBINED AUTO HOLDINGS PROPRIETARY LIMITED AND*CASE NUMBER: 2022MAR0020

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the abovementioned firms subject to conditions set out below:

1. On 08 March 2022, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger wherein Eastvaal Motors Proprietary Limited ("EVM") intends to acquire certain trading assets from Combined Auto Holdings Proprietary Limited ("CAH"). The assets consist of a new and used vehicle multi-dealership, situated in Middelburg, Mpumalanga ("the Target Dealership"). Post-merger, EVM will control the Target Dealership.

Merging parties and their activities

2. The primary acquiring firm is EVM, a company incorporated in accordance with the company laws of the Republic of South Africa. EVM is controlled by Eastvaal Motors Holdings (Pty) Ltd ("Eastvaal Holdings").
3. EVM controls several firms including Eastvaal Isuzu Proprietary Limited ("Eastvaal Isuzu")
[CONFIDENTIAL] % Eastvaal Fleet Services Proprietary Limited ("Eastvaal Fleet")

- [CONFIDENTIAL] % Quick Lane Tyres, Auto Centre Proprietary Limited Eastvaal Middelburg Ford Proprietary Limited, Eastvaal Isuzu Proprietary Limited (“Eastvaal Isuzu”) and Eastvaal Fleet Services Proprietary Limited (“Eastvaal Fleet”). EVM, the firms that control it and the firms it controls will hereinafter be referred to as the (“Acquiring Group”).
4. EVM does not have any shareholders who are Historically Disadvantaged Persons (HDPs). EVM also does not have any Employee Share Ownership Programme (“ESOP”). However, the merging parties indicate that 2 (two) subsidiaries of EVM (Eastvaal Isuzu and Eastvaal Fleet) are owned by HDPs. In this regard, the parties indicated that [CONFIDENTIAL] % of the shares in Eastvaal Isuzu and Eastvaal Fleet are held by Afrika Tikkun Holdings (Pty) Ltd (“Afrika Tikkun”). Afrika Tikkun is a firm that is controlled by HDPs.
  5. The Acquiring Group comprises of a group of companies conducting business primarily in the vehicle dealership market. The Acquiring Group operates various motor dealerships situated in Witbank, Middelburg, Secunda, Standerton and Bethal. The Acquiring Group also operates a dealership in the North-West Province situated in the Potchefstroom area. Brands sold by the Acquiring Group includes the following: Ford, GWM, Honda, Hyundai, Kia, Isuzu, Haval, Mazda, Suzuki, Citroen, Peugeot, Cherry, and Toyota.
  6. The primary target firm is CAH in respect of Target Dealership. The Target Dealership is controlled by CAH. CAH is controlled by the following shareholders (i) Solly Latif Holdings (Pty) Ltd (“Solly Latif”) [CONFIDENTIAL] %, Ronri (Pty) Ltd [CONFIDENTIAL] % and P.A Longueira [CONFIDENTIAL]. CAH is controlled by an HDP shareholder, Solly Latif, who holds [CONFIDENTIAL] % of CAH.
  7. The Target Dealership operates a multi-brand dealership situated in Middelburg and sells new and used light commercial and passenger vehicles. The vehicles sold comprises a variety of brands including Alfa, Jeep, Peugeot, Cherry, Fiat, Citroen, Suzuki, JAC, and Mahindra.

Relationship between the merging parties

8. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that they are both active in the retailing of new and used vehicles, sale of spare parts and in the provision of aftersales maintenance work. The Commission further found that the merging parties compete in the sale of the Citroen; JAC; Peugeot; Cherry; and Suzuki brands of motor vehicles.

9. The Commission did not conclude on the relevant market but assessed the effects of the proposed merger in the following markets: (i) The sale of new PVs within a 50km radius of the Target Dealership in Middleburg; (ii) The sale of new LCVs within a 50km radius of the Target Dealership; (iii) The provision of after sale scheduled services within a 50km radius of the Target Dealership; and (iv) The sale of aftermarket spare parts within a 50km radius of the Target Dealership.

Competition Analysis

10. In determining the market shares of the merging parties, the Commission relied on data from National Association of Automobile Manufacturers of South Africa (NAAMSA).

Assessment of a horizontal overlap in the retailing of passenger vehicles in a 50km radius from the Target Dealership

11. The Commission found that the merged entity will have a post-merger market share of approximately 52% in the market for the sale of new PVs with a market share accretion of 11%. The other dealers active in the relevant geographic market are McCarthy VW and Audi (Middelburg and Witbank), Barloworld Toyota (Middelburg and Witbank), Witbank Nissan and Witbank Datsun, Qembu Isuzu/Opel, and Mitsubishi Witbank.
12. Given the high market share enjoyed by the merging parties in this market, the Commission assessed if the merging parties will be able to unilaterally increase prices of new PVs, post-merger.

Is the merger likely to result in a unilateral effect relating to the sale of PVs?

13. The Commission found that prices for new PVs are set by the Original Equipment Manufacturers ("OEM") by way of setting a "recommended price". In this regard, the parties indicate that the OEMs advertise their recommended prices and dealerships will compete by discounting from the recommended price. In addition, every dealer is given minimum sales targets which they need to achieve in order to keep the dealership licence and this influences the discounts given by the dealer.

14. The Commission notes the high market shares of the merging parties but finds that it is unlikely that this will result in substantial unilateral price effects. Firstly, the Commission's investigation shows that there are nine (9) other dealerships in the relevant geographic market which retail a range of PVs from entry-level to more advanced models. These include Barloworld Toyota (Middelburg and Witbank), Witbank Nissan, McCarthy VW and Audi (Middelburg and Witbank) Qembu Isuzu/Opel, Mitsubishi Witbank, and Witbank Datsun.
15. In addition, the merging parties indicated that even though the Target Dealership will be part of the Acquiring Group post-merger, when it comes to the sale of new vehicles, each dealership will continue to receive its individual sale targets from the OEM. If these sales targets are not met, the dealership risks losing its licences. Therefore, this will disincentivise the merged entity from reducing discounts offered to customers.
16. The Commission is therefore of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in the market for the retailing of PVs.

Assessment of the horizontal overlap relating to the sale of light commercial vehicles

17. The Commission found that the merging parties will have approximately 39% with a market share accretion of 2%. Given the low accretion, the Commission is of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to significantly alter the structure of the market.
18. The Commission therefore is of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in the market for the retailing of light commercial vehicles.

Assessment of intra-brand competition

19. The Commission also considered whether the proposed transaction will negatively affect intra-brand competition in the relevant market. The brands affected by this transaction are Citroen; JAC; Peugeot; Cherry; and Suzuki (“Affected Brands”). The Commission notes that most of the Affected Brands, apart from Suzuki, appear to be marginal brands in the relevant market. The Citroen brand accounts for 0.34% of new PV sales in the relevant market and Peugeot accounts for 1.1.3%. The JAC and Cherry brands are still new brands and NAAMSA does not collect sales figures for these brands. The merging parties submit that they have sold 37 of these cars in the past year, which accounts for 1.17% of overall PV sales in the relevant market. Suzuki accounts for 20% of the PV’s sold in the relevant geographic market.
20. The Commission found that the merging parties are the only dealerships in the relevant geographic market that sells Citroen, Peugeot and Suzuki. Post-merger, the merged entity will be the sole suppliers of these brands in the relevant geographic market.

Assessment of unilateral effects relating to sale of Affected Brands within 50km radius of the Target Dealership.

21. The Commission assessed if the merging parties will be able to unilaterally increase prices or will have an incentive to provide lower discounts for the Affected Brands.
22. The merging parties submit that the Acquiring Group will not have incentives to increase prices of new vehicles sold by the Target Dealership as the consequence will inevitably be lower sales of already marginal brands. This will collapse the Target Dealership at a time when it intends concluding new franchise agreements with the OEMs distributing the affected brands. The merging parties submit that offering lower discount will jeopardise sales which may result in them not meeting the sales targets set by the OEMs.
23. In addition, the Commission notes that although the merger effectively removes intra-brand competition in the relevant market, the Tribunal has in a number of matters indicated that intra-brand competition can be offset by inter-brand competition. In the DaimlerChrysler and Sandown merger, for example, the Tribunal indicated that “...all competition authorities around the globe take the view that any reduction in intra-brand competition can be offset by inter-brand competition”.

24. The Commission also undertook a comparative assessment of the price of entry level PVs sold in the relevant geographic market. The Commission focused on entry-level models on the presumption that these are more likely to affect lower income consumers or first-time buyers. From a pricing perspective, Suzuki competes with other OEM brands such as Toyota, and VW which are sold by other dealerships.
25. The Commission found that the basic price of the entry-level vehicles are similar, although the Toyota and Polo Vivo have a wider range of options from their basic offering. Given that both Toyota and VW are more established brands in the South African market, the Commission is of the view that Suzuki will be constrained by their entry level prices. The Commission also notes that the merged entity does not have any VW and Toyota dealerships in the relevant geographic market. The merger is therefore unlikely to result in a significant reduction of inter-brand competition. Overall, the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition.

Unilateral effects assessment relating to provision of schedule services or maintenance work relating for in-warranty vehicles or those under service plan (Affected Brands)

26. The Commission found that the merging parties charged the same hourly labour rates for servicing vehicles that are under warranty, at least for Suzuki, Peugeot, Citroen and Cherry. The labour rates for in-warranty work are, and will continue to be, determined by OEMs.
27. Considering the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in this market.

Unilateral effects relating to the provision of schedule services or maintenance work relating for out of warranty vehicles.

28. The Commission also assessed the effect of the merger on the labour rates for vehicles that are not covered by warranty or services plan, i.e., schedule service wherein a car owner pays for schedule service directly.

29. The Commission is cognisant of the existing price differential between the hourly labour rates of the Target Dealership and that of the Acquiring Group. However, in the provision of maintenance work for aftersales service, the merging parties will continue to compete with other independent service centres and workshops such as: VR Diesel Bosch Diesel Centre, Car Care Centre eCars Service Centre, and J&L service centre which are located in Witbank and/or Middleburg.

30. Considering the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in the market for the provision of maintenance service for vehicle that are out of warranty as the merging parties will continue to compete with independent workshops.

Conclusion on unilateral effect assessment

31. Considering the above, the Commission concludes that the proposed transaction is unlikely to result in significant unilateral effects concerns as the Affected Brands are not popular brands and the merging parties will still face competition from other stronger brands.

32. The Commission also notes from the rationale for the proposed merger that the Target Dealership is likely to exit the market as absent the merger, it will be sold through auction.

33. The Commission therefore concludes that the proposed merger is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any market.

Employment

34. The merging parties indicated that the proposed merger will not result in any retrenchments as the Target Dealership will be transferred in terms of Section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, 66 of 1995 ("Section 197").

35. The employees of the merging parties are represented by the Motor Industry Staff Association ("MISA") and National Union of Metalworkers of South Africa ("NUMSA"). The Commission contacted NUMSA and MISA requesting for their submissions in relation to future of their members i.e., the employees of the merging parties. Despite the Commission's persistence to secure NUMSA's submission, there were no concerns or any written submissions from NUMSA. MISA did not raise any concerns.

36. Given the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to result in employment concerns.

The promotion of a greater spread of ownership, in particular to increase the levels of ownership of historically disadvantaged persons and workers in firms in the market.

37. The Commission finds that the Acquiring Group does not have a direct HDP shareholder or ESOP. However, the merging parties indicate Eastvaal Fleet a subsidiary of the Acquiring group is [CONFIDENTIAL] % owned by HDP shareholder, Afrika Tikkun.

38. The Target Dealership is [CONFIDENTIAL] % control by HDP Shareholder, an individual by the name of Solly Latif who controls Solly Latif (Pty) Ltd.

39. Thus, as a direct result of the merger, the HDP shareholding in the Target Dealership will be reduced from [CONFIDENTIAL] %.

40. To address this concern, the merging parties agree to place the Target Dealership in Eastvaal Fleet Services, which has a [CONFIDENTIAL] % B-BBEE shareholder, Afrika Tikkun. The parties indicated that the [CONFIDENTIAL] % shareholding by Afrika Tikkun in Eastvaal Fleet translates to [CONFIDENTIAL] % voting rights. This proposed condition would ensure that the Target Dealership remain controlled by the HDP post-merger.

41. In addition, Afrika Tikkun will have an option to purchase a majority shareholding, in Eastvaal Fleet Services Proprietary Limited and thus become a majority shareholder in the Target Dealership. (The condition is attached as Annexure B).

42. The proposed transaction does not raise other public interest concerns.

---

43. light of the above, the Commission approves the proposed merger with conditions (attached hereto as "Annexure A").

photovoltaic ("PV") to Eskom. However, it bears mention that the Acquiring Group does not control any of the solar PV parks in which they have a shareholding.

5. The Commission considered the impact of the merger on the supply of solar PV as that is the narrowest product market in which competition concerns may arise and thus presents a worst-case scenario for competition assessment purposes. The Commission assessed the supply of renewable energy on a national basis, without definitively concluding on the appropriate geographic scope due to the lack of concerns arising from the merger.
  6. In terms of the national supply of renewable energy through solar PV, the Commission found that the merged entity will have a combined market share of approximately 10 – 20% with an accretion of less than 5%. The Commission found that the market for the supply of Solar PV energy at a national level is fragmented as there are at least 39 other solar PV suppliers participating in the Renewable Energy IPP Procurement Programme ("REIPPPP"). The Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to alter the structure of the market and, therefore, the transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any market.
  7. The Commission found that the proposed transaction will result in job losses for all 5 employees of Hulisani. The retrenchments are due to duplications that arise from the merger. The merging parties submit that the Reatile Group currently employs the staff in the same designations and/or capable of fulfilling the same role as the Hulisani employees that are to be retrenched.
  8. The Commission found that all of the employees of Hulisani will be retrenched as a result of the proposed transaction and as such the Commission requested that the proposed transaction be approved subject to a reskilling condition for the semi-skilled employees affected by the proposed merger. In this regard, the Commission requested the merging parties to set aside R50 000 for each semi-skilled employee, in order for them to further their studies in a qualification of their choosing. The merging parties have agreed to the proposed condition. These conditions are listed in Annexure A.
  9. In addition, the merging parties state that the proposed transaction is likely to have a positive effect on the 12A(3)(e) of the Competition Act of promoting the greater spread of ownership by workers and historically disadvantaged persons as Reatile Group has 100% black ownership and 30% black woman ownership and is a level 1 B-BBEE contributor. As such Hulisani will increase its Black Voting Rights from the current 86,66% to 100% as well as its Black Economic Interest from 51,89% to 100%.

10. The proposed transaction does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

11. The Commission approves the proposed transaction with the conditions captured in

Annexure A.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*LUCKY STAR LIMITED*AND*SUPREME PROCESSING PROPRIETARY LIMITED*CASE NUMBER: 2022OCT0027

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the abovementioned firms subject to conditions set out below:

1. On 13 October 2022, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger in terms of which Lucky Star Ltd, trading as Lucky Star Operations ("Lucky Star") intends to acquire assets used by Supreme Processing (Pty) Ltd ("Supreme") to manufacture and pack canned corned meat products on behalf of Lucky Star ("the canned meat assets") as well as Supreme's Prima brand.

The parties and their activities

2. The primary acquiring firm is Lucky Star. Lucky Star is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Oceana Group Limited ("Oceana"), which is a publicly listed company trading on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and the Namibian Stock Exchange. Oceana is not controlled by any single entity. Oceana controls numerous firms. Lucky Star has controlling interests in two unincorporated joint ventures which hold fishing vessels.
3. The merging parties indicate that 81.82% of the shares in Oceana are held by historically disadvantaged persons ("HDPs"). As a result, the shares held by HDPs in Lucky Star are similarly 81.82%.

4. The primary target firms are the canned meat assets of Supreme which were operated by Supreme at its Polokwane plant as well as the Prima brand which is owned by Supreme.
5. Supreme is a wholly owned subsidiary of Country Bird Holdings (Pty) Ltd ("CBH"). CBH controls numerous firms and Supreme does not control any single entity.
6. The merging parties submit that Supreme does not have any shareholding held by HDPs. In addition, Supreme does not have an ESOP.
7. Lucky Star forms part of the pelagic fish business of Oceana and its primary product is canned fish consisting of pilchards, tuna, sardine and mackerel, all of which are marketed under the Lucky Star brand. Lucky Star has recently expanded into other food categories including canned meat, soya, baked beans, and chakalaka.
8. The canned meat assets were utilised by Supreme at its Polokwane plant to manufacture, and pack canned corned meat products on behalf of Lucky Star under the Lucky Star, and Top One brands. In the past year, Supreme also utilised the canned meat assets to manufacture and sell canned meat products under the Prima brand which it sold to Lucky Star. Lucky Star sold the Prima-branded products in Namibia. The canned meat assets remain unutilised since September 2022 due the shutdown of Supreme's Polokwane plant.

Competition assessment

9. The Commission found that there was a pre-existing vertical relationship between the merging parties as Supreme manufactured and packed canned meat products on behalf of Lucky Star prior to this transaction.
  10. The Commission found that in May 2022, Supreme decided to discontinue operations of its Polokwane plant. After giving Lucky Star four months' notice of termination of its manufacturing agreement, Supreme shut down the canning operations at the plant at the end of September 2022.
  11. Considering the termination of the manufacturing agreement, the Commission found that the vertical agreement between Supreme and Lucky Star ceased at the end of September 2022. Notwithstanding this, the Commission found that even if the vertical relationship remained, the proposed transaction would not result in any input or customer foreclosure because a substantial percentage of the revenues derived by Supreme from the canned meat products were from sales made to Lucky Star.

Public interest considerationEmployment

12. The Commission found that as a result of the discontinuation of operations at the Polokwane plant, there were job losses. The Commission considered the merger-specificity of the job losses and found that it is unlikely that the job losses at the Polokwane plant were as a result of the proposed transaction.
13. The merging parties submitted that retrenchments also took place at Ocean Lobster Limited, a subsidiary of Oceana. The Commission found that these retrenchments were also not related to the proposed transaction.
14. Notwithstanding the fact that the job losses at the Polokwane plant and at Oceana Lobster Limited are unrelated to the proposed transaction, Lucky Star has undertaken to create 30 new jobs as a result of this proposed transaction. Lucky Star has agreed to make its commitment a condition to the approval of the proposed transaction.
15. The proposed transaction does not raise any other public interest concern.

Conclusion

16. The Commission approves the proposed merger with conditions attached hereto as "Annexure A".

1. On 17 August 2022, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received a notification of an intermediate merger whereby Atlantis Food Holdings Proprietary Limited ("Atlantis") intends to acquire (i) 100% of the entire issued share capital of Snoek Wholesalers Proprietary Limited ("Snoek Wholesalers") and (ii) the property located at 1 Becker Street, ERF 41115, Hanover Park, Philippi, Cape Town ("Target Property"). Upon implementation of the proposed transaction, Atlantis will control Snoek Wholesalers and the Target Property.
2. Atlantis is controlled by Cenon Holdings (Pty) Limited ("Cenon") and Cenon is controlled by Lonrho Africa Holdings Limited ("Lonrho Africa"). Lonrho Africa is, in turn, controlled by Lonrho Holdings Limited ("LHL"). Atlantis controls the following firms: Breco Holdings (Pty) Ltd; Atlantis Seafood Distributors (Pty) Ltd; Siyanqoba Fishing (Pty) Ltd; and Superpackers Holdings (Pty) Ltd (dormant). Atlantis, LHL and all the firms directly and indirectly controlled by LHL shall be referred to as "Atlantis Group". The Atlantis Group does not have any shareholding by historically disadvantaged persons ("HDPs"). In South Africa, the Atlantis Group is active in the importation, packaging and trading of seafood. Its business is based in Atlantis, Cape Town.

3. The primary target firms are Snoek Wholesalers and The Target Property. Snoek Wholesalers is engaged in the importation, processing, trading and distribution of seafood products throughout South Africa. Snoek Wholesalers supplies a wide variety of frozen fish, shellfish, and molluscs. In addition, Snoek Wholesalers is a supplier of its own brands, namely Ocean Catch seafood and Atlantic Brand products. Snoek Wholesalers also operates a cold storage facility.
4. The Target Property is a processing facility comprising a factory and factory shop and is currently being leased to Snoek Wholesalers.
5. The Commission assessed the activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction gives rise to a horizontal overlap as the merging parties are both active in the market for the supply of fish and seafood products.
6. In calculating the market shares, the Commission relied on data from GlobalData. The merged entity will have an estimated market share of approximately 5 – 10%, with an accretion of less than 5% in the national market for the supply of fish and seafood products. The customers contacted by the Commission submitted that the merged entity will continue to be constrained by other players such as Sea Harvest, I&J , Blue Continent Products and Pioneer Fishing.

Restraint of trade assessment

7. The merging parties have entered into a restraint of trade agreement which indicates that:

“the Seller, the trustees, ... (“hereafter referred to as “Seller Members”) involved in the business of Snoek Wholesalers will need to sign a restraint of trade of 5 years with effect from the Closing Date. This is to provide Atlantis with comfort that the “Seller Members” would not create or benefit any competitor business which would be to the detriment of Atlantis....”
8. The Commission finds that the period of the restraint period is unreasonable and as such the Commission requested the merging parties to reduce the restraint of trade period. In this regard, the parties agreed to reduce the restraint period to 3 years. See conditions attached hereto as “Annexure A”.
9. Taking the above into consideration, the Commission is of the view that the proposed merger is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any market in South Africa.

Public interest assessmentEffect on employment

10. The merging parties submitted that they have not undertaken any detailed assessment to ascertain the effect of the merger on employment. However, the merging parties indicate that the merger is likely to result in duplication of roles.
11. Given that the merging parties have not undertaken a detailed assessment of the effect of the proposed merger on employment, the parties submitted that they are willing to commit that they will not engage in any merger specific retrenchment for a period of a 1-year. However, the parties indicate that this will exclude 5 (five) jobs at the management level in finance, trade, procurement, logistics and forwarding & clearing where there are likely to be duplications.

Engagements with the employee representatives

12. The Commission contacted the employee representatives of both the Acquiring Group and the Target Firms who did not raise any significant concerns relating to the proposed merger.

Submissions from the Department of Trade Industry and Competition (“DTIC”)

13. The Commission received a Notice of Intention to Participate from the DTIC. One of the concerns raised by the DTIC was that the commitment by the merging parties of a one-year moratorium on merger specific retrenchments does not lend adequate protection to workers in the proposed merger. In this regard, the DTIC requested the Commission to engage the merging parties and propose a five-year moratorium on merger specific retrenchments post-merger.

Merging parties’ response on the concerns raised by the DTIC

14. The merging parties submitted that they would not be able to commit to a 5-year moratorium. However, they submitted that they are amenable to 3 (three) year moratorium in relation to the 243 unskilled, semi-skilled and certain skilled employees. In this regard, the merging parties proposed a condition that they will not retrench employees of the Target Firm for a period of 3 years. This excludes 5 (five) employees. See conditions attached hereto as “Annexure A”.

Commission's view

15. The Commission accepts the employment condition proposed by the merging parties.

Effect on greater spread of ownership

16. The merging parties submitted that the proposed transaction will not give rise to a dilution of HDP shareholdings as the Target Group/ and Acquiring Group does not have any HDP shareholdings and/or workers empowerment schemes.

Submissions from the DTIC

17. The DTIC submitted that the merger parties have not made an unequivocal commitment that the merger will indeed promote a greater spread of ownership by HDPs/ workers or other initiatives aimed at broad-based black economic empowerment. In this regard, the DTIC requested the Commission to engage the merging parties with a view to institute the following commitments/ conditions to the merger application:

- 17.1. Transferring workers of the Target Group to gain unencumbered participation/benefits in any worker ownership scheme/ programme that existed pre-merger in the acquiring group;
- 17.2. To the extent that the above-mentioned ownership scheme/ programme does not exist, the merger parties to commit to implement such a scheme/programme at the merged entity within a period of 24 months, post implementation of the merger.

18. The merging parties submitted that Atlantis does not have an employee's ownership scheme/ programme. As such, there is no employee's ownership scheme/ programme that the workers of the Target Group can be transferred to.
19. With respect to the second request of establishing a new worker empowerment scheme/program, the merging parties indicate that introducing a new worker empowerment scheme/program will affect the viability of the transaction as the target firm has been struggling to find a purchaser who is willing to purchase the business as a going concern and secure the employment of workers. Thus, this may result in the target firm having to only sell its stock and not the business as has been proposed by other alternative purchasers.

Commissions view of the effect of the proposed merger on the greater spread of ownership

20. The Commission requested the merging parties to indicate how the proposed merger will contribute to the promotion of greater spread of ownership by HDPs and workers in firms in the market as contemplated in section 12A (3)e of the Act.
21. In response, the parties submitted that Atlantis is willing to commit to continue making contributions towards Skills Development; Supplier Development; Enterprise Development; Socio-Economic Development initiatives to the total value of [CONFIDENTIAL] over [CONFIDENTIAL] following the implementation of the proposed transaction.
22. In the circumstances of this case, the Commission approves the proposed transaction subject to the conditions set out in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*IHS HOLDING LIMITED*AND*MOBILE TELEPHONE NETWORKS PROPRIETARY LIMITED REGARDING THE ACQUISITION OF CERTAIN TOWER INFRASTRUCTURE AND ASSOCIATED ASSETS*CASE NUMBER: 2021DEC0004

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions set out below:

1. On 2 December 2021, the Competition Commission ("the Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger whereby IHS Holding Ltd ("IHS") intended to acquire certain passive tower infrastructure assets and associated business operations ("Target Business") owned by Mobile Telephone Networks (Pty) Limited ("MTN"). Post-merger, the Target Business would be controlled by IHS Towers South Africa (Pty) Ltd ("IHS SA"), a wholly owned subsidiary of IHS.
  2. The primary acquiring firm, IHS, is duly incorporated in accordance with the laws of the Cayman Islands. IHS intends to establish a South African subsidiary, IHS SA. IHS is publicly listed on the New York Stock Exchange and as its shares are widely held, it is not directly or indirectly controlled by any firm or individual. However, for the sake of completeness, shareholders owning an interest of at least 5% or more in IHS include Mobile Telephone Networks (Netherlands) B.V., Wendel and affiliated entities, ECP and affiliated entities,

Korea Investments Corporation and Warrington Investment Pte Ltd. IHS and all the firms it controls, including IHS SA will henceforth be referred to as the “Acquiring Group”.

3. The Target Business was owned by MTN, which is in turn controlled by MTN Holdings Ltd. MTN Holdings Ltd is in turn controlled by MTN Group Limited (“Seller”). The MTN Group is publicly listed on the Johannesburg Securities Exchange Limited and as its shares are widely held, the MTN Group is not directly or indirectly controlled by any firm or individual.
  4. In terms of the Sale of Business Agreement (“SBA”) between the parties, the Target Business would be sold to the Acquiring Group (IHS). Further, the Seller would lease back the tower infrastructure sites forming part of the Target Business from the Acquiring Group, in terms of a Master Lease Agreement (“MLA”), for an initial period. In addition, the Seller will enter into a Built-to-Suit Agreement (“BTSA”) in terms of which the Acquiring Group will have the right to build, develop and deliver some of the new greenfield sites to be rolled out by the Seller. Further, in terms of the SBA, the rights and obligations under the SBA will in due course be ceded to IHS SA which will itself enter into the MLA and BTSA. Post-merger, the Target Business will be owned and controlled by the Acquiring Group.
  5. The Acquiring Group constructs, acquires, operates, maintains and decommissions towers with a focus on technology roll-out, power innovation and site-security. The Target Business provides tower infrastructure leasing services through passive tower infrastructure to mobile network operators (“MNOs”) and other licensed operators (“OLOs”). Passive infrastructure includes the non-radio frequency elements of a cellular site such as the towers, buildings, air conditioning plant, security, power generation and supply components and the technical premises.
  6. The Commission found that the proposed transaction raises a vertical overlap through a structural link in that MTN owns some shares in the Acquiring Group. At the same time, MTN will continue to lease space on the towers of the Target Business through the MLA.

7. The Commission notes that MTN SA will not be selling all its tower infrastructure but will retain some passive tower infrastructure that is not part of the Transferred Business. Therefore, MTN will still be active in direct competition with the Acquiring Group in the passive infrastructure market.
  8. The Commission further found that MTN utilises other tower vendors when rolling out new towers as well as managing and maintaining such towers. Such tower operators are typically responsible for the construction of towers as well as managing and maintaining them.
  9. For purposes of assessing the proposed merger, the Commission concluded on the (i) national upstream market for the construction of passive infrastructure sites, (ii) the national upstream market for the management and maintenance of passive infrastructure tower sites (iii) and the national downstream market for the provision of mobile and other licensed network services.
  10. The Commission found that MTN has a substantial market share in the upstream market, ahead of Vodacom and Telkom.
  11. Regarding the downstream market for the provision of broad mobile network services, the Commission found that MTN accounted for a notable share of the market behind Vodacom and the balance is accounted for by Cell C and Telkom. Mobile virtual network operators (“MVNOs”) account for the minimum remaining shares, based on revenues, in 2020.

Vertical assessment

Input foreclosure

12. The Commission assessed whether the Acquiring Group would have the incentive to implement an input foreclosure strategy by denying access to space on tower sites to other MNOs and OLOs. This is particularly so given MTN Group’s shareholding in IHS, which shareholding may align with the incentives of MTN and IHS SA post-merger. Additionally, the Commission noted that the MLA stipulated that MTN will be guaranteed space on the transferred towers and the future (to-be-built) towers.

13. Importantly, the Commission noted that while MTN is an Electronic Communications Network Services (“ECNS”) licensed operator with obligations to lease its ‘essential facility’ tower sites to other operators, IHS is not a licensed operator and hence does not have such essential facility obligations. Accordingly, the Commission considered if other MNOs and OLOs could be foreclosed access to tower sites post-merger.
14. The merging parties submitted that the proposed transaction will not have a negative impact on third-party access to the tower infrastructure of the Target Business in favour of MTN. They submitted that if MTN wished to favour itself against rivals from an access perspective, it should already be doing so pre-merger. The merging parties also argued that the Acquiring Group is an independent tower operator whose business model is premised on open access to multiple MNOs and OLOs. Therefore, IHS, as an independent operator does not have incentives to foreclosure other MNOs and OLOs as it is not a network operator itself and does not compete against other licensed operators as MTN does.
15. Considering all the above factors, the Commission takes the view that MTN is a licensed operator with essential facility obligations which IHS does not have as it is not a licensed operator in South Africa. Further, given that the MLA is not yet concluded, there may still be opportunities for terms in the MLA to favour MTN against rival MNOs and OLOs. In all, there remain opportunities and incentives for IHS to foreclose MTN’s rivals from access to tower space post-merger.

16. The Commission further assessed whether the proposed transaction would result in the potential foreclosure of other upstream tower vendors who currently provide services to construct and maintain tower sites on behalf of MTN. The Commission noted that MTN is the largest player in the upstream market for passive tower infrastructure. The Commission was concerned that the proposed merger would raise customer foreclosure concerns particularly because the BTSA, amongst other documents, specified that IHS will be MTN's preferred tower vendor post-merger. The Commission also noted that IHS SA may pursue vendor outsourcing strategies which are different to those employed by MTN prior to the merger.

17. Regarding the management and maintenance of existing sites, MTN had contracts with a number of service providers. The services provided ranged from performing upgrades, battery installation, site construction, base station site maintenance and security solutions. Most of the services involve maintenance (upgrades) on existing sites and only a few vendors perform new site construction.
  18. IHS SA submitted that it would continue to utilise the primary vendors appointed by MTN. All subcontracting arrangements under these primary vendors would continue unaffected by the merger. However, once these existing contracts have expired, IHS SA would decide whether to renew them or appoint different third-party providers.
  19. Regarding the construction of new sites, the Commission found that MTN had only a few primary tower vendors. These vendors also subcontracted other vendors to carry out the site construction projects. These vendors had contracts that were to expire at different times. It was expected that MTN would continue to utilise these primary vendors for the limited new towers that MTN will build following the implementation of the merger.
  20. In terms of the merger agreements, the Commission noted that IHS would be responsible for building a number of the planned new tower sites for several years after the implementation of the merger whereas MTN will retain responsibility for building the remaining (more limited) number of planned new sites.
  21. The Commission discovered that although IHS and MTN may continue to use the services of outside vendors to maintain and manage the tower sites post-merger, the BTSA has exclusionary effects with respect to other independent tower companies involved in the building of tower sites.

Potential information exchange from cross ownership

22. The Commission also considered whether MTN SA's continued operation of some passive tower infrastructure in competition with the Acquiring Group may raise competition concerns of the potential chilling of competition between MTN and IHS SA. This is because of the MTN Group's shareholding in the Acquiring Group. The Commission was of the view that the MTN's members to be appointed to sit on the Acquiring Group's Board of Directors ("Board") may receive competitively sensitive information which could result in the dampening of competition between MTN and IHS SA.

23. However, the MTN Group's shareholding does not confer it a right to appoint or nominate a director to the Board of the Acquiring Group. Accordingly, no directors on the Board of the Acquiring Group are nominated or appointed by the MTN Group and none of the directors currently sitting on the Acquiring Group's Board belongs to the MTN Group. Therefore, the current governance structure does not appear to raise significant concerns.

Effects on employment

24. The merging parties submitted that the proposed transaction would not have any negative employment effect as it would not lead to the retrenchment of workers. However, pursuant to being notified of the proposed transaction, the union representing the employees of the merging parties, the Communications Workers Union ("CWU"), contacted the Commission indicating their intention to participate in the matter, citing previous bad experiences with mergers and acquisitions in the telecommunications sector. CWU submitted that there have been retrenchments occurring within this sector following a merger, even when an undertaking had been given that the merger would not result in job losses.

  25. The merging parties had tendered a condition in terms of which a 2 (two) year employment moratorium would be put in place from the implementation date of the merger, ensuring that none of the employees of MTN SA will be retrenched because of the proposed transaction. The Commission is of the view that the condition addresses the concerns arising as it will ensure continued employment of the Target Business employees.

Promotion of a greater spread of ownership by historically disadvantaged persons (HDPs) and workers

26. The merging parties submitted that, in terms of the MLA contractual obligations, the Acquiring Group was required to –
- 32.1. have a minimum 30% B-BBEE ownership in respect of the Target Business within 24 months of closing and until the end of the initial term of MLA; and
  - 32.2. be a level 4 B-BBEE contributor within 18 months and level 1 contributor within 4 years of the closing date of the proposed transaction.
27. Ultimately, IHS has committed to achieving 30% B-BBEE shareholding in respect of the Target Business within a 24-month period as a way to promote the spread of ownership by HDPs.

Impact of merger on the ability of small and medium businesses, or firms controlled or owned by HDPs to effectively enter into, participate in or expand within the market

28. The Commission also considered whether the proposed merger could generate a negative impact on the ability of SMMEs or firms owned by HDPs to effectively compete in the market. This is so because MTN currently utilises some SMME tower vendors including some with HDP ownership who might be effectively excluded from the market as a result of the proposed merger.
29. Some SMMEs were concerned that MTN would favour IHS SA for the provision of turnkey tower solutions and for the provision of Power-as-a-Service post-merger, especially considering that their MLAs are valid for a limited period within a highly concentrated mobile network market where there are not many viable alternative clients. Further, it was also argued that a B-BBEE transaction might not address the exclusionary effects on SMME and HDP tower vendors since such a transaction may be extended to passive investors who might not be experienced in the tower sector. In that event, SMME and HDP tower vendors will likely remain marginalised in the tower market.

30. Given that the contracts of such vendors would expire soon or within a short period of time after the merger, it is the Commission's view that such contracts for tower vendors remain exposed as they have no guarantee that they would be appointed once IHS takes over the management of the tower sites.
31. IHS has since made commitments that it will continue to utilise SME and HDP vendors post-merger.
32. Based on the foregoing, the Commission approved the merger subject to the following conditions: -

(i) Employment Condition

33. MTN SA shall not retrench any of its employees in South Africa because of the Merger for a period of 24 (twenty-four) months from the Implementation Date.

(ii) B-BBEE Condition

34. The Acquiring Firm shall:
    - within 18 (eighteen) months of the Implementation Date, achieve a minimum Level 4 B-BBEE Status;
    - within 4 (four) years of the Implementation Date, achieve a Level 1 B- BBEE

Status;

- within 24 (twenty-four) months of the Implementation Date, achieve 30% B-BBEE Ownership (“the B-BBEE Ownership Transaction”).
- The B-BBEE Ownership Transaction shall also be notified to the Commission, in the prescribed manner or form, if it is a merger, irrespective of whether the lower threshold is met.

(iii) Procurement Condition

35. IHS SA and MTN have committed to procuring a substantial proportion of the goods and services required for (i) the construction of its tower sites and (2) the management, maintenance, and security of tower sites from SMME and HDP Tower Vendors in South Africa (either directly or indirectly), subject to IHS SA, MTN and the relevant Tower Vendor agreeing commercial terms, including terms related to quality and service standards as well as competitive prices. The procurement conditions shall endure for a period of 10 years from the implementation date. For each contract awarded to SMME and HDP tower vendors in terms of the procurement condition, MTN SA and IHS shall provide preferential payment terms to support the working capital requirements of the SMME and HDP tower vendors.

(iv) New Tower Sites Rollout Condition

36. The Commission notes that there is a structural link between MTN and IHS SA. This raised a concern that IHS may be the preferred partner for new site rollouts. To limit the exclusionary effect associated with such a strategy, the Commission has imposed a condition limiting preferential allocation of MTN's new site rollouts in terms of the number of sites for which IHS may be given first preference in a specified period post-merger.

(v) Supplier Development Condition

37. MTN SA shall spend R60 000 000 (sixty million rand) per annum for 10 years from the Implementation Date to support SME and HDP owned vendors in the telecommunications sector. The annual spend shall escalate by CPI in each year for 10 years.

(vi) Site Access Condition

38. In relation to the sites that are to be acquired and transferred to the Acquiring Firm as part of the Merger, the Acquiring Firm will continue to make electronic communications facilities available to all existing users on the same terms and conditions as are currently applicable in terms of the agreements between MTN SA and those users.
39. On the expiry of those agreements, in relation to both the tower infrastructure sites being acquired and any new sites constructed by the Acquiring Firm, the Acquiring Firm will, on request, provide services (including, but not limited to, leasing space on towers) to any party licensed in terms of the Electronic Communications Act (including existing users) on fair, reasonable and non-discriminatory terms, provided that it is technically, commercially and legally feasible to do so and subject to performance by the third parties of their respective obligations under the applicable commercial agreements. The site access conditions set out above will endure for as long as the Acquiring Firm is a site owner in South Africa.

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 3 December 2021, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger in terms of which Firstmile Properties JHB CBD Mines Proprietary Limited ("Firstmile") and Firstmile Properties Georgian Crescent Proprietary Limited ("Firstmile Georgian") (collectively, the "Acquiring Firms") propose to acquire a portfolio of residential properties from AFCHO Holdings Proprietary Limited ("AFHCO").

PartiesAcquiring Group*

2. The primary acquiring firms are Firstmile and Firstmile Georgian which are both private companies incorporated in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

3. The primary acquiring firms are wholly owned subsidiaries of Firstmile Properties Proprietary Limited ("Firstmile Properties"). Firstmile Properties is in turn a wholly owned subsidiary of Netgame Investments Proprietary Limited ("Netgame"). Netgame is in turn a wholly owned subsidiary of Lonsa Group Limited ("Lonsa"), a company incorporated in Mauritius. Lonsa is 100% held by [CONFIDENTIAL].
4. For the purposes of this transaction, all firms directly and indirectly controlled by [CONFIDENTIAL] are henceforth referred to as the "Acquiring Group".
5. The Acquiring Group does not have any shareholders who are historically disadvantaged person/s ("HDPs") as defined in section 3(2) of the Competition Act, 89 of 1998 (as amended) (the "Act").

Target Firms

6. The primary target firms are comprised of 6 (six) residential properties, 5 (five) retail properties situated in Johannesburg CBD and the companies holding these properties (collectively, the "Target Firms")
7. The Target Firms are ultimately 100% controlled by AFHCO. AFCHO is in turn 100% controlled by SA Corporate Real Estate Limited ("SACREL"). SACREL is a public company listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and is not controlled by any firm.
8. SACREL is held as to 14.91% by HDPs.

Description

9. The Acquiring Group will acquire the Target Firms in their entirety.

Activities

Acquiring Group

10. Relevant to the proposed transaction is the Acquiring Group's rentable residential property activities in Gauteng. The Acquiring Group's residential property consists of 3 (three) residential properties situated in Bryanston, Randburg and Lenasia. In addition, the Acquiring Group is currently in the process of developing 2 (two) residential properties in the Johannesburg Central Business District ("CBD").

Target Firms

11. The Target Firms' activities are limited to the letting of residential and retail property in Johannesburg CBD.
12. The Target Firms' residential property portfolio comprises of 2 087 residential units and 62 retail units.

Competition assessment

13. Without taking a definitive view, given the lack of competition concerns, the Commission assessed a horizontal overlap in the provision of rentable residential property in the Johannesburg CBD.
14. The Commission found that the overlaps arising from the merger are unlikely to result in a substantial prevention or lessening of competition in any relevant market

Public interest

Employment

15. The merging parties submitted an unequivocal undertaking that the proposed transaction will not have a negative effect on employment.

The promotion of a greater spread of ownership by historically disadvantaged persons and workers section 12A(3)(e)

16. As mentioned above, the Acquiring Group has not HDP shareholder participation, whilst the Target Firms are indirectly held as to 14.9% by HDPs. The Commission concluded that the merger would result in a dilution of HDP ownership over the Target Firms.
  17. To address this concern, the merging parties and the Commission have agreed that the merger be approved subject to conditions contained in Annexure A hereto.
  18. The Commission found that the merger does not raise any further public interest concerns.

Conclusion

19. The Commission approves the proposed transaction subject to the conditions contained in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*MAGISTER INVESTMENTS LIMITED*AND*TONGAAT HULETT LIMITED*CASE NUMBER: 2021DEC0013

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions set out below:

1. On 08 December 2021, the Commission received a notice of an intermediate merger in terms of which Magister Investments Limited (Magister) intends to subscribe for ordinary shares in Tongaat Hulett Limited (THL) under a partially underwritten rights offer, pursuant to which it will own up to 60% of the issued shares in THL.
2. THL will make renounceable rights offer to holders of THL ordinary shares for an anticipated minimum amount of R 3 billion (the Rights Offer). Magister will partially underwrite the Rights Offer, i.e., subscribe for the THL ordinary shares not subscribed for by THL shareholders or their transferees or renounees, up to an amount of R 2 billion.

The merging parties and their activities

3. The primary acquiring firm is Magister, a private limited company incorporated in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Mauritius. Magister is controlled by the Casa Trust through its 58.67% shareholding in Magister. The Casa Trust is a Mauritian registered trust operating for the benefit of the Hamish Rudland family. Magister does not currently have any ownership by Historically Disadvantaged Persons (HDPs).
4. The primary acquiring firm holds interests in various sectors, including agriculture, transport and logistics, civil construction, and real estate. Its investments span across various jurisdictions including Guernsey, Mauritius, South Africa, and Zimbabwe. In South Africa, Magister's only controlling interest is its indirect 50% shareholding interest in [Confidential], a procurement service provider supplying into Mozambique and Zimbabwe. Magister also holds a minority shareholding of 0.15% in THL. Magister and any other firms directly or indirectly controlling and controlled by it, are collectively referred to as the ("Magister Group").

5. The primary target firm is THL, a public company incorporated in South Africa. THL is listed On the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE). The shares in THL are widely held and as such THL is not controlled by any firm or group of firms. THL is a level two Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment ("B-BBEE") contributor. As indicated above, Magister holds a minority shareholding of 0.15% in THL.
6. In 2007, THL had implemented a vendor-funded Employee Share Ownership Programme (ESOP) for the benefit of approximately 3 600 South African senior black management and employees of THL, placing a collective shareholding of 7% in the hands of employees. At the time that the employees' shares vested, this ESOP was worth approximately R 212 million (the equivalent of approximately R460 million today) in shareholder equity. THL does not currently have an ESOP.
7. THL is primarily an agriculture and agri-processing business with a focus on the sugar production and animal feeds sectors. THL is one of the major players in the sugar production industry in South Africa. THL also has a property portfolio under its Tongaat Property division.

Competition analysis

8. The Commission considered the merging parties' activities and found that there is no horizontal overlap in their activities in South Africa. THL is active in the sugar production and the animal feed sectors, whereas Magister is an investment firm operating in various sectors including agriculture, transport and logistics, and civil construction. Although Magister holds interest in two entities in the Southern Africa region that are active in the animal feed sector, it does not control nor hold minority shareholding in any other entity in South Africa that is active in the sugar production or animal feed sectors. The other South African companies in which Hamish Rudland holds interests and directorships are not active in sugar production or animal feed. Therefore, the proposed transaction will not result in any market share accretion or any change in the competitive landscape in any relevant market.

9. The Commission notes that THL is one of the largest millers and refiners of sugar in southern Africa with operations in South Africa, Zimbabwe, Botswana and Mozambique. The merging parties estimate that THL has a market share of 38% in the market for the production and supply of sugar to retail or direct customers in South Africa, making it the largest firm in this market, followed by RCL Foods with an estimated market share of 35%, and Illovo with 15%. The parties also estimate that THL has a market share of 22% in the market for the production and supply of sugar to industrial customers in South Africa while Illovo has an estimated market share of 42%, and RCL Foods has a share of 31%.
10. Given these market shares, it is clear that THL holds an important market position in the country, and in the KwaZulu-Natal (KZN) region where it is based.
11. Due to the lack of overlap between the activities of the merger parties, the Commission found that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any relevant market. Prior to setting out the public interest analysis, we provide a brief overview of THL and its operations which contextualises THL's significant impact in the sugar sector and in the region in which it is located.

Overview of THL and its operations

12. As indicated above, THL is one of the major players in the sugar production industry in South Africa. The company had its origins in the North Coast of KZN, specifically the town of Tongaat. The company was formed as a result of a merger between the Tongaat Sugar Company founded by Edward Saunders and Hulett's Sugar founded in 1892 by Liege Hulett.
13. Currently, THL employs some 22 927 people (during the peak sugar milling season) in operations across South Africa, Botswana, Mozambique and Zimbabwe. THL has significant sugarcane processing facilities, a unique land conversion platform, a growing animal feeds position, and opportunities to further grow ethanol production and electricity generation.
14. THL operates four sugar mills in South Africa, located on the KZN north coast and in the Zululand region. The fourth mill is currently mothballed. Together, these three mills produce more than 1 million tons of sugar per year derived from sugar cane grown by large-scale commercial, and small-scale private, farmers in rural KZN. THL's central refinery in Durban produces 600 000 tons of refined sugar per year, with the primary product being the Hulett's® sugar brand.

15. THL's animal feeds operation, through its subsidiary Voermol Feeds (Pty) Ltd (Voermol), is located at the Maidstone Mill in Tongaat, KZN. Voermol manufactures and markets a range of energy and supplementary feeds to the livestock farming community through its Voermol® brand, using bagasse and molasses.
16. THL also has a significant portfolio of immovable properties near Durban and Ballito in KZN that has the potential to be converted from sugarcane farms into urban land as urban development expands and demand for residential and commercial properties rises. THL's property portfolio is a core part of its business, and THL describes itself as one of South Africa's leading private land developers. THL has been involved in a number of large property development projects including developments in Bridge City, La Lucia, the Sibaya coastal precinct, Umhlanga Ridgeside and the Zimbali coastal resort.
17. THL also plays a crucial role in socio-economic development (SED), primarily in KZN. Its South African sugar operation sources approximately 43% of its feedstock from a total of 15,704 black farmers and cooperative members. THL has a transformational partnership, Uzinzo Sugar Farming (Uzinzo), which is the largest black sugarcane grower in the South African sugar industry. According to THL, this partnership has enabled Uzinzo's shareholders to lease three prime agricultural estates at below market-related rental. The leased area is approximately 3,900 (three thousand nine hundred) hectares with an estimated annual production of 160,000 (one hundred and sixty thousand) tons of sugarcane, making Uzinzo one of the Target Firm's top five largest supplying growers.
18. Three HDP shareholders collectively hold a 65% (sixty five percent) shareholding in Uzinzo. Employees hold a 15% (fifteen percent) shareholding through an employee trust created for this purpose. THL holds a 20% shareholding and plays a facilitative and mentorship role to the shareholders in respect of the various intricacies of the sugar farming business. In addition, THL submits that it contributes towards the development and upskilling of South African community members through its SED programmes and initiatives. For the financial year ended March 2021 THL invested over R14.6 million in various SED programmes and initiatives in South Africa.
19. Based on the above, it is common cause that THL plays a significant role in the KZN region, South Africa and the SADC region more generally.

Nature of the proposed transaction

20. As indicated above, Magister has committed R 2 billion to partially underwrite the Rights Offer, subject to the total shareholding of Magister and related entities in THL not exceeding 60%. To this end, Magister has provided THL with a bank guarantee in an amount of USD 132.7 million in relation to its obligation to subscribe (as underwriter) for shares in THL in terms of the Magister Transaction. In order to implement this, THL will increase its authorised shares from 150 000 000 (one hundred and fifty million) shares to 5 000 000 000 (five billion) shares, by the creation of a further 4 850 000 000 (four billion eight hundred and fifty million) new authorised shares. Consequently, no proceeds would be paid to any existing shareholder. Instead, existing shareholders would have a right to participate in the Rights Offer by acquiring new authorised shares. The proceeds of the new authorised shares and the R2 billion underwritten by Magister will be paid immediately to THL's South African lenders (by 14 April 2022) to reduce THL's current debt levels.

Rationale for the proposed transaction

21. [Confidential].
22. THL submits that its comprehensive turnaround strategy commenced two and half years ago and is centred around improving governance and control, reducing debt and repositioning the business as a sustainable entity. Further, that the success of this strategy has created new opportunities for the future. THL's capital raise is based on the need to reduce its current levels of debt. THL's debt reduction imperative entails the raising of equity and other capital to reduce its current unsustainable debt levels. THL puts forward that the proposed transaction will facilitate this.
23. In an effort to understand Magister's rationale for the proposed transaction, the Commission requested Magister to outline how it intends to turn the THL business around. Magister submitted that the proposed transaction amounts to an investment opportunity for Magister and that they have no intention to be involved in the day-today operations of THL. Further, Magister, believes in the turnaround strategy being implemented by the current management team. They also submitted that in the event that Magister acquires a maximum of 60% shareholding in THL, they will only be entitled to appoint up to 3 (three) directors to the board of THL.
24. The Commission is concerned about the fact that Magister is injecting a significant amount of capital but seems to have no plans whatsoever to turn THL around post-merger. This is addressed in the public interest assessment below.

Effect on employment

25. The Commission, the Food and Allied Workers Union (FAWU) and the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (DTIC) raised concerns regarding the effect of the proposed transaction on employment, including on direct, indirect and seasonal employees. In order to remedy this concern, the merging parties agreed not to retrench any employees as a result of the merger.
26. Given the significant role that THL plays in the KZN region, the DTIC recommended that the merging parties should for a period of 5 years maintain at least the same number of employees in the aggregate as employed at the merger closing date. The merging parties did not agree to this remedy. Instead, they submit that THL is in an extremely difficult financial position and any unnecessary or inappropriate conditions which negatively impact its commercial position may threaten its very existence on a forward-looking basis. The Commission is concerned that the merging parties' refusal to ensure that at least the same number of jobs are maintained for a 5-year period post-merger, is likely to result in negative consequences for employment.
27. Following further engagement with the merging parties, they then agreed to maintaining the pre-merger headcount by at least of a period of 1 (one) year. In addition, the Commission considered it appropriate to impose an additional condition that requires the merging parties to inform the Commission of its intention to embark on retrenchments, including those retrenchments that the merging parties may deem operationally related, for a period of 3 (three) years post implementation.

Promotion of a greater spread of ownership

28. The merging parties submit that there is uncertainty as to whether the proposed transaction will result in a reduction in the percentage shareholding levels of individual shareholders. The parties submit that while there may be some reduction in the overall HDP ownership levels. as a result of the Rights Offer and Magister's investment in THL, the extent of this is currently unknown and will depend on the extent to which existing shareholders participate in the Rights

Offer.

29. The DTIC submitted that the proposed transaction, if implemented, may reduce the HDP percentage shareholding in the primary target firm as many HDP owners of the THL equity may take up the offer to sell their shareholding to Magister. The potential dilution of HDP shareholding in THL arising from the proposed transaction would contravene section 12(A)3(e) of the Competition Act 89 of 1998 (the competition Act’), and as such the DTIC requested the merging parties to set up a vendor funded ESOP, in which all full-time workers of THL will benefit. FAWU also submitted that the Commission should impose a condition on the merging parties to set up an ESOP Scheme of 10% equity ownership of the value in the merged entity in consultation with labour and at the cost of the merged entity.
30. In order to remedy the above concern, the merging parties agreed to establish an ESOP that will hold an effective 5% in THL within a period of 3 years post-merger.
31. Following further engagements with the merger parties on BEE, the merger parties proposed remedies to increase the post-merger BEE level under specified conditions. The Commission considered the merger parties’ submissions and decided to impose a condition that would ensure that the merging parties increase THL’s BEE shareholding to its pre-merger levels.

Effect on a particular industrial sector or region

32. The merging parties submit that THL plays a crucial role in socio-economic development, Primarily in KwaZulu-Natal. THL’s South African sugar operation sources 43% of its feedstock from a total of 15704 black farmers and cooperative members. Further, the THL Group’s transformational partnership, Uzinzo Sugar Farming ("Uzinzo") is the largest black grower in the South African sugar industry. The parties submit that the proposed transaction will boost and stabilise THL’s financial position and thus enable THL to continue supporting black farmers and cooperative members and sustain its partnership with Uzinzo and the KZN Department of Economic Development, through Operation Sakhinzuzo.
33. Considering the role of THL in the KZN region, the Commission also requested the merging parties to ensure that the proposed transaction does not impact on HDP suppliers, in particular sugarcane farmers, who are largely dependent on THL for their livelihoods. Both FAWU and the DTIC also raised similar concerns. In particular, FAWU submitted that the merged entity should increase its procurement spend on previously disadvantaged providers to be no less than 35% of the overall procurement budget.

34. In order to remedy this concern, the merging parties have agreed to continue sourcing at least 40% of its feedstock from black farmers and cooperative members for a period of at least five years from the implementation of the merger. Further, the merging parties have committed to continue supporting black farmers and cooperative members and sustain its partnership with Uzinzo and the KwaZulu-Natal Department of Economic Development, through Operation Sakhinzuzo.
35. The DTIC submitted that the merged entity should consider increasing its procurement of feedstock from 40% to 50% over a 5-year period. The merging parties submit that they are unable to commit to this undertaking as there is insufficient supply to meet this. In other words, in order for THL to increase its procurement from small and black farmers annually, there needs to be a commensurate increase in the number of small and black farmers and the volumes that they are able to supply within THL's surrounding area. Further, they submit that to the extent that additional volumes are available from SMME/black farmers on commercially reasonable terms, THL already has an incentive to procure such volumes under the B-BBEE Codes.
36. Considering the above, the Commission agreed to impose a condition that would ensure that the merged entity continues to source at least 40% of its feedstock from HDPs.

Impact of the proposed transaction on the Sugar Master Plan

37. The Commission was also concerned about the likely implications of the proposed transaction on the Sugar Master Plan, in particular THL's participation in the realisation of the objectives of Sugar Master Plan. To this end, the merging parties agreed to a condition that would ensure that THL participates in the implementation of the Sugar Master Plan, including its objectives.

THL's Property Portfolio

38. During the investigation, it emerged that THL will dispose of some of its land holdings. As the Commission is unaware of Magister's plans with regard to the disposal of THL land post-merger, the Commission considered it necessary to impose a condition that requires THL to ensure that a proportion of all the land it sells must be sold to HDPs and HDP-controlled firms, subject to inter alia reasonable commercial terms. Although the merging parties had tendered a disposal of 15% of THL land to HDPs, the Commission requested the merging parties to dispose of at least 20% of THL land holdings post-merger. The merging parties subsequently agreed to this.

Capital expenditure commitments

39. The Commission notes that much of the benefit of the proposed transaction rests on Magister's capital injection and the ability of the current THL Board to implement its current (pre-merger) plans to turn the business around. Given Magister's deference to the plans of the current board and executive management team and the heavy reliance of the merger parties on these plans to deliver the public interest commitments, the Commission requested that the parties commit to making their pre-merger capital expenditure a condition to the approval of the merger.
40. THL confirmed that its total capital expenditure in South Africa over a 4-year period amounts to [Confidential]. The merging parties advised the Commission that they are not prepared to agree to such a condition. In particular, they submit that given THL's current uncertain financial position, and from a commercial perspective more generally, it is not appropriate to require THL to commit to certain levels of capex spend for any period given the uncertainties of the future. For example, if there is an unforeseen event such as a serious drought, natural disaster, pandemic, social unrest, etc. which negatively impacts THL's business or cash flow, THL could be in a position where it must suspend or reallocate certain capex projects to maintain its financial stability or even its solvency. If such a condition is imposed and THL faces such a scenario, it would mean that the merger parties would either be placed in contravention of a merger condition and/or need to approach the Commission to agree to vary THL's capex budget.
41. However, following further engagements, the merging parties informed the Commission that THL is in the process of concluding a new refinancing agreement with its South African Lenders and will implement its capital expenditure plan in accordance with that agreement, as and when funds are available, for a period of 5 (five) years following the Implementation Date. To this end, the merging parties offered a remedy to the effect that THL shall submit a copy of the new refinancing agreement to the Commission upon its conclusion.
42. Overall, the Commission is satisfied that the remedies imposed in the instant transaction are likely to address all the concerns identified above.

Conclusion

43. For the above reasons, the Commission approves the proposed transaction subject to the conditions set out in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*PUCCHINI BIDCO B.V*AND*EKATERRA B.V*CASE NUMBER: 2021DEC0034

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 17 December 2021, the Competition Commission ("Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger whereby CVC Capital Partners SICAV-FIS S.A. ("CVC") intends to acquire sole control over Ekaterra B.V. ("Ekaterra").
2. The primary acquiring firm is Puccini Bidco B.V ("Puccini Bidco") a newly incorporated special purpose vehicle incorporated in the Netherlands. Puccini Bidco is indirectly and ultimately controlled and led by CVC. The "CVC Network" consists of CVC and its subsidiaries, and CVC Capital Partners Advisory Group Holding Foundation and its subsidiaries, which are privately-owned entities whose activities include providing investment advice to, and/or managing investments on behalf of certain investment funds and platforms (CVC Funds).
3. CVC Funds hold interests in a number of companies. The CVC Network is a global private equity and investment advisory business investing in businesses across various industries.
4. Puccini Bidco is a newly incorporated SPV with no activities in South Africa.
5. The primary target firm is Ekaterra, a company incorporated in Netherlands. The Target Firm is solely controlled by Unilever International Holdings B.V. (Unilever). The Target Firm has the following South African subsidiaries (the South African Subsidiaries):

- 5.1. Tea Manufacturing South Africa Proprietary Limited; and
  - 5.2. Tea MSO South Africa Proprietary Limited, a private company.
6. The target firm produces and distributes tea globally through a number of different companies. The South African Subsidiaries carry out Ekaterra's tea business in South Africa, operating the Joko and Glen tea brands. The Target Firm's South African production facility, which is located in Pietermaritzburg, supplies all of the Target Firm's tea sold in South Africa (as well as other African countries). The Target Firm's sales in South Africa account for roughly [Confidential] of its global turnover.

Areas of overlap

7. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that they do not overlap as the CVC Network companies are not active in the production and distribution of tea. There are no products or services that can be considered interchangeable or substitutable from a competition perspective. The Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any market.

Public interest

8. In terms of employment, the Minister of the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition ("The Minister") requested the merging parties to maintain aggregate levels of employment at the target firm for a period of two years, post-merger implementation. In response, the target firm indicated that it has strong ambitions to grow its South African business, however, given the uncertainty arising as a result of the impact of COVID-19 and other external factors, the flexible operation of the Target Firm's Pietermaritzburg production facility is important. As such, imposing a condition on aggregate employment may have the undesired consequence of adversely impacting the sustainability and competitiveness of a business that currently employs [Confidential] full-time employees in South Africa, and which exports products to other countries, thereby competing in international markets.
9. Nevertheless, the merging parties tendered a moratorium on merger-specific retrenchments for a period of 2 years. The merging parties are of the view that the moratorium tendered by Puccini Bidco will address any potential concerns that may be raised on employment as a result of the proposed merger.

10. The Minister also requested that the proposed transaction should promote the localisation of tea production in South Africa. Amongst other things, with regard to products that are imported, the Minister requested the Commission to explore the potential of these products being sourced locally.
11. The merging parties submitted that Ekaterra primarily sources loose-leaf tea internally from its own tea estates, which are located in Kenya, Tanzania and Rwanda. The Target Firm does not have its own tea estates in South Africa. In addition, the merging parties submitted that there is a limited production of black tea in South Africa. The target firm sources locally where volumes of the right grade and price are available, and this resulted in the Target Firm purchasing roughly [Confidential] of the tea offered to it by South African tea estates in 2021. However, the volumes of black tea which the Target Firm was able to source in South Africa still only represents roughly [Confidential] of the Target Firm's black tea requirements at the Pietermaritzburg facility. The merging parties state that while the Target Firm made efforts to source additional volumes of black tea from suppliers in South Africa in 2021, this was not achieved due to factors outside its control.
12. With regard to Rooibos tea, the parties state that Rooibos is grown exclusively in South Africa, therefore the Rooibos product will continue to be sourced locally. The Commission shared these responses with the DTIC, to which it was stated that they had no further concerns.
13. The proposed transaction does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

14. The Commission approves the proposed transaction with conditions captured in Annexure A.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*FLS GERMANY HOLDING GMBH*AND*THYSSENKRUPP MINING TECHNOLOGIES GMBH*CASE NUMBER: 2021DEC0048

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 21 December 2021, the Competition Commission ("the Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger whereby FLS Germany Holding GmbH ("FLS") intends to acquire the entire share capital of Thyssenkrupp Mining Technologies GmbH ("tk Mining"). Upon implementation of the proposed transaction, FLS will exercise sole control over tk Mining, as envisaged by section 12(2)(a) of the Competition Act 89 of 1998, as amended.

2. The primary acquiring firm is FLS, a firm incorporated under the laws of Germany. FLS operates as a German holding company and is an indirect subsidiary of the Danish publicly listed corporation FLSmidth & Co. A/S (FLS&Co). FLS&Co is listed on the NASDAQ OMX Nordic Copenhagen in the C20 index, and approximately 80% of its shares are publicly traded. FLS&Co is not controlled by any one firm. FLS forms part of the FLS group of companies ("the FLS Group"), which also include the following South African firms:

FLSmidth South Africa (Pty) Ltd (74.9%); FLSmidth Roymec (Pty) Ltd (in deregistration) (100%); Euroslot KDSS (South Africa) (Pty) Ltd (deregistered) (100%); and FLSmidth (Pty) Ltd (100%).

3. Globally, the FLS Group is a supplier of complete plant, equipment, and single machine units, as well as spare parts and engineering and service solutions, to the global cement and mining industries. The FLS Group also supplies products, solutions, and services to industries adjacent to its core industries, including the aggregates, water treatment, waste to energy, pulp and paper, power utilities, steel, food, pharmaceuticals and chemicals industries.
  4. Relevant to the proposed transaction, in South Africa, the FLS Group conducts business activities relating to plant technology (also referred to as "capital equipment") and industrial solutions in the mining sector. In addition to mining equipment and systems (New Build services), the FLS Group also offers Aftermarket services (Aftermarket), including wear parts, spare parts, global service centres, on-site services (field services and construction), revamps, asset management (operation and maintenance), and consulting and training services.
  5. The primary target firm is tk Mining, a firm incorporated under the laws of Germany. tk Mining is directly controlled by ThyssenKrupp Industrial Solutions AG ("tk IS"), a firm incorporated under the laws of Germany. tk Mining and tk IS form part of a wider group of companies ultimately controlled by the German publicly listed corporation ThyssenKrupp AG ("the ThyssenKrupp Group"). ThyssenKrupp AG is listed on the Frankfurt (Prime Standard) and Düsseldorf Stock Exchanges and approximately 79% of its shares are publicly traded; as such, ThyssenKrupp AG is not controlled by any one firm. The Thyssenkrupp Group indirectly controls the following Thyssenkrupp Industrial Solutions (Africa) (Pty) Ltd ("tk IS Africa") (100%) and Thyssenkrupp Industrial Solutions South Africa (Pty) Ltd ("tk IS SA") (70%) both of which are active in South Africa.
  6. Globally, the Thyssenkrupp Group provides plant technology solutions to industrial customers. This includes designing and building individual machines and complete installations, as well as modernising and upgrading existing systems. The plant technology business consists of three business units, namely chemical and process technologies, mining technologies, and cement technologies.

7. Relevant to the proposed transaction, in South Africa, the Thyssenkrupp Group's solutions encompass the entire range of supply, refurbishment, and services for mining equipment and systems (New Build) projects. In addition to mining equipment and systems, Thyssenkrupp's South African operations also offer Aftermarket services, including wear parts, spare parts, global service centres, on-site services (field services and construction), revamps, asset management (operation and maintenance), and consulting and training services. Furthermore, the Thyssenkrupp Group focuses on providing business activities relating to plant technology (crushing and sizing, grinding and milling and screens and feeders) and industrial solutions (bulk material logistics) to the mining sector, including certain Aftermarket and consulting services.

Competition assessment

8. The Commission considered the business activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction results in a horizontal overlap in the broad market for the supply of mining equipment and aftermarket services and narrowly in relation to certain overlapping steps in the supply chain, being: (i) bulk material logistics (storage and (un)loading); (ii) crushing and sizing; (iii) grinding and milling; and (iv) screens and feeders. Based on evidence collected by the Commission, there appears to be segmentation between the New Build market and the aftermarket segment.

Bulk Material Logistics

9. In the market for bulk material logistics services to New Build customers, the merging parties will have a low estimated post-merger market share. In the market for the supply of bulk material logistics services to Aftermarket customers, the merging parties will have a high estimated post-merger market share.

10. The Commission notes that although the merging parties will have a high market share in the aftermarket segment, the respective market has a number of players such as, Takraf Tenova, MO Group and Metso, amongst others, that can compete with the merged entity. This was also confirmed by a customer who submitted that the market consists of a large number of suppliers that compete against each other, hence they go on open-tender when seeking a supplier for a certain product.

Crushing and Sizing

11. The merging parties will have a moderate estimated post-merger market share in the market for the supply of Crushing and Sizing services to New Build customers. Moreover, the merging parties will have a relatively high estimated post-merger market share in the market for the supply of Crushing and Sizing services to Aftermarket customers.
12. The Commission notes that although the merging parties will have relatively high market shares in the aftermarket segment, the respective market has a number of players such as MO Group, Sandvik, IMS Engineering / Earth Technika, amongst others, that can compete with the merged entity post-merger. A number of these players are also equivalent in size or larger than the merging parties. The Commission also notes that the significant market share in the segment is largely attributable to the target firm pre-merger. The proposed transaction will therefore not significantly change the structure of this market.

Grinding and Milling

13. With regard to the Grinding and Milling services, the merging parties will have a relatively low estimated post-merger market share to New Build customers. Furthermore, the merging parties will have a slightly higher estimated market share in the market for the supply of Grinding and Milling services to Aftermarket customers, however with a low market share accretion.

14. The Commission found that this market has a number of players such as MO Group, CITIC, Weir and Solo Resources Pty Ltd, amongst others, that can compete with the merged entity. This was also confirmed by a customer who submitted that in the event that the merging parties were to increase their prices by 5-10%, they would be able to switch to other OEM suppliers such as IMS Engineering, Metso, and Multotec, whom they are currently utilizing.

Screens and Feeders

15. Finally, in the market for the supply of Screens and Feeders, the merging parties will have a relatively low estimated post-merger market shares to both New Build and Aftermarket customers.

16. The Commission notes that the merging parties will have relatively low market shares in both the New Build and Aftermarket segments. The Commission also notes that the merged entity will continue to face competition from larger players such as, MO Group, VibraMech, Osborn Engineering and Schenck Process, amongst others, that compete with the merged entity. This was also confirmed by customers such as Eskom, De Beers and Exxaro. Furthermore, a competitor of the merging parties submitted that there are a number of players in the respective market that the merged entity will still face competition from such as Kwatani, Weir Minerals, Screen Doctor, Osborn and Vibpro.

17. Given that the merging parties' activities overlap in several interrelated markets, the Commission also considered whether the proposed merger could result in portfolio effects through anti-competitive tying and bundling. The Commission found that it is not likely that the merging parties could bundle their offering to customers as the products offered by the merging parties are generally procured through tenders/bidding. Customers confirmed that they procure products through tenders for discrete products and that scope does not exist for suppliers to simply offer multiple bundled products. The Commission therefore found that the proposed transaction is not likely to result in anti-competitive portfolio effects.

18. Further, the Commission found that there is no vertical overlap between the activities of the merging parties.

19. In light of the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially lessen or prevent competition in any market in South Africa.

Public Interest

Pre-merger retrenchments

20. The merging parties submit that the proposed transaction is global in nature and is not focused on the South African parts of the Thyssenkrupp Group. The Thyssenkrupp Group has been underperforming for several years prior to the merger filing. Due to the poor performance driven by lower order intake leading to poor earnings, the Thyssenkrupp Group retrenched 19 employees during the 2020/2021 financial year.

21. Furthermore, the Thyssenkrupp Group's poor financial performance was exacerbated by the unprecedented and ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, which directly resulted in a hold being put on New Build projects. These circumstances placed the Thyssenkrupp under severe financial pressure and accordingly, it was left with no choice but to downsize its Materials Handling and Chemical Process Technology departments, as well as certain of its overhead functions.

22. Moreover, the Thyssenkrupp Group considered alternative measures before retrenching the employees, which were still not sufficient.

Department of Trade, Industry and Competition's ("DTIC") concerns

23. On 04 January 2022, the Commission received a notice of intention to participate from the Minister of the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition ("DTIC"). The DTIC raised the following concerns in their submission:

---

- a. The pre-merger retrenched South African employees should be offered employment opportunities at the merged entity, when these become available, for a period of two years, post implementation. Furthermore, should the Commission find that the retrenchments are indeed merger specific, the DTIC then requests that all affected employees be reinstated; and
- b. Post-merger retrenchments affecting South African nationals should be limited to the greatest extent possible.

Merging Parties' response to the issues raised by the DTIC

24. The Commission shared the concerns of the DTIC with the merging parties. The merging parties responded to the issues raised by the DTIC as follows:

- a. The merging parties submit that the retrenchments were due to operational reasons as the Thyssenkrupp Group (both in South Africa and globally) had, for a number of years, been experiencing poor financial results and they were not related to the proposed transaction (and therefore lack merger-specificity).
- b. Furthermore, the merging parties had initially submitted that should any vacancies arise within 6 months following the retrenchments, the retrenched employees would be given first preference for re-employment. However, given the DTIC's request, the FLS Group is amenable to extending the period to two years.
- c. Regarding the second request of the DTIC, the merging parties submit that neither of the parties currently follow employment policies that give preference to employees on the basis of nationality. However, the merging parties hereby undertake to endeavour to limit retrenchments of employees in South Africa.

25. The Commission presented these responses to the DTIC which indicated that will not make further submissions in this merger.

26. The Commission considered the requests made by the DTIC and the response of the merging parties. The Commission found that there is evidence supporting the merging parties' contention that the Thyssenkrupp Group has been making losses for a number of years. The Commission did not uncover any evidence that the retrenchments were in any manner related to the proposed transaction and concluded that the pre-merger retrenchments were likely due to operational reasons and are not related to the proposed transaction.

Post-merger retrenchments

27. The merging parties have submitted that the Thyssenkrupp Group has been performing poorly for several of years. The FLS Group has identified post-merger turnaround strategies that could create value for FLS both globally and in South Africa. However, in order to effect the turnaround strategy and to ensure that the merged entity operates at peak efficiency, synergies will need to be realised across the merged entity.
28. The merging parties submit that with limited information at this stage, the FLS Group anticipates that the total workforce of the merged entity in South Africa will need to be reduced. In addition, the FLS Group anticipates that the majority of the reductions will need to take place in skilled roles in the merged firm where duplication exists. These roles include Management, Accounting, IT and Finance.
29. The employees of the FLS Group are represented by the National Union of Metalworkers of South Africa ("NUMSA"), Solidarity and United Association of South Africa ("UASA"). The Commission engaged with the respective trade unions and UASA confirmed to have received the non-confidential version of the merger and did not raise any objections to the proposed transaction.
30. Furthermore, a number of employees within the Thyssenkrupp Group are represented by Solidarity, while the remaining employees are represented by employee representatives. The Commission engaged with the respective trade unions and the employee representatives. The non-unionised employees of tk IS Africa and tk IS SA (South African subsidiaries of the Thyssenkrupp) raised a number of concerns/requests which include:

(i) twenty-four (24) month moratorium on retrenchments, (ii) assistance from the merging parties with finding new employment for the retrenched employees, (iii) transfer of service years, (iv) assurance on the employment conditions post-merger, (v) pension fund, long and short-term insurance benefits, (vi) the merging parties need to provide an undertaking regarding the continuation of existing business lines, (vii) the merging parties also need to clarify their intentions regarding local decision-making authority, and (viii) the merging parties need to provide an undertaking regarding the assurance of continuation of jobs created by the Chlookop Service Centre and training received from the Training Centre within the local community of Thembisa and surrounding areas.

31. Moreover, the Commission received the following concerns from Solidarity:

- a. The employees affected by the merger will not face any reduction in remuneration, nor a decline in the nature and value of benefits;
- b. The employees affected by the merger will not face any dismissal due to operational requirements or restructuring before, during or after the merger, for a period of at least 24 months;
- c. There will be no change in conditions of employment or company policies benefitting them at this stage;
- d. Any change effected in terms of the above, only be done if there is a clear monetary or benefit advantage for the affected employees and by their consent; and
- e. All collective agreements be honoured and obtained.

Merging Parties' views on post-merger retrenchments

32. The Commission shared the concerns of Solidarity with the merging parties. The merging parties responded to the issues raised by Solidarity as follows:

- a. Regarding employee benefits, the merging parties confirmed that the transferring employees will be employed on terms and conditions that are "on the whole not less favourable" to those on which the employees were employed by tk Mining.

- b. Regarding potential post-merger dismissals due to operational requirements for a period of at least 24 months, the merging parties submit that FLS is not in a position to agree to this request as tk mining is failing financially (both globally and in South Africa) and in order to implement its turnaround strategy for the business, there needs to be a downsizing of the workforce.
  - c. Regarding the request that all collective agreements be honoured, the merging parties submit that FLS confirms that all collective agreements will be honoured.

Commission views on post-merger retrenchments

- 33. The Commission notes from the merging parties' submission that they had initially identified some duplicated roles within the merged entity. Of the duplicated roles, the majority are skilled employees. Designations affected are in junior and senior management as well as professionally qualified roles, technically trained professionals and academically trained professionals. Furthermore, FLS has committed to limit the retrenchments to these identified roles.
  - 34. Moreover, the merging parties submit that if they are not able to implement their turnaround strategy and improve the financial position of the tk Mining business in South Africa, this will place the entire future of the merged entity in South Africa, and job security for all its employees, in jeopardy. As has already been noted, as a global deal, if the proposed transaction proceeds elsewhere but does not proceed in South Africa, the tk Mining business would find itself cut-off from its former group. This could make continued trading very difficult, particularly in relation to potential new build projects, which are more heavily reliant on the intellectual property of the parent company. Over time, it is likely that the business would find it increasingly difficult to service its remaining customers. In combination with the already poor financial performance of tk's mining business in South Africa, this could potentially result in an ever-increasing need to downsize and reduce the headcount of the tk Mining business.

35. Based on the above, the Commission considered the merging parties' approach to these proposed retrenchments in line with the Commission's public interest guidelines.

- a. The first step entails a consideration of the effect of the merger on employment. The merging parties have volunteered information on the likely impact of the merger on employment in that the merger results in a number of duplications which will necessitate the retrenchment of some employees.
- b. Secondly, the Commission considered whether the number of retrenchments are merger specific. On this, the evidence is inconclusive. The merging parties have submitted that the roles that will be retrenched are the result of duplications, which is the direct result of the merger. The merging parties have however also submitted that the retrenchments are necessary in order to achieve the target firm's turnaround strategy as the target firm has been making losses for a number of years. As noted above, the loss-making target firm has already had to implement a first round of retrenchments in the 2020/2021 financial year. However, the Commission is of the view that the retrenchments are merger specific.
- c. Thirdly, the Commission notes the merging parties identified duplications, and from these, the merging parties will retrench certain employees. The affected employees represent less than 10% of the target firm's staff complement. The Commission is of the view that the percentage of employees to be retrenched is not likely to be considered substantial. The Commission also notes the role to be retrenched are skilled employees.

36. Notwithstanding the above, the Commission is still of the view that it is necessary to ensure that the merger does not result in any further retrenchments. For this reason, the Commission is of the view that the merger should be approved subject to a condition which will ensure that the merging parties do not retrench more than the contemplated number of affected employees for a period of at least 2 years following the implementation of the proposed merger.

The promotion of a greater spread of ownership

37. The merging parties submit that the proposed transaction will result in a minor dilution in BEE shareholding of the Thyssenkrupp Group.
38. The Commission requested the merging parties to propose merger conditions which will promote a greater spread of HDP ownership, in particular to increase the levels of ownership by HDPs and workers in firms in the market, as required by section 12A(3)(e) of the Competition Act, as amended.
39. The merging parties have agreed to the conditions that within 12 (twelve) months from the implementation date, through interest free notional vendor financing or similar funding arrangement, the merged entity will allot an additional shareholding in the FLS Group to Phetogo Bontle Commercial (Pty) Ltd ("Phetogo") (a BEE shareholder within the FLS Group), equivalent in value to a certain amount of shareholding in the Thyssenkrupp Group.
40. Therefore, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is not likely to result in a substantial negative effect on the promotion of greater spread of ownership.
41. The proposed transaction does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

42. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction with conditions attached in "Annexure A".

- 2.3. Furthermore, the Merging Parties submit that FLS has identified post-merger turnaround strategies that could be sustainable going forward for tk Mining and create value for FLS both globally and in South Africa. - 2.4. The Commission also found that the Merger potentially results in a diminution of B-BBEE shareholding: specifically by Phetogo, a B-BBEE shareholder within FLS SA.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*CITRICO GLOBAL, SL*AND*SAN MIGUEL FRUITS SOUTH AFRICA PROPRIETARY LIMITED AND EC CITRUS INVESTMENTS PROPRIETARY LIMITED*CASE NUMBER: 2022JUN0050

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the abovementioned firms subject to conditions set out below:

1. On 23 June 2022, the Competition Commission (Commission) received notification of an intermediate merger comprised of two inter-conditional and indivisible transactions. In the first transaction, Citrico Global, SL (Citrico or the Ultimate Acquiring Firm) intends on acquiring the entire issued share capital in San Miguel Fruits South Africa (Pty) Ltd (San Miguel SA or the First Target Firm) ("the first transaction"). Immediately after (and on the same date as) the closing of the first transaction, San Miguel SA will increase its shareholding in EC Citrus Investment Proprietary Limited (EC Citrus or Second Target Firm) by acquiring the remainder of the stake in EC Citrus held by African Pioneer Beverages (Pty) Ltd (African Pioneer) ("the second transaction"). As a result of the second transaction, San Miguel SA will increase its ordinary shareholding in EC Citrus and wholly control EC Citrus.
2. Upon the implementation of this transaction, Citrico will thus wholly control San Miguel SA and, indirectly, EC Citrus.
3. The ultimate primary acquiring firm is Citrico, a company incorporated in Spain. Citrico is ultimately controlled by a global private equity partner, which is a company incorporated in Spain. Citrico does not control any firms in South Africa. Citrico does not have shareholding by historically disadvantaged persons (“HDPs”). Citrico is a vertically integrated fresh fruit player in Europe which farms citrus, melon, watermelon, and stone fruit in Spain and Brazil. Citrico does not have a presence in South Africa.

4. The primary target firm in the first transaction is San Miguel SA. San Miguel SA jointly controls EC Citrus. San Miguel SA has no shareholding by HDPs.
5. The second primary target firm is EC Citrus. Prior to the proposed transactions, EC Citrus is jointly controlled by San Miguel SA and African Pioneer Beverages.
6. African Pioneer Beverages is controlled by African Pioneer Group (Pty) Ltd (APG). APG is controlled by Dondolo Family Enterprises Proprietary Limited (Dondolo Family Enterprise). APG directly controls a number of firms in South Africa. APG holds shares in Sun Orange Farms (Pty) Ltd (Sun Orange Farms). African Pioneer is owned and controlled by HDPs.
7. EC Citrus controls Thudana Holdings (Pty) Ltd (Thudana), with some of the ordinary shares of Thudana held by Thudana Citrus BEE Trust, a workers’ trust. Thudana controls Thudana Citrus (Pty) Ltd (Thudana Citrus). Thudana Citrus controls the following entities: Thudana Fruit (Pty) Ltd (Thudana Fruit); New Africa (Pty) Ltd; Sun Orange Farm Investment (Pty) Ltd; Sontule Investment (Pty) Ltd (Sontule Investment); San Miguel Farming Services (Pty) Ltd; Ponders End Packers (Pty) Ltd (Ponders End) and Sylvania Farming (Pty) Ltd. All the firms controlled by Thudana are collectively referred to as the “Thudana Group”.
8. Sun Orange Investment, Sontule Investment and African Pioneer jointly control Sun Orange Farms. The remainder of the shares in Sun Orange Farms are held by SOF BEE Workers Trust.
9. San Miguel SA is primarily an exporter of citrus fruit into the European market. San Miguel SA is a vertically integrated firm which is broadly active in the production, packing, and marketing and sale of fresh citrus fruit in South Africa.
10. EC Citrus is a holding company with shareholding in Thudana Holdings, which in turn is the holding company for the remaining companies in the Thudana Group. The Thudana Group is an integrated citrus business. Through Ponders End, it operates as a packer of citrus fruit through its packhouses situated in the Eastern Cape. Thudana grows citrus fruit at Sun Orange Farms and Sylvania Farm. Its fruit portfolio includes oranges, lemons, and soft citrus. Though a majority of Thudana Group's fruit is sold to San Miguel SA for the export market, it also sells a small amount of non-exportable fruit in the local market through its subsidiary Thudana Fruit.

11. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that the transaction raises horizontal overlaps, some of which are pre-existing. In the first transaction, a horizontal overlap arises because Citrico grows and supplies citrus fruit in Europe and the First Target Firm, San Miguel SA, is a citrus fruit producer in South Africa and is also active in the global (export) market. The Commission notes that Citrico is not active in the production of citrus in South Africa prior to the merger.
12. The second horizontal overlap is a pre-existing overlap with no market share accretion arising from the present proposed transactions. This overlap arises because both San Miguel SA and EC Citrus are involved in growing citrus fruit in South Africa. However, the Commission notes that San Miguel already controls EC Citrus pre-merger.
13. From a vertical perspective, there are no vertical relationships between Citrico and San Miguel, nor between Citrico and any firms within the Thudana Group. The Commission notes that although there are vertical relationships between EC Citrus and San Miguel SA, these relationships all exist prior to the merger and are not assessed further.
14. For completeness, the Commission assessed the parties' market share in the national market for supply of all citrus fruit. The Commission found that San Miguel and EC Citrus (through the Thudana Group) account for less than 10% of all citrus exported from South African (noting that 90% of South African citrus is exported). In considering international dynamics, it is important to bear in mind that Citrico is based in the northern hemisphere while San Miguel and EC Citrus are based in the southern hemisphere. Accordingly, the firms have different growing seasons with negligible overlap. The output of the merger parties is thus largely complementary, allowing Citrico to supplement its "northern hemisphere production" with "southern hemisphere production" to have access to fruit all year round. This is also reflected in Citrico's rationale for the transaction.
15. The Commission engaged customers and competitors of the merger parties. None of these stakeholders have raised concerns with the proposed transaction.
16. Regarding employment, the merging parties submit that there will be no retrenchments because of the proposed transaction. The proposed transaction also does not give rise to any horizontal overlaps in South Africa. Therefore, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to result in any negative effects on employment.

17. The Commission found that the proposed transaction will result in a significant negative effect on HDP ownership in EC Citrus and, consequently, in the Thudana Group. Prior to the proposed transaction, African Pioneer, a firm owned by HDPs, has a stake in EC Citrus. Pursuant to the transaction, African Pioneer will exit EC Citrus, which will then be 100% owned by San Miguel (which, in turn, is owned by Citrico). After the proposed transaction, EC Citrus will have no ownership by HDPs.
18. Prior to the transaction, the HDP shareholding in the Thudana Group is 35.7% indirectly held by African Pioneer through their (pre-merger) shareholding in EC Citrus and the shareholding held by the Thudana Trust. After the proposed transaction, the HDP shareholding in the Thudana Group will reduce by 35.7% because of African Pioneer's exit from EC Citrus. The stake held by Thudana Trust is not affected by the proposed transaction. It retains the same shareholder protection and rights that existed prior to the merger.
19. The Commission notes that African Pioneer remains invested in Sun Orange Farms, where it holds a joint controlling shareholding pursuant to a transaction conditionally approved by the Commission in October 2021. This stake is unaffected by the proposed transaction.
20. The DTIC filed a Form CC5(2) raising concerns about the reduction in HDP ownership arising from the transaction. The DTIC requested that the parties remedy this through the implementation of a (further) worker ownership transaction and/or support to small and/or HDP-owned firms in their value chain.
21. The merger parties acknowledge that the proposed transaction results in a 'numerical dilution' of HDP shareholding in EC Citrus but submit that it is important to bear in mind that the transaction does not result in the complete removal of African Pioneer from the operational activities of the Thudana Group. Specifically, African Pioneer remains a controlling shareholder in Sun Orange Farms. Further, the workers' trust retains a substantial stake in the Thudana Group on the same (pre-merger) terms.
22. Further, African Pioneer's exit must be considered with reference to its original intent in acquiring its stake in EC Citrus. The parties submit that African Pioneer always considered Sun Orange Farms as a strategic and core asset and it was always their intention to acquire control of the operational entities in the Thudana Group and particularly of Sun Orange Farms. As a subsidiary point, the parties submit that African Pioneer's exit will allow it to realise its investment in EC Citrus sooner than anticipated and to attain a premium which can be used for alternative investments. At the same time, African Pioneer remains invested in Sun Orange Farms, which is a high-value entity in the Thudana Group that is expected to pay regular dividends from 2023.

23. The Commission reviewed African Pioneer's original investment case as well as its board documents to understand their original intent in investing in EC Citrus. The Commission found that African Pioneer's investment in EC Citrus appears to have been made to improve its chances of acquiring control over Sun Orange Farms, in line with the submissions of the merger parties. The Commission's investigation shows that African Pioneer's investment rationale and strategy vis a vis Sun Orange Farms is consistent over time and that the current transaction unencumbers a black-owned investment firm at a time when it has realised its original investment intent.
24. However, as noted in the merger between ECP Africa Fund IV LLC and ECP Africa Fund IV A LLC, ECP Africa Fund IV LLC and ECP Africa Fund IV A LLC and The Burger King (South Africa) RF (Pty) Ltd and Grand Foods Meat Plant (Pty) Ltd, a return on investment is a private gain to shareholders and not necessarily responsive to the public interest requirements in section 12A of the Act. The Commission therefore remains concerned about the reduction in shareholding by HDPs in EC Citrus as a result of the transaction.
25. In order to address the Commission's concerns on the reduction of shareholding by HDPs in EC Citrus the merging parties have agreed to remedies whereby they will increase their capital expenditure, procure locally manufactured products and services for the merged entity's operations and make available a development fund for community development projects.
26. The Commission notes that the DTIC has indicated that upon further engagement with the merger parties and after considering their submissions they will not make further submissions in relation to this merger.
27. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction subject to the conditions in Annexure A hereto.

COMPETITION COMMISSION*NOTIFICATION TO APPROVE WITH CONDITIONS THE TRANSACTION INVOLVING:*SEATRADE SHIPPING SERVICES (PTY) LTD*AND*DCP CAPE TOWN (PTY) LTD; DURBAN CONTAINER PARK (PTY) LTD; IDLELO LOGISTICS (PTY) LTD; PENDULA LOGISTICS (PTY) LTD; AND NASCISPAN (PTY) LTD*CASE NUMBER: 2021DEC0056

The Competition Commission hereby gives notice, in terms of Rule 38 (3)(c) of the 'Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission', that it has approved the transaction involving the above-mentioned firms subject to conditions as set out below:

1. On 23 December 2021, the Competition Commission ("the Commission") received notice of an intermediate merger whereby Seatrade Shipping Services (Pty) Ltd ("Seatrade") intends to acquire sole control over DCP Cape Town (Pty) Ltd ("DCP Cape Town"); Durban Container Park (Pty) Ltd ("Durban Container"); Idlelo Logistics (Pty) Ltd ("Idlelo Logistics"); Pendula Logistics (Pty) Ltd ("Pendula Logistics"); and Nascispan (Pty) Ltd ("Nascispan"), (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Target Firms). Upon implementation of the proposed transaction, Seatrade will exercise sole control over the Target Firms, as envisaged by section 12(2)(a) of the Competition Act 89 of 1998, as amended.

2. The primary acquiring firm is Seatrade, a private company incorporated in South Africa. Seatrade is a special purpose vehicle (SPV) formed for the purposes of this transaction.

Seatrade does not control any firms. Seatrade and all firms directly and indirectly controlling it will be collectively referred to as the "Acquiring Group".

3. Seatrade is an SPV that has been incorporated to facilitate the proposed transaction and does not have any business activities. The Acquiring Group consists of firms that operate in the following business activities: property ownership and rental, provision of integrated Supply Chain Services (these services include Air Freight, Sea Freight, Land Transport, Project Cargoes, Sea-Air Cargoes, Ship & Port Agency, Break-bulk cargoes and Warehousing and Distribution), Shipping services, Information Technology services, Container Sales services and provision of an integrated logistics solution (aimed at offering a door-to-door service).
  4. The primary target firms are DCP Cape Town; Durban Container; Idlelo Logistics; Pendula Logistics; and Nascispan, hereinafter collectively referred to as the Target Firms. The Target Firms are all private companies incorporated in South Africa. The Target Firms do not own any subsidiaries in South Africa.
  5. DCP Cape Town and Durban Container Park provide the following: container storage, sales, container shipping and related maintenance and logistics services in Cape Town and Durban; storage of empty and loaded shipping containers; provision of refrigerated shipping containers storage facilities; loading of shipping containers for transport; administration of shipping container dispatch facilities; repair of shipping containers and general maintenance; and container sales.
  6. Idlelo's sole activity is the collection of rent from DCP Cape Town and Durban Container Park and paying the rental to the lessors. Pendula is in the business of transporting shipping containers. Pendula is principally involved in the shuttle of containers from the Durban Port to the DCP Durban depot, with similar service occasionally provided to DCP Cape Town and a limited container delivery service to depots in Johannesburg. Nascispan is an SPV that owns a property that is leased from it by DCP Cape Town.

Competition assessment

7. The Commission considered the activities of the merging parties and found that the proposed transaction results in a horizontal overlap between the Target Firms and the Acquiring Group (through its indirect subsidiary Simba Africa Maritime (Pty) Ltd (“Simba”)) in the market for container sale services.
  8. Regarding the market for the provision of container sales services, the merging parties will have a national estimated market share that is relatively low. The Commission asked customers if there were other suppliers in the market for container sales services that they can switch to in the event that the merged entity increases prices. In addition, the Commission also asked a competitor of the merging parties if there are other players in the respective markets that they compete with besides the merging parties. The customers and the competitor confirmed that the merging parties are not big players in the respective markets and that the merged entity will continue to face competition from a number of players in the respective market.
  9. In addition to the horizontal overlap in container sales, the Target Firms may be contracted by firms such as the Acquiring Group on an ad-hoc basis in specific instances where: (i) an importer has not taken release of cargoes, in which case the Acquiring Group will move such containers to the Target Firm facilities; and (ii) the Acquiring Group needs to store empty containers returned by importers until they are picked by exporters. The Commission is of the view that this does not result in a vertical overlap as, none of the services provided by the Target Firms could be considered as inputs to the business activities of the Acquiring Group.
  10. In addition to the above, the Commission found that Diamond Shipping Services (Pty) Ltd (“DSS”), a South African subsidiary of the Acquiring Group, procured container shipping and logistics services from the Target Firms in the preceding financial year. The Commission further notes that the merging parties are not vertically integrated as they operate at the same level of the value chain (being suppliers of container shipping and logistics services). Nevertheless, the Commission considered this relationship between the merging parties for completeness. The Commission assessed whether the proposed transaction is likely to result in input foreclosure and customer foreclosure concerns.

11. In assessing input foreclosure concerns, the Commission notes that the Target Firm through DCP and DCP Cape Town is not a dominant supplier of container shipping and logistics services as it has a low estimated market share. The target firm's market share suggests that they are not likely to have the ability to engage in anticompetitive foreclosure.
  12. Furthermore, although the Target Firms supplied services to the Acquiring Group that constitute a small amount of its total sales, the majority of their services are supplied to their other customers in the respective market. The fact that a majority of the target firm's revenue is derived from third party customers suggests that the merging parties will not have the incentive to engage in any input foreclosure. In light of the above, the Commission is of the view that the merged entity is unlikely to have the ability to foreclose the merging parties' competitors from access to container shipping and logistics services.
  13. In assessing customer foreclosure concerns, the Commission notes that the Acquiring Group is not a dominant player in the market for the supply of container shipping and logistics services. They therefore account for a small proportion of the respective market. In addition, the Acquiring Group is a Ships Agency representing foreign principals. These foreign principals are the container owners and determine the choice of service provider.
  14. Moreover, the Commission engaged with two competitors of the merging parties who noted that there are a number of players in the market for the supply of container shipping and logistics services which include but are not limited to, Grindrod Intermodal, MSC, Reload Logistics, SATL Freight (Pty) Ltd ("SATL") and Bidweg Steinweg, amongst others. Therefore, the merging parties will not have the ability to engage in customer foreclosure, as there are a number of players that will pose as a competition constraint in the respective market.

15. The Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to result in input or customer foreclosure.

16. In light of the above, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially lessen or prevent competition in any market in South Africa.

Public Interest

Effect of the merger on employment

17. The merging parties submit that no job losses will arise in South Africa as a consequence of the transaction. The merging parties further submit that, post-merger, the Target Firms will remain separate subsidiaries in the Acquiring Group.

18. The Commission notes that the merging parties provided an unequivocal statement that the proposed transaction will not result in any retrenchments. The Commission further notes that the Target Firms will continue operating as separate entities to those of the Acquiring Group, therefore resulting in no overlaps. As such, the Commission is of the view that the proposed transaction is unlikely to result in any job losses.

The promotion of a greater spread of ownership

19. The merging parties submit that pre-merger the Acquiring Group (and its controlled subsidiaries) are all foreign-owned and therefore have no B-BBEE shareholding in any of their controlled entities operational in South Africa. However, according to the merging parties, these firms comply with the other B-BBEE requirements set out in the relevant legislation and have ratings ranging from Level 2 to Level 7. Furthermore, the Commission notes that there are no B-BBEE shareholders in any of the Target Firms currently.

20. Moreover, the merging parties submit that the proposed merger will have a positive impact on the public interest in that, post-merger, the Acquiring Group will continue to follow the same approach towards compliance with empowerment legislation which they will also adopt in relation to the Target Firms.

21. The Commission further engaged with the merging parties requesting that the proposed merger be approved subject to the following condition: within 24 (twenty-four) months of the implementation date, the merged entity shall establish an ESOP for an effective 5% (five percent) interest in the Target Firms through an employee trust for the benefit of the Target Firm's Employees. The Merging Parties have agreed to this condition.

22. The proposed transaction does not raise any other public interest concerns.

Conclusion

23. The Commission therefore approves the proposed transaction with conditions attached in "Annexure A".

2. RECORDAL

- 2.1. On 23 December 2021, the Competition Commission (“the Commission”) received notice of an intermediate merger whereby the Acquiring Firm intends to acquire sole control over the Target Firms. Following its investigation of the Merger, the Commission found that, the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially lessen or prevent competition in any market in South Africa.
- 2.2. Furthermore, the Commission notes that pre-merger the Acquiring Group (and its controlled subsidiaries) are all foreign-owned and therefore have no B-BBEE shareholding in any of their controlled entities operational in South Africa. Furthermore, the Commission notes that there are no B-BBEE shareholders in any of the Target firms currently.
- 2.3. Notwithstanding this, the Commission notes that the Acquiring Group and the Target Firms have taken steps to implement several measures to enhance B-BBEE in compliance with the B-BBEE Act, in respect of the other elements of the scorecard, applicable to the Acquiring Firms and Target Firms, respectively, including Socio-Economic Development, Management Control, Management Control, Employment Equity, Skills Development, Preferential Procurement and Enterprise Development measures.
- 2.4. ## Introduction

Procurement may be defined as the process which creates, manages and fulfils contracts. Procurement accordingly commences once a need for goods, services or works has been identified and it ends when the goods are received, or the services or construction works are completed. Public procurement can have a significant impact on social and economic development, if it is used to leverage social and development objectives.

The South African government requires that its considerable expenditure on the delivery, maintenance and operation of infrastructure (fixed assets that are constructed or result from construction operations) contribute to an increase in the number of people who have part or full occupational qualifications registered on the NQF or professional designations awarded by professional bodies or statutory councils. This standard has been prepared to leverage contributions towards the increase of the pool of qualified skilled people, and where required professionally registered, through training on professional services, design and build or engineering and construction works contracts associated with such expenditure. This Standard for developing skills through infrastructure contracts, establishes the minimum contract skills development goals to be achieved in the performance of such contracts relating to the provision of workplace opportunities, linked to or leading to:

- a) a part- or full occupational qualification registered on the National Qualification Framework.
- b) a trade qualification leading to a listed trade (GG No. 35625, 31 August 2012);
- c) a national diploma registered on the National Qualification Framework; and
- d) registration in a professional category by one of the professional bodies listed in Table 1 of this standard.

Contractors are responsible for achieving the contract skills development goals and are provided with a number of methods for measuring their achievements. They may, if need be, devolve their obligations onto subcontractors.

This standard should be applied to;

A contract or an order issued in terms of a framework agreement that has a duration of 12 months or more, and:

- a) a contract of R5 million or more, in the case of a professional service or service contract or an order issued in terms of such a contract; or
- b) a cidb grading designation of grade 7 or higher, in case of an engineering and construction works, or design and build contract or an order issued in terms of such a contract.

This Standard will be subject to review every five years, or sooner if required.

Standard for developing skills through infrastructure contracts

1 Scope

This standard establishes a key performance indicator;

- a) in the form of a contract skills development goal (CSDG) relating to the structured workplace learning of occupational or professional learning, which enables learners to make measurable progress towards the attainment of:
  - (i) a part- or full occupational qualification registered on the National Qualification Framework; or
  - (ii) a trade qualification leading to a listed trade (GG No. 35625, 31 August 2012); or
  - (iii) a national diploma registered on the National Qualification Framework; or
  - (iv) registration in a professional category by a statutory council listed in Table 1.
- b) in the delivery, maintenance and operation of infrastructure through the performance of professional service, engineering and construction works, or design and build contracts or an order associated with such a contract and
- c) sets out the methods by which the key performance indicator is established, measured, quantified and verified in the performance of the contract or the execution of an order.

NOTE 1: Guidance on the manner in which this standard should be incorporated into procurement documents is provided in Annex A.

NOTE 2: This standard can be applied to contracts or to orders (call-offs) issued in terms of framework agreements. Framework agreements are well suited to situations in which long term relationships are entered into. They offer flexibility in attaining contract skills development goals as requirements can be adjusted from one order to another, thus allowing key performance indicators to be improved upon over time.

3.1.2.1 In the case of engineering and construction works contracts, design and build contracts and services contracts the contract skills participation goals, expressed in Rand, shall be no less than the sub-total multiplied by a percentage (%) factor given in Table 2 for the applicable class of construction works used in the application of the Construction Industry Development Regulations, issued in terms of the Construction Industry Development Board Act of 2000.

| Class of construction works as identified in terms of Regulation 25(3) of the Construction Industry Regulations 2004 |   | Construction skills development goal (CSDG) (%) |
|--|---|---|
| Designation  | Description                                   |   |
| CE   | Civil engineering                             | 0.25  |
| CE or GB   | Civil engineering or General Building         | 0.375   |
| EE   | Electrical Engineering works (buildings)      | 0.25  |
| EP   | Electrical Engineering works (Infrastructure) | 0.25  |
| GB   | General Building                              | 0.50  |
| ME   | Mechanical Engineering works                  | 0.25  |
| SB   | Specialist                                    | 0.25  |

Example 1: The sub-total of the tender sum for an engineering and construction works contract in the GB class of construction works is R65,7m. The contract skills development goal in Rands is R65,7m x 0.5% = R328 500.

3.1.2.2 In the case of professional services contracts the contract skills development goals, expressed in hours, shall be not less than the professional fees in millions of Rand multiplied by 150.

FOREWORD BY MINISTER OF SPORT, ARTS AND CULTURE

Sport is a cultural activity, which, if practiced fairly and equitably, enriches society and friendship between nations. Sport is an activity which offers individuals with whatever background, race, religion, sexual orientation the opportunity of multiple benefits for themselves, their communities and country. Although women and girls account for more than half of the world's population and despite the growing participation of women in sport and physical activity at all levels, there is still an uneven landscape for women in decision making and leadership roles. Women are significantly under-represented in management, administration, coaching and officiating, particularly at the higher levels. Women face multiple issues around safeguarding, including gender-based violence. Many factors, external to sport, affect women's levels of participation and other types of involvement in sport. In this regard, the situation at home, the role of physical education, their legal status in society and the media are key influences.

The National Development Plan indicates that the transformation for sports by 2030 is that participation in each sporting code begins to approximate the demographics of the country and that South Africa's sporting results are as expected of a middle-income country with historical excellence in a number of sporting codes.

The Department of Sports, Arts and Culture (DSAC) will continue to transform the delivery of sport and recreation by ensuring equitable access, development and excellence at all levels of participation, thereby improving social cohesion, nation building and the quality of life of all South Africans. Such a role of sport is enshrined in the Declaration of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). SDG 5 that focuses on achieving gender equality and empowerment of all women is cutting across all 17 SDGs, particularly where sport is utilised as vehicle for development. It states:

"Sport is also an important enabler of sustainable development. We recognize the growing contribution of sport to the realization of development and peace in its promotion of tolerance and respect and the contributions it makes to the empowerment of women and of young people, individuals and communities as well as to health, education and social inclusion objectives."

South Africa is also guided by other policy directives to which the country has been a signatory to ensure: (i) fair and equitable representation of men and women in all events and activities; (ii) capacity building of women in leadership (coaching, administration and officiating); (iii) collaborative training, advocacy and awareness programs to educate the media on gender sensitive reporting; and (iv) develop and implement rewards and recognition initiatives that promote women empowerment and visibility including women and girls with disabilities.

DSAC has ensured that its programmes are largely mainstreamed, and the reports are indicative of the efforts. Our efforts to mainstream our activities across many programmes, such as Schools Sport, Youth Camps, Indigenous Games, Big Walk, National Recreation Day indicates that women and girls are given the opportunity to participate in sport and in some cases their representation exceeds those of boys and men. We took cognisance of the 'case for sport' being developed and of international declarations guiding the policy.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The full participation of women and girls in all aspects of life, forms the corner stone of development and prosperity in South Africa. Gender inclusion that fosters gender equity is a core value of human justice in any society and by recognising that their marginalisation in many aspects of their lives, and in all sport-related sectors undermines the realisation of taking up their rightful place in society and in sport. This policy is therefore developed to redress existing inequalities for girls and women in the South African sport ecosystem – particularly in participation, competition, coaching, officiating and leadership.

In alignment with global policy frameworks, trends and national development priorities, this policy addresses multiple challenges women and girls face in sport associated with race, disability, age, religion, culture, geographical location, and sexual orientation inclusive of those belonging to the LGBTQI+ population, transwomen, and women differences of sex development (DSD). The policy refers to women and girls' athletes, coaches, administrators, those who aspire to be or are already in leadership positions and those who influence practices for the inclusion and promotion of women to ensure they are on an equal footing as their male counterparts. This policy aims to promote gender equity and gender mainstreaming in alignment with global trends, as commitment to signed declarations and national priorities of the South African Government. It also features issues of safeguarding to protect girls and women from all forms of abuse and discrimination in sport settings.

South African women and girls, with and without disabilities in sport and recreation face multiple barriers that negatively affect their participation, promotion and access to decision-making power and transformation in sport. Barriers extend to include socio-cultural values stemming from entrenched patriarchal ideology (including gender-role expectations), biased and lack of media coverage and advertising, gender-based violence, the lack of role models and gender stereotyping. At all levels, the lack of access to resources include funding and sponsorships or equitable remuneration; opportunities for participation in different sports at schools and in communities, inclusive of the priority scheduling of male participation and inadequate programmes for talent identification and development, as well as opportunities for professional participation; inadequate facilities and equipment; and the under-representation of females in leadership positions reflect the realities of women and girls in South African sport. The COVID-19 pandemic affected all sport but widened the gender gap and exposed women to increased levels of gender-based violence. The roles and responsibilities of key policy actors and stakeholders feature in the implementation plan, guided by indicators to direct monitoring and evaluation as to track and ensure a transformed South African sport dispensation. A log frame and theory of change will guide planning, implementation and strategic decision-making from the input to impact levels across priority areas.

1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

The introduction and background cover the following sub sections, namely, Policy issue identification; Background; Policy context and environment, links to other policies; and Brief overview of the policy process followed.

1.1 Policy issue identification

Gender equality implies that men and women<sup>1</sup> enjoy the same access to opportunities, resources, and have the same rights, obligations, and outcomes in all spheres of society. A just and democratic society protects and promotes gender equity and the empowerment of women as a human right. The latter is enshrined in the Universal Declarations of Human Rights (UDHR) of 1948 as stipulated in Article 27, stating that women have the right to fully participate in the cultural life of a community and share equally in societal benefits. It is also captured in Article 17(2) of the African Charter on Human and People's Rights (ACRWC) adopted in 1981 and as a fundamental principle of the Commonwealth (Wadesango, Malatji & Chabaya, 2020). DSAC's integrated approach for setting national agendas and for transformative actions is in alignment with the United Nations 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (particularly SDG 5) and with the African Union Agenda of 2063.

Since 1994, the South African government has outlawed gender inequality and put multiple measures in place to address all forms of discrimination against women in broader society. Under the guidance of Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, the International Working Group on Women & Sport established in 1994 as the most influential 'women in sport movement', held seven international conferences to further the cause of gender equity in sport. As signatory, South Africa implemented various initiatives and report on social transformation, including on gender persistent inequalities and mainstreaming (Engh & Potgieter, 2018).

In 2014 a baseline study on gender, participation, and leadership in southern Africa, found a relatively high level of female sport participation (46%) but low levels of females in leadership and coaching (Fasting, Huffman & Sand, 2014). Matters have not improved for women in different sports in the AUSC Region 5 member countries. The 2021 (follow-up) study (Burnett, 2021a) show a decrease in women's participation across five countries (Lesotho, Malawi, South Africa, Zambia, and Zimbabwe) and across five sports (athletics, basketball, boxing, judo and football) by 9.8% to measure 8.2% in 2020. The outlier is netball with an average female participation rate of 98.1% pushing up the overall female participation across all sports (previous five and netball) to be 70%. A similar situation prevails at grassroots level among the lower quintile schools (Quintile one, two and three) where physical education is not implemented and 43.8% of these schools offer one sport, or at best three sports such as football for boys, netball for girls and athletics for a short period at the beginning of the year (Burnett, 2018 & 2020).

Many influences contributed to this situation as communicated by stakeholder representatives during multiple consultative road shows/sessions for informing this policy development. The lack of participation and development pathways for athletes, coaches and referees in many sports, the lack of suitable equipment, facilities (including facility management that prioritises male participation), the lack of professional leagues for women-only teams, disparity between men's and women's remuneration and rewards, cultural perceptions that contribute to negative stereotyping, and lack of support in creating an enabling environment, contribute to the under-representation of women as leaders and their full participation at all levels of South African sport. South Africa is still to follow the global trend set at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games of having 49% women competing. Team South Africa that competed at the Tokyo Olympic Games, 66% were male, whilst 56.9% men competed for South Africa at the Tokyo Paralympic Games.

At the global and national leadership levels, women are yet to gain ground. In the IOC, female representation shows the discrepancy between participation and leadership (The Conversation, 2021) as women hold about a third (37.5%) executive board membership at that level. Although in South Africa, gender transformation has accelerated across multiple sport and management structures since the 2004 report on the status women in sport, participation and leadership inequalities are still prevalent (SRSA, 2017). Women continue to trail behind men in sport leadership, despite Sport South Africa and the government sector that spearheaded gender transformation. Sport South Africa has 58% women at the executive level and 53.9% at sub-committee level (Burnett, 2021a). Female leadership among NOCs are only 24.1% with men also dominating sub-committees with a representation rate of 62.2% as measured across the five countries in AUSC Region 5 (Burnett, 2021a).

Globally and locally, remaining barriers relate to cultural influences, lack of multiple resources, hegemonic male structures, and practices from playground domination by boys to leadership positions occupied by men (Murray, Lord & Lorimer, 2020; Ogunniyi, 2015). This policy speaks to national and local realities, whilst showing an alignment with global and national policies. This policy aims to guide meaningful social transformation within and through sport whilst informing strategic decision-making and an equitable dispensation for women inclusive of the most vulnerable where race, class and disability add layers contributing to their level of disadvantage.

1.2 Background

Sport is still a male-dominated sphere where women face exclusion and discrimination, particularly in traditionally male sports like rugby, football/soccer and boxing (Ray, 2016; Ogunniyi, 2015). South African society is largely patriarchal where the domestic role of a woman (as mother and wife) is a prevailing cultural belief voiced during the provincial consultations. Such culture also exists in sport and in sport organisations that negatively affect women's inclusion, engagement and participation.

Although women's participation in sport continues to rise, the European Institute for Gender Equality (2017) found that men are still dominating, which is particularly the case in the coaching environment (Carson, McCormack, & Walsh, 2018; European Institute for Gender Equality, 2017). A similar trend exists in southern Africa where only 22% of women coaching competitive sport and only 18% acting as head coach which is only up 2% from a baseline reported in 2014 (Burnett, 2021a).

The Women in Sport Movement globally and in Africa has been growing over the last two decades, spearheaded by the Women in Sport Association (AWISA) and International Working Group on Women and Sport (IWG). However, the lack of functional sport structures limits collaboration and perpetuates discriminatory processes that impact negatively on women and sport in South Africa (Report on Africa session at the IWG World Conference on Women and Sport, Helsinki, Finland. 2014; <https://cge.org.za/>).

In the history of South Africa, sportswomen played a major role in the resistance movement and struggle to liberate the country from apartheid. During the 1980s and early 1990's South African sportswomen used sport as a site of resistance against racism and sexism contributing to the emergence of the new democratic political dispensation (Hargreaves, 1997; Jones, 2001; Roberts, 1993). Unity talks in South African sport that took place between 1988 and 1994, led to the synchronisation of all South African sport codes across the racial divides and prioritised racial redress.

Since the birth of democracy in 1994, and guided by the South African Constitution of 1996, gender inequality in sport and recreation in South Africa has been legislated against by several constitutionally binding acts followed by structural reform. The Women and Sport South Africa (WASSA) structures and National Advisory Council for Women were established in 1996 and the government committed itself to support women's equality in sport and recreation. In 1997, workshops were held in every province, culminating in the then Minister of Sport and Recreation, the late Mr Steve Tshwete, launching the WASSA National Steering Council made up of representatives from every province, and representatives from the National Sports Council, National Olympic Committee and Disability Sport South Africa.

In 1999 in the new administration with changes in executive authorities and the establishment of the South African Sports Commission, the WASSA structure and its responsibilities were phased out. In order to continue the work of WASSA, the South African Sports Commission instituted a delivery mechanism to ensure the participation of women, people with disabilities and people from rural areas. This gave birth to a programme called South African Women, Sport and Recreation (SAWSAR) in 2003. The programme was a sub-component of Equity with the then provincial desks under the auspices of the Provincial Departments of Sport and Culture.

1.4 Brief overview of the policy process followed

There is no denying that the development of women in all aspects of life, is the corner stone of development and integrated in the core values of any society. However, women are still unsupported and marginalised in many aspects of their lives including in sport, on, and off the field. This policy thus aims to redress issues raised by delegates at a Women's breakfast hosted by the former Minister of Sport and Recreation in August 2018 and many follow-up consultations in the form of road shows with key stakeholders within the sport sector such as the provincial road shows. The draft policy document was presented to the MINMEC meeting comprised of the Minister and the Provincial MECs for Sport and Recreation. Since the merger in 2019 of Sport and Recreation South Africa (SRSA) and the Department of Arts and Culture (DAC), the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture (DSAC) was established. It is under this banner that the Deputy Minister, Ms Mafu continued with consultations with the relevant stakeholders during roadshows for example in those provinces.

Stakeholders consulted in the provinces consisted of provincial MEC's, government officials such as HODs, other government officials within the provinces, sport federations, sports academies, recreation bodies, NGOs (e.g., Lovelife), media group and university sport representatives. Wider consultations included discussions with relevant departments such as the Departments of: Social Development, Women, Youth and People with Disabilities, Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation including the Presidency, National Department of Transport, Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (CoGTA) and Basic Education. The last group that was consulted was representatives of national sport federations included SASCOC. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the consultation process was delayed and restricted and some of the consultations were done virtually.

2. PROBLEM STATEMENT

2.1 Underlying policy statement

There is gender inequality in the field of sport between women including women with disabilities and men (abled and non-abled bodied) manifests at all levels of participation and plays out in the coaching, technical officiating, and administrative areas. There is a ripple effect from lack to access, talent development and transitioning into different sport-related roles, as pathways do not exist, or multiple factors limits such progression. Women particularly face an uphill battle to excel in traditionally male sport and find similar opportunities to benefit from taking part in professional sports. In addition to existing barriers to participation, women do not receive equal pay, access to funding and sponsorship, media exposure and multiple other resources that make up an enabling environment. On the contrary, women must battle against male-dominated ideologies, cultural beliefs, male-biases, and hegemonic structures whilst overcoming various forms of discrimination, prejudices, stereotypical normative prescriptions and in some cases have to prove that they are 'real women' or undergo hormonal treatment to fit the pre-scribed binary view of being either classified as a man or a woman. Women in sport and recreation also face gender-based violence.

2.2 Nature, history, and scope of the problem (including trend identification and assessment-use of evidence)

There is gender inequality which to a large extent emanates from cultural influences and patriarchal ideology in the field of sport which negatively affects women including women with disabilities and men (abled and non-abled bodied) manifests at all levels of participation and plays out in the coaching, technical officiating, and administrative areas. Sport is still a male-dominated sphere where women face exclusion and discrimination, particularly in traditionally male sports like rugby, football/soccer and boxing (Ray, 2016; Ogunniyi, 2015).

There is a ripple effect from lack to access, talent development and transitioning into different sport-related roles, as pathways do not exist, or multiple factors limits such progression. Women particularly face an uphill battle to excel in traditionally male sport and find similar opportunities to benefit from taking part in professional sports. In addition to existing barriers to participation, women do not receive equal pay, access to funding and sponsorship, media exposure and multiple other resources that make up an enabling environment. On the contrary, women must battle against male-dominated ideologies, cultural beliefs, male-biases and hegemonic structures whilst overcoming various forms of discrimination, prejudices, stereotypical normative prescriptions and in some cases have to prove that they are 'real women' or undergo hormonal treatment to fit the pre-scribed binary view of being either classified as a man or a woman. In terms of leadership, SASCOC has 58% women at the executive level and 53.9% at sub-committee level (Burnett, 2021a).

In 2021 it was reported that less than one out of four leaders to be female other sectors and only 27.7% women lead in national sport federations across six sports in five southern African countries (Burnett, 2021a). Female leadership among NOCs are only 24.1% with men also dominating sub-committees with a representation rate of 62.2% as measured across the five countries in AUSC Region 5 (Burnett, 2021a). In Eminent People's Report of 2019/2020 women are under-represented as presidents of sport federations, CEOs, full-time appointees, coaches, technical officials and in under-age and senior high-performance teams.

3. POLICY VISION AND OBJECTIVES

3.1 Vision

The vision of the policy is to promote gender equality relevant to equal access to resources for men and women in the field of sport. This policy further aims to inform current national programmes and initiatives focusing on addressing gender equity as an outcome within and through sport.

The policy expresses the dedication to women in sport and the contribution in building a creative and inclusive nation.

DSAC recognises the meaningful work by people, institutions, and society in the promotion of gender equality and equity in and through sport. Through the implementation of this policy, it will identify and ensure opportunities for multiple stakeholders to place gender on the agenda for socio-political and economic transformation.

DSAC's vision for women in sport is to ensure equal opportunities for the optimal development and equal opportunity for all women to achieve full participation and development. It strives to provide equity as outcomes for women in sport that may lead to life-long involvement and a healthy lifestyle.

3.2 The rationale for a policy intervention and policy options

The rationale for policy intervention and policy options is to promote gender equality and fight the scourge of gender-based violence in the field of sport and recreation. Policy is aimed to address the issue of gender inequality and gender-based violence women in sport are faced with. Policy option 1 will be to implement alignment of all related policies speaking to human rights, gender (non)discrimination and the equitable inclusion of women. The limitation here is that the implementation of aligned policies may invite all relevant stakeholders national and internationally to collaborate services which may be a bit difficult due to insufficient resources Option 2 has to do with the mainstreaming gender and address women's equity across all structural arrangements and programmes linked to DSAC.

3.3 Strategic linkages

The proposed policy will contribute to following national priorities, as outlined in the Medium-Term Strategic Framework (2019-2024):

Building a capable and ethical and developmental state: Gender equality will promote women empowerment which in turn will contribute to the implementation of human rights as they will be educated about addressing GBV, financial management, leadership, active living, and female role modelling. Sport organisations should adhere to good governance, gender diversity in management and good governance.

Economic transformation and job creation: The promotion of gender equality and equity will increase economic growth and unearth currently untapped human resources in the formal and informal economy. As such it will contribute to economic transformation (including the expansion of industries), job creation and an expanded female labour force with equal access to resources such as salary/wage, sponsorships/funding that will stimulate income-generation, independence, and employment within the sport sector.

Education, skills and health: Education, training, and optimising health-related practices in sport and through sport (e.g., active living) serve as cornerstone and engine for economic growth. Qualified individuals will attract more women into the national workforce and strengthen the South African sport system. Sport as 'medicine' saves public health costs, boost productivity and contribute to the quality of life. Women are key caregivers to promote health-optimising activities for their children, volunteering, and role modelling.

Consolidating the Social Wage through reliable and quality Basic Services: Providing resources to abled and disabled women (including access to social grants) will generate income at the community level. It may provide capacity for public work projects, public service provision and increase employability for youth by acquiring a skill set in sport transferable to other sectors. Engaging women in sport increase service provision to social institutions like schools, improve self-reliance and prevent deviant behaviours and teenage pregnancies

Spatial integration, home settlement and local government: Gender equality will necessitate the optimal use of local sport facilities for community-based sports. Sport facilities may have multi-purpose usage for providing community services (e.g., health clinics, delivering grants and school sport competitions). The placement and development of accessible and well-placed sport facilities will enable sustainable human settlements and special integration across different sectors of a community under the auspices and management of local government entities.

Social cohesion and safe communities: Playing sport at community level (at schools and clubs) promotes social cohesion, social integration, solidarity, and inclusion that contribute to the reduction of inequality and exclusion for women. It bridges the disparities and stratification of women further disadvantaged by labels of ethnicity, class, nationality, age, disability, or any other distinctions that may cause divisions, competition and conflict. Promoting women's inclusion is underpinned by the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, (1996), National Development Plan, (2011) and Sport and Recreation South Africa White Paper, (2012).

Sport participation and active living keep people occupied and away from destructive behaviours such as drug-taking and teenage pregnancies. In this way it contributes to community-safety and crime prevention. Sport participation teach pro-social values such as compassion and peaceful co-existence. It provides the glue that keeps communities together.

A better Africa and world: As signatory to multiple human right conventions and in adherence to the African Union's 2063 vision (the Africa we Want), facilitating sport participation and mobilising the sector to fully include women at all levels, will deliver on this vision. It is up to South Africa to ensure that 'nobody is left behind' – not as a UN prerequisite but a mandate for all sectors and stakeholders (SDG 17) to make this a reality.

3.4 Theory of change, Policy objectives and expected outcomes

3.4.1 Theory of Change (See Annexure)

3.4.2 Policy objectives and expected outcomes

The objectives of the policy are as follows:

- To promote active participation, to increase the number of women actively participating in sport and physical activity in order to reduce the gender gap at all levels. To implement pathway development for girls within different sports. To reduce the drop-out rate of women in sport at all levels.
- To increase the area of coaching, officiating and support. For example, to increase the base of qualified female coaches from grassroots to the highest competitive levels across all sports. To increase the number of women in technical officiating roles and support staff.
- To have 50/50 gender leadership: To implement a gender balance at all leadership levels of funded organisations. To provide a pathway and mentorship for women to become leaders at all levels. To implement good governance and gender parity (gender-balance structures). To provide equal opportunities for women to participate and occupy leadership positions in sport
- To increase visibility, framing and advocacy as follows: To increase the visibility of sport women and female role models. To promote fair representation of all women in the public media. To engage in advocacy for women to participate, receive fair recognition and rewards in sport

- To implement safeguarding policies and mechanisms to protect women in sport
- To ensure safe spaces for participation, coaching, officiating and support
- To implement mechanisms to ensure pro-social behaviours and values in sport (e.g. anti-doping and violence-prevention).
- To implement sport as a tool for development for women at all levels.
- To promote peaceful co-existence and address gender-based violence in and through sport.
- To use sport to address health, education, and socio-economic development for women.
- To avail and mobilise appropriate resources in relation to identified needs to women
- To ensure a safe and enabling environments for all women to participate in sport
- To ensure gender-neutral communication and positive portrayals of women

Expected outcomes are as follows:

- Women in sport system strengthened and good governance to ensure the inclusion and empowerment of women at all levels. Adequate policies, strategies to safeguard and ensure equitable gender practices in sport and related sectors.
- Strategic alignment, service integration and stakeholder collaboration
- Equitable access to participation opportunities for women at all levels (e.g., community, club, and national levels)
- Equitable access for women in leadership at all levels (e.g. community, club and national levels) such as qualified coaches, technical officials and administrators
- Effective implementation of safeguarding measures to address issues of abuse for women
- Gender-neutral communication and portrayal of women in sport
- Equitable access to resources including physical (facilities and equipment), financial, information and human resources for women at all levels

4. BARRIERS TO PARTICIPATION

Issues contributing to gender inequality, include socio-cultural and biological factors, the lack of access or differential access to multiple resources, limited access to leadership positions, issues around gender-verification measures, GBV (especially during Covid-19 lockdowns) in and through sport, the lack of role models and gender stereotyping. Cultural influences and patriarchal ideology remain main undermining influences as it plays out in sport and society in different ways (Burnett, 2021b). It extends to the lack and biased media representation and advertisement, poorly developed sport structures at school and grassroots levels, limited access to high performance sport, clothing issues, safety aspects in sport and related to transport and the lack of capacity. The next section will expand on the different factors and influences.

4.1 Gender inequality and discrimination

In South Africa, patriarchal ideology informs the dominance of men over women at household, institutional and community levels (Adom-Aboagye & Burnett, 2019; Burnett, 2018). Girls from a young age are socialised in a particular subservient gender role and due to an average superiority of male physicality, women are pigeonholed into feminine types of sport. This presents stereotypes that creates obstacles for many to enter sport regarded as a bastion of male domination evidenced in sports like football, rugby, cricket and boxing (Burnett, 2021a; Engh & Potgieter, 2015; Pelak, 2005 & 2010).

According to DSAC (SRSA, 2012) sport plays an important role to redress gender and race inequalities as well as discrimination against people with disabilities and marginalised populations. Accommodating diversity across gender, race and class and inclusive sport and recreation practices contribute to the building of social cohesion, community integration, active citizenships, and nation building (Burnett, 2021b).

Women with disabilities in sport face a level of exacerbating discrimination, stereotyping and stigma as society attach multiple meanings to 'disability'. Gendered inequalities thus intersect with different aspects of oppression resulting in identifiable labels or characteristics such as race, sexuality, ability, age, social class, marital status or position as a citizen with reference to an indigenous person or refugee as examples (CITOFIELD, 2022). Such levels of marginality or double (even triple) levels of discrimination associated have been mentioned during the consultation process.

4.2 Biological and socio-cultural factors and poverty

A major socio-cultural and economic barrier is the manifest idea that sport is masculine, exclusive and elitist. It is a widely shared perception transmitted by men and women through traditions, beliefs, and social practices. This entails that women are not meant to be competitive, they should be heterosexual in appearance (hair, clothing and demeanour) and their body should not be muscular - also stated by roadshow participants (Engh & Potgieter, 2018). This societal expectation is seen as the main socio-cultural barrier as women themselves prioritise women-hood and domestic responsibilities that leave them little time (time-poor) for sport participation and/or leadership. Sport is rife with homophobia, and boys are also labelled as gay for playing 'unmanly' sports, just as girls are often labelled as lesbians if they play almost any sport (apart from a few which are seen as particularly 'feminine'). Such beliefs contribute to dropout rates amongst teenage girls and discourage women from participating or excelling in sport (Burnett, 2018; Engh & Potgieter, 2018).

Despite recent progress, discrimination based on the real or perceived sexual orientation and gender identity of female athletes persists. Girls in sports may experience bullying, social isolation, negative performance evaluations, or the loss of their starting position. During socially fragile adolescence, the fear of being tagged "gay" is strong enough to push many girls out of the game (Engh & Potgieter, 2018).

Women is not a homogeneous population and ethnic minorities, girls from poor environments and in rural areas have different experiences and barriers to overcome. For example, rates of participation in sport amongst different ethnic minorities vary considerably and the gap between men and women's participation in sport may be greater amongst some minority ethnic groups. Ethnic or racial stereotyping exist and is perpetuated through religious or cultural practices such as among some sectors of Asian women who are not allowed to wear revealing swimsuits. During the provincial road shows, it was also mentioned that there are certain codes whereby black people are always selected for a certain position within a sport team that represent racial stacking (playing in non-decision making or central positions) in team sports like netball and rugby.

Media framing of the perfect (lean and sexy) female body contribute to girls and women not being confident to participate in sport due to their poor body image associated with their physical appearance and the fear of being judged for that (Kubayi, 2015). Women and girls in sport are regarded as inferior and their physique are perceived as not strong or suitable can take part in sport (Ogunniyi, 2015). During the provincial roadshow focus group discussions, the topic was raised that women tend to believe that they are weak and have a physical strengths-inferiority complex.

Women and girls from impoverished settings often have a low self-esteem and poor sense of self-worth coupled with diminished self-efficacy and belief in their potential to achieve (Ahmed et al., 2017). A national handball representative mentioned the lack of self-esteem stemming from negative experiences. Many high performing athletes (including females) struggle with mental health issues associated on the one hand with a sedentary lifestyle, and on the other hand with the stress of high performance (Purcell et al., 2020). The Covid-19 pandemic brought additional strain on the mental health of elite athletes (Mehrsafar et al., 2020).

4.3 Lack of funding, sponsorship and remuneration

Sponsorships mostly flow to dominant male team sports such as rugby, cricket and football that have highly established professional leagues. The argument offered for the under-representation of women in the public media (broadcasting, televised and printed media) is argued from this point of view and the fact that such sports have a large fan base. In a recent study about the accessibility to funds for women in South African sport (CITOFIELD, 2022). The latter study refers to the adoption of the amendments of the Employment Equity Act that guides legal redress for equal pay for work of equal value to counter unfair discrimination in the respect of remuneration. However, this has not been applied in the field of sport where even at the global level were female athletes earn less compared to their male counterparts and about 99% of all sponsorship money is directed to men's sport (Cox, 2018).

The lack of funding dedicated to women in sport limits their chances to travel internationally for competitions as lucrative endorsement deals are often presented to male athletes and national teams represent the 'male version' of a sport. According to several participants at the road shows from different provinces, sponsors favour male sports and teams which also attracts a high level of media exposure.

The issue of remuneration received by the South African national women and men's football teams was raised in a parliamentary in 2019. It was reported that Banyana's players receive a match bonus of R5 000 for a win in an official match, and R4 000 for a win in a friendly match. 2019 it was reported that Bafana Bafana players earn as much as R60 000 for a win, R40 000 for a draw. Banyana players are paid a daily allowance of R400 per day when training with the team while in the country which will be increased to R500 per day to be in line with Bafana Bafana. The payment for tournaments is handled differently, and the payment structure is negotiated with the team depending on the tournament. The payment structure for Banyana Banyana is based on the available resources and funding from the relevant sponsors and supplemented by SAFA (South African Football Association). DSAC utilised various instruments including the Grant Framework Conditions and direct dedicated funding as well as conditional funding as instruments to promote the development of female sport," (Sport 24, January 2019). The Departments financial investment in the establishment of a professional football league over 3 years and the exposure on television has attracted them sponsorship.

4.4 Lack of women in leadership positions

The socio-cultural influences contribute to the ideology that defines women as inferior to men who led women to be assigned minor positions in both public and private spheres of life (National Policy for Women, 2017). Globally and locally, remaining barriers relate to cultural influences, lack of appropriate resources, hegemonic male structures, and practices from playground domination by boys to leadership positions occupied by men. In June 2020, the Eminent Persons Group on Transformation (SRSA, 2019) reported on the progress of 18 sporting codes on transformation as per Charter and Barometer (self-projected) targets.

According to the study conducted by African Union Sport Council (AUSC) Region 5, in 2014 the number of women occupying leadership positions in sport is very low within the region. Compared to the number of female athletes participating in sports, women were reported to be underrepresented in leadership positions in the school sport organizations and the sport associations. The follow-up study seven years later, show improvement across the government entities, but less than one out of four leaders to be female other sectors and only 27.7% women lead in national sport federations across six sports in five southern African countries (Burnett, 2021a).

4.5 Transgender, Intersex athletes, Sex-verification and Testosterone levels

Female athletes face many obstacles to compete internationally because of transgender and, intersex issues. They are banned from competing internationally due to their natural high production of testosterone. They are forced to take medication to lower the level that would make them qualify for the women's races. They are forced to undergo sex-verification which is against human rights.

Intersex is a person born with a combination of male and female biological traits. Transgender women athletes are athletes whose gender identity are different from the sex (male or female) they were assigned to at birth. Such athletes may experience gender dysphoria and may transition to the gender of choice. This process commonly includes hormone replacement therapy and sometimes sex reassignment surgery, which can bring relief and resolve feelings of gender dysphoria.

Current international decisions guide the current inclusion of male-to-female transgender athletes, whilst LGBTQ rights groups actively contest exclusionary measures and deem them 'discriminatory', 'harmful' and 'unscientific' it remains a contentious issue.

4.6 Gender-Based Violence (GBV) in sport

GBV is defined as the violence that is directed at a person based on his/her biological sex or gender identity. It includes physical, sexual, verbal, emotional and psychological abuse, threats, coercion and economic or educational deprivation, whether occurring in public or private (DWYPD, 2020). Women are disproportionately harmed by gender-based violence. In the sport sector, it may occur in different forms.

Sexual harassment: Well document cases mostly entail male coaches and men in positions of power to be the perpetrators and women to be the victims, although it also happened to male athletes (European Institute for Gender Equality, 2017; European Commission, 2014). Prominent cases in US Gymnastics had the medical doctor successfully brought to justice and spurred a global debate (Kwiatkowski, 2021).

The findings from the focus groups which indicated that there were few policies and mechanisms that protect women from sexual abuse. Women representatives at various road shows said female athletes are often coerced in using banned performance enhancers under pressure from male coaches do not report such matters for fear of retaliation.

Sexual assault: Women and girls face the barriers in the form of physical and sexual harassment (European Institute for Gender Equality, 2017). According to the focus group discussions during the road shows, the bullying of athletes seems to be rife.

Victimisation: Gender-based discrimination contribute to women falling victim to acts of marginalised, isolated or exposed to violence. Women in sport encounter various forms of discrimination including sexual victimisation and that they were less likely to report that. The positive actions regarding gender equity and women empowerment are blocked by gender-based discrimination based on stereotypes of women's physical abilities and social roles (<https://www.womeninsport.org/>). During focus group discussions, issues mentioned include the role of religion (e.g., Muslim) and traditional culture relating to dress codes.

The silence of sexual abuse and multiple forms of violence needs to be addressed by creating safe spaces and mechanisms of reporting as such practices arise from a combination of factors such as weak organisational controls within sport clubs, dominating and controlling behaviour by coaches, and vulnerability, low self-esteem, and high ambition amongst athletes (Engl & Potgieter, 2018). COVID-19 has negatively impacted on women and girls especially in the field of sport on gender-based violence and would require special strategies to address emerging (The Policy Brief called "COVID-19, Women, Girls and Sport: Build Back Better, 2020). During a consultation session, Sailing South Africa proposed a culture of zero tolerance regarding sexist behaviour, whilst the representative from the South African Rugby Union proposed safeguarding measures for players, coaches, and staff. Several representatives suggest the implementation of a whistle blowing programme that will have reporting mechanisms and protection of the identify of those who may report transgressions.

4.7 Lack of role models and gender stereotypes

History and socio-cultural associations between sport and masculinity contribute to the persisting male dominance in being considered as role models for athletes, coaches, and decision-makers in many parts of the world (Picariello & Waller, 2016). Patriarchal ideology perpetuates the culture of males being preferred leaders and role models as framed in the sport fraternity and public media. This was confirmed during road show discussions where it was stated that there is a dire need of female role models.

The domination of men in journalism and the sport medial space does not only reflect patterns of marginalisation but has an influence of promoting male role models and mediate the ideal characteristics of athletes and leaders to be admired and copied (Geertsema-Sligh, 2018). This situation is also evident in the lack of female sports anchors that does little to address issues around the objectification of the female body and celebrate heterosexual framing of women as mothers, wives and girlfriends.

Much activism and resistance against such stereotypical framing of female athletes and potential role models are emerging (Ogunniyi, 2015). The public debates awareness campaigns and activists are vocal and increasingly act in a quest for radical change in terms of acknowledging and accepting alternative ways of doing gender and promoting female role models (Engh & Potgieter, 2018).

4.8 Lack of media representation and exposure

South African media are biased towards publishing and broadcasting international and national male dominated and highly commercialised sports such as football, rugby and cricket that maintain and support masculine domination (Engh & Potgieter, 2018). Women from less commercial and professional sports receive relatively less media exposure and 'respectful covering' as they are often portrayed to project a feminine ideal and gender role confirmation (Cooky, Messner & Hextrum, 2013).

During the consultative process, several provincial stakeholder representatives said that this is also the case in the South African media and that women sport is not well marketed, portrayed as athletes or that women's sporting achievements were downplayed in favour of feminising and hetero-sexualising women in sport (Fink, 2015; Villalon & Weiler-Abels, 2018). Media representation of gender for women during the 2016 Olympic Games, were very much about the heterosexual discourse of 'brides to be' or 'supermoms' (Dashper, 2018).

Elite athletes with disability receive less media visibility than their non-disabled counterparts and female athletes received less than male athletes, whilst the media also favour different types of disabilities (e.g., blade runners) and although the stories include a focus on athleticism, it was underpinned by a 'supercrip' narrative and medicalised description of disability (Rees, Robinson & Shields, 2019). The lack of media exposure was confirmed during provincial consultations.

The over-representation of male reporters and presenters, in addition to editorial preferences contribute to the under-representation, marginalisation and biased representation of female sports and athletes on radio and television broadcastings. The gender-bias is also present in social media portrayals and communication (Adá Lameiras & Rodríguez-Castro, 2020).

4.9 Lack of access to grassroots level sport

The most recent report from the Eminent Persons' Group (2020) refers to a dysfunctional school sport system in South Africa and over-reliance on former Model C (or higher quintile schools) to produce sporting talent at the junior levels. One of the findings from the Report on the Implementation Evaluation of the National School Sport Championship (SRSA, 2016) was that there were no sport competitions within schools. The lack of school and community-based sporting infrastructure, lack of qualified coaches at the grassroots levels and regular competitions and leagues undermine long-term athlete development pathways in most sports (Burnett, 2020a & 2020b; Mkebe, 2015). There is also limited opportunities to take part in a variety of sports which limits the pool of talent for sporting codes and for the country.

According to DSAC (SRSA, 2012), grassroots sport focuses on the "poorest of the poor" in predominately disadvantaged and rural areas. If school and community sport are not taking place at grass roots level, the children's potential cannot be realised at an early age. The current national mass participation programmes (school sport and community sport) do not produce high levels of activity needed to produce a functional sport system and combat disease patterns such as obesity associated with sedentary lifestyles (Draper et al., 2019).

4.10 Lack of access to high-performance sport

Women' participation in sport has increased significantly as evidenced by the high level of competitions for females at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games where women made up 49% of competing athletes. However, in Team South Africa only 62 (34.4%) were women compared to 118 (65.6%) men.

Less women take part in competitive sport, particularly as they do not have the same access to professional leagues and earnings in South Africa's main commercial sports like cricket, rugby, and football – sport that still must establish highly functional domestic leagues (Sikes & Adom-Aboagye, 2017). In this respect, South Africa trails countries such as England and Australia where there are professional leagues set for women for cricket, rugby, and football.

The White Paper on Sport and Recreation, promotes the inclusion of priority groups of which women are one of them, whilst the Transformation Charter of South African Sport identifies women as marginalised group and to avoid that there should be increased access, representation, and opportunities in sport. Equality between men and women have not been achieved.

4.11 Inadequate infrastructure as a means of access and lack of childcare facilities

According to the inputs from the provincial road shows, the standard of infrastructure in the provinces especially in rural areas due to lack of high performance is not conducive for sport activities in general. It further stated a need to upgrade facilities to be women-friendly and for facilities to be used by schools. For women with disabilities, current challenges relate to accessible and user-friendly infrastructure such as entrances, reception areas, changing rooms and sports facilities, lack of accessible transport and parking amongst other limiting factors. During roadshows, the lack of infrastructure in impoverished communities and schools were discussed as a main stumbling block for women to participate at community level.

Lack of safe spaces and safety at sport facilities at the community level are detrimental to the number of girls participating in sport and structured physical activity and reflect in the relatively low levels of retention. According to the stakeholders during the roadshows, current management practices prioritise a more favourable scheduling of male sports and leagues at the community level. This is particularly relevant in traditionally male sports where established clubs and male-only teams are allocated the best fields for their games and the most favourable time slots.

4.12 Lack of Equipment and Attire

Clothing for women and girls in sport and recreation are expensive and outside the means of impoverished households, particularly in view of widely advertised and prestigious brands

(Kubayi, 2015). Some sports clothing is also quite revealing, which create problems for women and girls who have some problems dealing with a less than ideal body image, must adhere to a more conservative or prescribed dress code. The representative from SARU indicated that female players often must dress clothing that are too large and balls not of the appropriate size.

According to the group discussions that took place during the road shows, women with disabilities do not have equipment to suite their challenge/disability. This includes a variety of equipment – from wheelchairs suitable for sport and smaller items required for different sports.

4.13 Safety issues

The scheduling of matches during later afternoons or over weekends, unsafe facilities, and lack of public transport are being acknowledged as barriers for women's participation in sport in most communities. This issue was also raised at the roadshow group discussions where it was mentioned that school going girls must make use of pre-arranged public transport after school that prevents them to take part in school sport practices. Although the conditional grant makes such provision for transport, the budget allocated is too limited to answer in the need for such a service (Focus group inputs during the provincial road shows).

The lack of well-trained coaches in particularly traditionally male sports may cause harmful practices as women cannot be conditioned or trained the same as male players. Several representatives from sport federations advocated for implementing adapted sports to accommodate younger players and women.

4.14 Lack of skills and capacity development

The Sport and Recreation Transformation Charter (2012), acknowledges that there is lack of skills and capacity development which hampers transformation in sport. The document reports on human resource development; equitable resource allocation; eradication of all forms of inequality; increased access to participation opportunities; skills and capacity development at all levels and in all areas of activity; and empowerment of people.

According to feedback from the road shows, there is an inadequate number and types of educational programmes that would meaningfully equip women and girls to access and take advantage of existing opportunities in sport - from participation to coaching, officiating and leadership.

4.15 Lack of parental support

Various national studies into physical education and school sport of public schools in South Africa, teachers and learners indicated that the lack of parental support is a limiting factor for children's participation in sport (Burnett, 2020a & b). In some environments, parents have unrealistic expectations of their children's sporting abilities as they want to 'bask in the glory' and feed off the status that sporting success can bring. In environments of poverty, parents may not have the means to support their children, do not see the benefits and require girls to share the heavy burden of domestic work leaving little free time for sport participation.

5. ACTIONS/INTERVENTIONS

5.1 Gender equality and discrimination against women and girls in sport

National Sport Federations and other relevant stakeholders should have safeguarding and gender equality policies and/or frameworks and strategies, as well as a monitoring system in place. Organisations should give women a full range of activity and programme choices that meet the needs, interests and experiences of women and girls. Women in sport should be empowered through the conscious and committed provision of equal opportunities for sustaining full participation, recognition, and development, irrespective of disability, race, class, sexual preference, religious beliefs, and cultures. All relevant stakeholders should ensure that there is a conducive organisational culture, an increase in the participation of women at all levels of sport to achieve gender equality, equity and mainstreaming within their organisation and reach transformation targets as a matter of reform and compliance. Sport federations should develop clear pathways, capacity building and an enabling environment for women in different roles at all levels.

Governmental and Non-Governmental Sports Organisations should provide equal opportunities to women to reach their sport performance potential by ensuring that all activities and programmes relating to performance improvement take account of the specific needs of female athletes and female role players.

All women, regardless of skills or experience should get the chance to be an active part of activities and teams. Where competition is a key component of an activity or sport, ensure women and girls have the chance to play at appropriate levels against teams or individuals of a similar standard.

Policy coherence is key. For instance, the IOC has also taken a prominent role in promoting gender equality to be 37% by the end of 2020 in decision-making and 50% for participation and medal events (The Policy Brief called "COVID-19, Women, Girls and Sport: Build Back Better”, 2020). All members of the Olympic Movement such as Sport South Africa and national sport federations of Olympic sports should align their gender transformation targets of the Transformation Policy and strive for a 50-50 gender parity across all levels of participation and leadership (Eminent People Group, 2019/2020). Strategic plans, activities and reporting should be in place to measure progress made on key gender equity and mainstreaming indicators.

5.2 Socio-cultural, biological factors and poverty

National Sport Federations should develop empowerment (including education, training, and mentorship) programmes to ensure that women are recognised, have equal opportunities as their men counterparts. Measures should be put in place to advocate for full participation and recognition and ensure that discriminatory socio-cultural and biological issues are addressed.

5.3 Funding and sponsorship

National Sport Federations should develop guidelines that encourage equal funding and sponsorship to both women and men. The latter refers to leagues, teams and athletes. Women and girls should get access to funding and sponsorships in the same way as their male counterparts (Provincial consultative road shows). Sport federations should adhere to the amendments of the Employment Equity Act that guides legal redress for equal pay for work of equal value to counter unfair discrimination in the respect of remuneration. There should be a concerted effort and plans to professionalise women’s leagues within existing professional structures of cricket, rugby and football, including addressing remuneration packages (day fees, match fees and prize money) for women teams and athletes.

Stakeholder engagement within the sport and recreation sector and across other sectors such as partnerships with private sectors is essential to alleviate the financial burden on government.

5.4 Leadership positions

Sport federations/National Sport Federations should develop guidelines that encourage equal representation of women and men in decision-making structures. Strategies should be in place to ensure that at least 40% of executive boards will be comprised of female members – either elected or co-opted and females should head at least 50% of sub-committees within a sport governance structure. This will entail that such organisation should make changes to their constitutions to include actionable reforms to include women in leadership positions, based on timelines and indicators to be monitored and reported. DSAC needs to ensure that National Federations make these changes in line with the international bodies of each Federation.

Each National Sport Federation should ensure that it recruits, empowers and retains women in decision-making positions especially at national and international levels. Men should be co-opted to engage in gender reforms as it should not be considered a 'women's issue to be addressed by women alone'. Sport South Africa and National Sport Federations should develop capacity building programmes, training targeting women and placing them where those skills can be utilized – from the club to national levels.

National Sport Federations should recruit, appoint, train, mentor and assist women to campaign successfully for leadership positions. Set and track targets to progress from 30% minimum female leadership in decision-making positions as starting point. Empower a gender commission and ensure inclusion, diversity and adequate resourcing of women athletes/teams and leagues.

5.5 Testosterone, Intersex, gender verification and sex testing

SASCOC and DSAC including other relevant structures should develop appropriate legislation to address the issue of gender verification and access on the grounds of human rights, whilst ensuring fair and equitable participation at all levels. Sport Federations should support a human rights agenda and acknowledge scientific evidence regarding transgender athletes and women with Hyperandrogenism.

5.6 Gender-based violence in sport

National Sport Federations and sport clubs should have a policy and/or constitutional reference to gender-based violence, specifically relating to sexual harassment in the sport sector. They should also have a safeguarding policy and measures to ensure clear procedural processes (including reporting mechanisms and punitive actions) in dealing with matters of GBV, sexual assault/harassment and sexism. Processes should be in place to follow cases from start (reporting) to the end and inform stakeholders of the potential repercussions of a guilty verdict.

National Sport Federations should develop a safeguarding policy, mechanisms for prevention and reporting, referrals, and support for victims. They should screen and ensure vetting of all staff before appointment. They should train safeguarding officers. Implement a code of conduct (ethical behaviour) and they should provide anti-doping education.

SASOC should have a system in place to monitor all legal procedures, whilst fostering of open discussion about issues of sexual harassment and abuse so that athletes, coaches, volunteers and administrators feel confident enough to speak out if they experience them. In alignment with Sport South Africa, National Sport Federation should have a structure in place as well as a process where cases of sexual harassment can be reported such as a hotline whilst the identity of all whistle blowers or victims should be protected. Organisations should launch campaigns or spread awareness for safety and non-violence within their sporting code (IWG World Conference, Finland 2014-Sport without Fear, Plenary).

The focus should be on preventative measures such as:

- Creation of a platform to have more women coaches, mentors and officials in women related sporting codes to avoid harassment issues.
- Development of a process to safeguard women in sport.
- A code of conduct should be developed for all to ensure compliance and prevent harassment and violence against women.

The group discussions that took place during the roadshows, advocate for the development of educational tools that incorporate sport to fight against GBVF in broader society. In this regard, role models should speak out and act as examples, whilst public sporting events provide opportunities for advocacy.

The Presidential Gender Based-Violence Summit fights against the scourge of gender based-violence and femicide (GBVF). The Summit which encourages government and other relevant stakeholders to work together to eradicate GBVF. In Article 5, it has been stated that existing laws and policies applicable to GBVF should be reviewed to ensure that they are victim-centered and responsive.

5.7 Role models, gender stereotypes and media representation and advertisement

According to the findings from the provincial group discussions during the roadshows, National Sport Federations should develop educational programmes for women and men to address issues of gender stereotyping and discriminatory practices. National Sport Federations should develop guidelines to promote role modelling and gender-neutral and gender-sensitive media reporting and exposure to change patriarchal mind sets and practices.

Role models

According to Women's Sport Foundation Report (2019), girls easily identify with and view a female coach as a mentor and as a role model, which, in turn, can help counter stereotypes and boost girls' confidence, self-efficacy, and sense of belonging.

According to the provincial roadshows feedback, National Sport Federations should create database, profile, and market successful women athletes with a view to increase girls' eagerness to emulate them. Athletes who are successful, should serve as role models for young people, act as ambassadors and promote fair play. For social institutions like schools and clubs, role models should include those relevant to female staff, coaches, organisers and managers. There should be a database of women entrepreneurs and capacity building among women to access business opportunities.

Media coverage

DSAC should find ways of highlighting women thus creating an influence in media to feature them. There should be more of women sports journalists and gender-training for all sport journalists. SASCOC and National Sport Federations should use press releases and good relations with the media (including editors, journalists, and commentators) to promote women's sports and female athletes' achievements. All stakeholders should encourage media houses to increase their covering of women's sport and female athletes in a gender-neutral way as to celebrate the athlete and his/her achievements.

The broadcasting regulations must make provision for dedicated broadcast of women's sport in prime time. National Sport Federations together with broadcasting should provide news packs and gender-sensitive/neutral stories to the media and train athletes/team for media exposure. They should pro-actively engage with the media to appropriately frame female athletes and teams. They should train athletes and staff to promote women through a gender lens on social media. They should invite media for information session and training to enhance female athletes and teams' visibility.

5.8 Scholl and Community Sport (at grass roots levels)

National Sport Federations, DSAC and DBE should develop programmes specific to young girls familiarizing them with sporting codes. They should draw friendly, fun and exciting formats which interlink with community sport. They should invest in mass participation programmes in different sports for women at all levels. DBE and DSAC should have a standardization of all priority codes ensuring that they are all available to learners, whilst programmes such as sports weeks for schoolboys should be emulated. Every school should have sport facility even at district level. According to Kubayi (2015), female sport programmes should be developed and promoted in rural schools.

DBE must clearly indicate how young girls will be catered for in the integrated physical education and school sport approach (PESS) for public schools in South Africa and regularly report on the implementation through the regular monitoring and evaluation system. CoGTA and municipalities should develop sport within schools and within communities that are also used friendly for women and girls including women and girls with disabilities.

Physical Education and School Sport (PESS): Education and sensitization of the entire teaching staff about the importance of physical education and school sport is key to maximize girls' participation in sports activities and that can be achieved by:

- Establishing a clear sport policy for 100% of learner participation
- Seeking girls' opinion to develop tailored programmes and enlarge girls' choice of sports activities – including same and gender-mixed activities
- Creating a code of conduct for teachers and coaches to safeguard all against violence and discrimination.

Physical education in school curricula should be strengthened as a key means for positive introduction to young girls of the skills and other benefits they can acquire through taking part in sport (NSRP, 2012). Teacher training programmes should include courses aimed at improving the inclusiveness of physical education for all girls and boys. Teachers of physical education in the Life Skills and Life Orientation programmes should be adequately qualified to implement quality physical education classes and ensure the optimal and equitable and safe participation of girls and boys. The link between physical education and school sport should be clear and ensure a flow of participants (particularly girls) from the classroom to the sports field (SRSA, 2016). By creating a sport culture at school and community levels, parents should be informed about the benefits of sport participation for the girl child. National Sport Federations should recruit junior female participants, engage parents and offer training on attrition, talent development and age-appropriate coaching to ensure for throughout to senior levels.

The school sport system should be functional and special attention should be given to offer a variety of sports like rugby, cricket and swimming to disadvantage schools and communities in addition to ensuring that facilities will be well managed and optimally utilised as many facilities built with Lottery funding are currently white elephants.

National Sport Federations should recruit female coaches, technical officials and support staff from established sport institutions/schools. Offer accredited training and experience under mentorship. They should host local events /camps for training. Offer incentives and enabling environment.

Community sport especially in rural areas should also be emphasised.

High performance sport: National Sport Federations should ensure equitable participation in leagues and events (including international competitions) for female athletes; ensure that the profile of South African women in sport is raised and high-performance sport for women should be recognized.

All provinces should be the custodians of high-performance sport to ensure that elite women athletes have access to High Performance Centres (HPCs) with proper training facilities. The establishment of these HPCs should have qualified coaches and specialist services to build necessary programs for athletes in different sports. These HPCs should ensure that elite athletes remain in a province and a system is in place to provide pipeline access to emerging athletes.

Such specialised institutions should also pull resources by liaising with local municipalities and other relevant stakeholders, focusing on women programmes. Through this avenue, National Sport Federations should have a “Women focused talent identification programmes” utilizing specialized services in rural areas through multi-stakeholder engagement.

National Federations should have a “Women focused talent identification programmes” in rural areas utilizing Biokinetists and Physiotherapists.

5.9 Sport facilities, equipment, attire and transport

Every school should have sport facility. CoGTA/Municipalities should develop sport facilities that are safe and appropriate for women. The existing sport facilities should be upgraded to be women friendly and include ablution facilities with showers according to a basic standard requirement. The Municipal Infrastructure Grant (MIG) and Urban Settlement Development Grant (USDG) should be used for the development of sport facilities for all (including elderly women) at the community level and not redirect for other use. Universal access is essential and norms to accommodate people with disabilities should be developed in collaboration with the Department of Public Works and Infrastructure (DPWI).

The scheduling of sport trainings and events should be equitable across sports and genders. Sport facilities for women should also ensure safety measures. Adequate equipment, including equipment for women with disabilities to suit their challenges should be provided for which adequate and safe storage should be made available.

National Federations should develop guidelines to allow girls and women to put suitable dress code/attire. Coaches, instructors, and community centre staff could wear casual clothing during activities. The clothing requirements should accommodate all body types, including being suitable for women with disabilities. Sport teams should have their own kit and the practice of women dressing in male attire should not be standard practice.

National Federations should explore partnerships with transport providers and explore universally designed and inclusive transport. National Federations should provide information about public transport. They should develop a system so that participants can organise share-a-ride systems. They should promote physical activity, which doesn't require transport, such as walking and running, that is universally accessible.

5.10 Human resources

Screening

National Sport Federations should adopt rigorous screening procedures and establish codes of conduct for all staff and volunteers, whether they work with adults or children. Those adults who found not complying will not be allowed to work with children and their names will be put in the offence register. All staff and volunteers who work with children should be trained in child protection. Focus group participants said that all coaches should be screened before they are employed.

Sexism

National Sport Federations should use multiple forums to challenge sexist assumptions and behaviour inside sport organisations, among participants and anti-social behaviours of spectators at sport events. Amongst strategies to consider should be events, programmes, social activities, or guest speakers addressing issues of body image, active lifestyles and human rights.

Differentiate sport and exercise from other interests by promoting (not preaching) the additional benefits. Sport programmes should be designed, implemented, and monitored to ensure multiple benefits for participants.

5.11 Skills, capacity and economic development

National Sport Federations should develop guidelines that have capacity building programmes and educational courses to empower women and men and inform them about gender-related issues (including ideology, myths and stereotypes). Those responsible for the education, scientific training and development of coaches and other sport personnel should ensure that educational programmes, address issues relating to gender equality, equity and the needs of female athletes. There should be men's dialogue to encourage women to participate in sport and recreation and to promote gender equality.

There is also a need to provide education about the importance of men and women working together. Educational programmes and activities should provide new knowledge and facilitate transformative leadership guided by norms and standards set by National Sport Federations for the promotion of gender equality.

National Sport Federations should create mechanisms such as the creation of platform to allow women to speak without fear that ensure that young women have a voice in the development of policies and programmes that affect them.

Skills development courses should be offered by National Federations, to improve the technical leadership and training capabilities. There should be courses to capacitate women as leaders and decision-makers and ensure that women play meaningful and visible roles in sport at all levels. DSAC and SASCOC should monitor if the skills development courses offered by National Sport federations to empower women as leaders are accredited.

There should be accredited training courses on sport related matters conducted annually – from novice to elite level to close the gender gap. Women should be assisted to build their self-esteem and confidence by getting leadership courses and have access to support groups. National Sport Federations should promote the economic empowerment of women in and through sport.

National Sport Federations should ensure that their staff undergo regular gender-related (equality) trainings to keep them informed about ethical and inter-personal issues relating to the needs and experiences of women, sexual harassment, and abuse.

National Sport Federations should consult with the community, institution (e.g. club or school) to determine the needs and aspirations for sport to make a difference. They should determine the underlying reasons for gender-based violence, educational needs, and health issues to design and deliver impactful interventions. They should provide life-skill training, support and invite experts for sessions and referrals.

National Sport Federations including other relevant stakeholders should introduce economic development of women in sport and recreation. Women in sport and recreation should be trained to become entrepreneurs for major sporting events, school sport trainers, etc.

5.12 Women's desk and government structures

National Sport Federations should develop guidelines so that each sporting code should have women's desk, commission, or structure to address issues of gender.

5.13 Government structures and stakeholder collaboration

National Sport Federations should involve municipalities and local government in sport programmes. A Women's Committee or Commission should be established at all levels of governance structures - from municipal, regional, provincial as well as at national level. The latter structure and executive board should form meaningful partnerships and engage with different stakeholders to achieve their strategic objectives and outcomes.

5.14 Research and development

National Sport Federations should ensure that they facilitate and conduct research and development to establish the trends of women's participation and gender issues in their sports as to take informed strategic decisions and build on existing good practices.

5.15 Family, community, and other Support

Women taking part in sport and recreation should receive support from their parents, families, communities and support each other. Insights around such support should be disseminated through advocacy and targeted educational programmes. Marketing strategies should focus on such matters and ensure that audiences are convinced and mobilised for 'gender work' (Women's Sport Foundation Report (2019)).

5.16 Sport psychiatry and mental health support

Women taking part in sport and recreation should receive psychiatric and mental health support and other related medical support as and when needed.

5.17 Language barrier

All documents should be user-friendly and use simple and clear communication. During events or public speeches, sign language interpreters should be used.

5.18 Racism in sport

Racism in sport adds another layer of discrimination to gender for women in sport National Sport Federation should develop guidelines to ensure that women in sport do not experience racism.

6. IMPLEMENTATION

The Policy will be implemented in collaboration with relevant stakeholders such as SASCOC, sport federations, provincial departments of Sports, Arts and Culture including other key stakeholders. Integration and collaboration of services will be encouraged. The implementation process will be part of the DSAC's APP and the APPs of the above-mentioned stakeholders. The agreed upon indicators will be used to measure progress during implementation phase.

6.1 Policy focus areas per problem statement

This policy focused on redressing existing inequalities for 'women' (inclusive of women and girls of all ages, from different ethnic populations, socio-economic backgrounds, and abilities) as integral part of the South African sport ecosystem. It focuses on the competition, coaching, officiating, leadership, media portrayals, compensation, resourcing, visibility, safety, health, and well-being of all women.

In addressing the target areas, the DSAC in collaboration with SASCOC and sport federations should take actions in alignment with their principles, strategies, and envisaged outcomes for addressing gender in sport. To ensure policy implementation in planning, budgeting and gender auditing through a robust monitoring, evaluation, targeted research and a reporting system for evidence-based decision-making and action.

6.2 Target beneficiaries and stakeholders

The policy on women in sport will benefit women and girls including women and girls with disabilities participating in sport n recreation. DSAC, provincial departments of Sport, Arts and Culture, sport federations, SASCOC, sport and recreation entities, relevant NGOs (such as lovelife) and other relevant departments are the key stakeholders in as far as the development and implementation of the policy is concerned.

6.3 Resource Allocation-Human, financial, equipment, system, etc

The costing plan which will be developed after the policy has been approved, will have the resource allocation for example, budget, financial and other necessary resources for the implementation of the policy.

6.4 Roles and responsibilities

Roles and responsibilities of the key stakeholders who will be implementing the policy will be finalised before the policy is approved.

Table 1 provides an overview of the roles and responsibilities of the main stakeholders to deliver outputs through key activities according to a specific time frame.

6.5 Communication

The policy will be communicated to the various structures such as the Executive Management Team (EMT) and the portfolio committee. It will also be communicated to the key stakeholders such as SASCOC, NFs, Lovelife, Sport for Social Change (SSCN), Sport, Arts and Culture provincial Departments and other relevant government Departments, and others Awareness will be raised about the existence and implementation of the Policy.

It will be made available to the public via the DSAC website and hard copies will be available in the DSAC library.

7. THE EVIDENCE

As presented in the following table, there are different levels of evidence available that serve as a benchmark for the different target areas. During nationwide consultations, representatives of key stakeholders across the nine South African provinces provided feedback during focus group discussions and are captured in brief as narratives.

8. GOVERNANCE

Good governance

Governance relates to diversity in leadership and participation of women in various roles of governance. It includes succession planning, including the recruitment, development, and retention of women in governance (at the executive and other leadership levels), coaching (including head coaching positions and acquiring the high qualification levels and other technical roles in sport and associated sectors such as the media. This also entails formalising gender and transformation commitments that are made are implemented and monitored for compliance.

8.1 Performance, Reporting and Accountability

Indicators will be developed in consultation with the relevant stakeholders. Monitoring systems and reporting guidelines will be developed and used to measure the performance of the indicators.

8.2 Transparency and information dissemination

Awareness will be raised about the approved policy among all key stakeholders. This can be done by means of workshops, presentations to the executive management structures, etc.

8.3 Risk assessment and mitigation strategy

Risks will be assessed, identified and mitigation strategy will be developed and implemented and monitored.

|---|---|
| The perception (Mindsets) and culture (status quo)  | DSAC should raise awareness about the Policy and educational programmes should go to women and men to educate them to change their perception and allow more women to participate in sport. Women should no longer be regarded as inferior who belong to the kitchen only.  |
| Media exposure and perpetuation of gender stereotypes   | Media group should allow media coverage that will expose women in sport and more of women sports should be broadcasted more frequently same as their male counterparts. Media consultation on the policy discussion documents and consultative process with media   |
| Competing priorities for government agencies in different organisation, particularly in the Covid-recovery period   | SASCOC and sport federations should ensure that women are given opportunities to participate and compete locally and internationally. Communication and advocacy. There is a need to re-prioritise the budget.  |
| Lack of collaboration and integrated service delivery by government departments (e.g., DSAC, Department of Basic Education, Department of Health, and Department of Social Services)  | All key stakeholders e.g, DSAC, SASCOC, sport federations, relevant government departments and other NGOs should working together and integrate services. Review of existing MOUs. Collaboration on key projects  |
| Lack of resources to deliver competitive sport in South Africa within the current male-biased system – adding more women and more sports to the current system would tax existing resources. The latter mainly include public infrastructure and suitable quality equipment, information about ‘gender equity’ and the implementation thereof, specialised human resources in leadership, coaching, officiating and management/administration, as well as financial resources available for the implementation at all levels. | Integration of Plans and services should take place. Re-prioritisation of Sport Policy to be finalised. There is already benchmarks with Commonwealth Games where more codes were added that gave more women in sport an opportunity to participate. Hence there were more women athletes and more women athletes than men won medals |
| Competing priorities and costs may limit policy revision and attention to gender at organisational and membership levels.   | DSAC should work in collaboration with DWYPW especially when it comes to the issues of women, girls and people with disabilities.   |

| Overcoming current cultural and gender discriminatory practices.   | Addressing women's safety and needs (including women with children) by revamping or renovating existing facilities.    |
| Compering priorities and lack of sport-related resources (including physical resource and qualified teacher-coaches) to implement the MOU of 2018.                           | MIG funding should be used to build and maintain sport facilities. DBE should introduce Physical Education in schools. |
| Possible resistance for gender-focused policy implementation and competition for the allocation of resources between traditional male and female sport across age-divisions. | There should be the indicator(s) that measures progress in as far as gender equality is concerned.                     |

9. POLICY MONITORING, EVALUATION AND REVIEW

9.1 Programme performance measurement indicators

Indicators will be used to measure the performance of the policy.

9.2 Monitoring progress

There should be a progress report on gender transformation and equitable access to resources and earning as part of a score card. There should be a progress report on gender mainstreaming in and across sectors.

Sport federations should implement and monitor good governance for gender equality and equity as cross-cutting principle.

9.3 Evaluation of the policy

The proposed policy will be evaluated by DSAC including other relevant stakeholders. Types of evaluations will be conducted, and evaluation questions will be posed based on the type of evaluation to be conducted. For example, there will be an assessment of compliance of safeguarding mechanisms for preventing and eradicating gender-based violence at all levels of sport.

9.4 Policy review schedule

The evaluation findings will inform the review of the policy and the strategic/implementation plan.

10. CONCLUSION

The policy will be evaluated to assess for example if it is implemented as planned. In other word types of evaluation studies will be carried out.

This Policy promotes gender equality and a transformation in sport. Gender equality will never be complete and sustainable without changes in how people think and act about masculinity and femininity and how people 'do gender. Both men and women should be treated equally. DSAC alone cannot win this battle of fighting inequality and GBVs in the field of sport. It is for this reason that DSAC is working in collaboration with other key stakeholders. The Government in collaboration with key stakeholders would like to address the issue of gender inequality in order to support the National Development Plan-vision 2030.

The policy provides the direction and guide policy alignments, stakeholder collaboration, structural reform, and inclusive practices to unearth all the talent in South Africa for a vibrant and transformed sport ecosystem. It is through this Policy that DSAC will continue to transform the delivery of sport and recreation by ensuring equitable access, development, and excellence at all levels of participation, thereby improving social cohesion, nation building and the quality of life of all South Africans. It is through this Policy that barriers to women in sport participation will be addressed.
