GAZETTE NOTICE No. 304 OF 2010

The Customs and Excise Act

[2143007

(Volume 18, Cap 322)

The Customs and Excise (Temporary Admissions) Rules, 2010

IN EXERCISE of the powers contained in section two hundred of the Customs and Excise Act, the following rules are hereby made for the purposes of prescribing the manner and extent to which rebate of duty shall be applied as specified in section 89 of the Act.

Title and Commencement

1.0 These rules may be cited as the Customs and Excise (Temporary Admissions) Rules, 2010.

2.0 These rules shall come into effect on 15th APRIL, 2010.

3.0 Interpretation

3.1 In these rules unless the context otherwise requires—

“The Act” means the Customs and Excise Act (Cap 322)

“The Regulations” means the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations, 2000.

“Frontier Zone” means an area of the Customs territory adjacent to the land frontier, the extent of which is determined in national legislation and whose limits serve to distinguish frontier traffic from other traffic.

“Frontier Zone inhabitants” means persons established or resident in a frontier zone

“Frontier traffic” means importations carried out by Zone inhabitants between two adjacent frontier zones.

“Professional Equipment” means any equipment necessary for the exercise of the calling, trade or profession of a visiting person to perform a specified task. It does not include equipment used for the industrial manufacture or packaging of goods, equipment (except hand tools) for the exploitation of natural resources, or equipment for the construction, repair or maintenance of buildings or earthmoving and similar projects.

“Temporary Admission” means the customs procedure under which certain goods can be brought into a customs territory conditionally relieved totally or partially from payment of import duties and taxes; such goods must be imported for specific purposes and must be intended for re-exportation within a specified period and without having undergone any change except normal depreciation due to the use made of them.”

3.2 Any terms used in these Rules which are defined in the Act shall have the meaning given to them in that Act.

3.3 Any terms used in these Rules which are defined in the Regulations shall have the meaning given to them in those Regulations.

4.0 Eligibility for Application for Temporary Admission Authority

4.1. Any person, natural or corporate, is eligible to apply to the Commissioner General for authority to temporarily import goods into Zambia pursuant to Regulation Seventy-eight of the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations.

4.2 The goods upon which an application for temporary admission shall be made should be owned by a person domiciled or resident outside Zambia.

5.0 Purpose and Manner of Making an Application

5.1 An application for authority to temporarily import goods required under Regulation seventy-eight of the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations shall be made in writing in the manner prescribed hereunder for purposes of obtaining rebate of duty to the extent determined by the Commissioner General as outlined in these rules.

6.0 Form and Content of Application

6.1 Every application required in terms of Regulation Seventy-Eight of the Customs and Excise (General) Regulations shall be made in a prescribed form.

6.2 Every application made in the form specified in sub rule 6(1) of this rule shall include information relating to the following:

- (a) Physical address of the applicant or importer if applicant is different from importer
- (b) Reasons for the request for temporary importation
- (c) Duration of stay for the goods to be temporarily imported

- (d) Identification details for the goods to be temporarily imported
- (e) Terms and conditions under which goods to be temporarily imported will be sourced from the supplier (if on lease or hire)
- (f) Form of security for Duties and Taxes to be provided (where required by customs)

6.3 An application for Temporary Admission shall be made in the Form set out in Schedule I

7.0 Documentation to Accompany an Application—

7.1 An application shall be accompanied by the following

- (a) Copies of invoices (where applicable)
- (b) Temporary exportation documents from the country of exportation
- (c) Relevant permits (where applicable)
- (d) Documents supporting the nature of business transaction between the exporter and importer such as, lease agreement and contracts
- (e) Ownership documents such as copies of property registration book. (where applicable)

8.0 Submission of Applications

8.1 Duly completed applications shall be submitted to the nearest Customs House

8.2 Applications may be tendered within five (5) days of intended day of importation.

9.0 Maximum Allowable Duration for Goods to Remain in Zambia

9.1 The maximum period goods shall be allowed to remain in Zambia under the temporary admission regime shall be twelve (12) months—

9.2 Notwithstanding section 9(1), the Commissioner General may extend in writing the maximum allowable period, not exceeding twenty four (24), for developmental projects.

9.3 Any goods that remain in the country beyond the authorized period shall be liable to payment of full duties in addition to a fine of 3000 fee units per day or part thereof.

10.0 Extensions of the period Within Twelve (12) Months

10.1 At the written request of the person concerned, and for reasons deemed valid by Customs, the latter shall extend the period initially fixed. The total period of all extensions inclusive of the initial period, shall not exceed 12 months.

11.0 Temporary Admission Qualifying for Partial Conditional Relief from Duties and Taxes

11.1 Subject to the provisions of Regulation Seventy-eight, the following goods shall be admitted with partial conditional relief from import duties—

- (a) Goods imported under hire, lease or contract;
- (b) Goods for commercial use other than professional equipment, imported under related party arrangements; and
- (c) Goods owned and imported by a foreign domiciled contractor for use on a contract in Zambia
- (d) Goods owned and imported by temporary residents
- (e) Goods owned and imported by dependants of temporary residents

11.2 Determination of duties and taxes on temporary admission that qualify for partial relief shall be as set out in section 13 to these rules.

12.0 Temporary Admissions Qualifying For Total Conditional Relief from Duties And Taxes

12.1 Subject to the provisions of Regulation Seventy-eight, the following goods may be admitted with total conditional relief from import duties—

- (a) Goods for display or use at exhibition, fairs, meetings or similar event.
- (b) Professional equipment as defined under these rules.
- (c) Goods imported for educational, scientific or cultural purposes.
- (d) Goods imported as frontier traffic.

12.2 Goods qualifying for total relief from duties and taxes shall not be

- (a) Loaned or used in anyway for hire or any form of compensation.
- (b) Removed from the place of the event without prior written consent from Customs.

12.3 Determination of residue duty on goods that are sold or disposed of before the expiry of the rebate period shall be as set out in section 15 to these rules.

13.0 Determination of Duties and Taxes on goods qualifying for Partial Relief

13.1 For goods imported under hire, lease or contract, the value for duty purposes shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Regulation Seventy and the Fifth Schedule to the Act.

13.2 For goods imported under related party arrangements or goods owned or imported by a foreign domiciled contractor for use on a contract in Zambia, the value for duty purpose shall be based on a depreciated value.

13.3 The value determined on the basis of depreciation shall be proportionate to the duration of stay in Zambia. The maximum life span for the purposes of depreciation shall be 5 years. The following formula shall be applied in computing the depreciated value;

$$\text{Depreciated Value} = \text{No. of months in Zambia} \times \text{VDP}$$

Sixty (60) months

14.0 Security for Temporary Admission

The Commissioner General may require the lodgment of security for the temporary admission of goods under total or partial relief of duties and taxes.

14.1 where any security is required to be given, that security may be given to the satisfaction of the Commissioner General by any of the following forms;

- (a) Cash deposit;
- (b) bond guarantee; or
- (c) bank guarantee

15.0 Determination of Duties and Taxes on goods qualifying for Total Relief

15.1 Goods imported under Regulation seventy-eight, shall not be eligible to enjoy duty exemption if sold before the expiry of the statutory five-year period to persons who otherwise are not, eligible to enjoy such exemption. The straight line method of depreciation shall be used to arrive at the residue value for duty, for this purpose.

15.2 When computing any such residue duty, customs shall take into account the depreciation of such goods or articles using the following formula:

$$\text{Residue Value} = \text{Number of months remaining (from sixty months)} \times \text{Original VDP}$$

Sixty (60) months

15.3 The basis upon which duty and any other taxes are to be computed shall be the residue value.

15.4 The tax types and tax rates shall be those applicable at the date of the sale or disposal.

16.0 Refusal to Grant Temporary Admission

16.1 The Commissioner General shall reserve the right to or not to grant authority for temporary admission of goods into Zambia, if in his opinion, such importations will be contrary to the principles of fair competition or other laws of Zambia.

17.0 Appeals

17.1 Any person who is aggrieved by a decision made by the Commissioner-General under these Rules may appeal to the Revenue Appeals Tribunal.
