Road Transport Safety AgencyConsultancy Services for the Provision of Life and Non-Life Insurance Brokerage Services.*Background

The Road Transport and Safety Agency (RTSA) has set aside funds in its 2012 Annual Work Plan (AWP) towards the cost of provision of Life and Non-Life Insurance Brokerage Services.

The Road Transport and Safety Agency now invites eligible Firms to express their interest in providing the services mentioned above. Interested Firms must provide information to demonstrate that they are qualified to perform the services. The request for Expressions of Interest (Eols) is open to Citizen and Local Firms in line with the Citizen Economic Empowerment Commission (CEEC) Statutory Instrument No. 36 of 2011.

Objectives

The main objective of the assignment is to provide insurance brokerage services to the Agency.

Scope of Assignment

The services required shall include but are not limited to:

- (i) facilitate timely acquisition of insurance cover for motor vehicles, office furniture, electronic and electrical equipment/appliances. Money, Group Personal Accidents, Fire and Allied Perils, Group Life Assurance and Fidelity Guarantee based on reasonable rates;
- (ii) facilitate acquisition of travel insurance covers;
- (iii) timely processing of claims which are due on behalf of the Client;
- (iv) provide regular feedback on the status of the claims;
- (v) advise the Agency in good time on the renewal of the insurance covers in order to avoid panic processing of renewals and or initiating new procurements for the services; and
- (vi) provide monthly statement of account and a report on the performance of the scheme.

Duration of the Assignment

The total expected consultancy input for is 12 man-months.

Selection Method

The Firm will be selected by applying Quality and Cost Based Selection (QCBS) method as prescribed in the Zambia Public Procurement Act No. 12 of 2008 with its regulations.

Shortlisting Requirements

The Firm is expected to meet the following minimum requirements in order to qualify for shortlisting:

- (i) adequate experience in insurance brokerage or related assignments with minimum 5 years experience, including a list of clientele;
- (ii) financial capability to undertake the assignment (Auditor's reports for the past three years with unqualified opinion);

Road Transport and Safety Agency

Consultancy Services for the Supervision and Auditing of the Design, Development, Implementation and Commissioning of the Electronic Zambia Transport Information System (e-ZamTIS) for the Road Transport and Safety Agency (RTSA).

Background

The Road Transport and Safety Agency (RTSA) has set aside funds in its 2012 Annual Work Plan (AWP) budget for the cost of design, development, implementation, commissioning and maintenance of the Electronic Zambia Transport Information System (e-ZamTIS) to replace the current Zambia Transport Information System (ZamTIS) used in the registration and licensing of Motor Vehicles and Trailers as well as issuance of driving licence cards among others. In order to ensure that certain deliverables are extensively verified in the development of the new system, the RTSA recognises the need for an ESCROW arrangement in order to have an internationally acceptable system to take care of the whole process from the architecture of both the core system as well as interface sub-components to the implementation of the system.

The Road Transport and Safety Agency now invites eligible consultants to express their interest in providing the services mentioned above. The request for Expression of Interest (EoIs) is open to all Consulting Firms registered to do business in Zambia. International bidders shall only be eligible if they partner with local bidders as prescribed in the Public Procurement Act (PPA) No. 12 of 2008 and its regulations. Interested consultants must provide information to demonstrate that they are qualified to perform the services.

Objectives

The main objective of the assignment is to supervise and audit the design, development, implementation and commissioning of e-ZamTIS that will enable the RTSA to effectively and efficiently carry out its mandate. The consulting Firm will be expected to audit the system architecture including the source code for the system to conform to a RESILIENT, RELIABLE and SECURE e-ZamTIS in line with International best practices for system development standards as well as its implementation.

Scope of Assignment

The services required shall include but are not limited to:

- (i) Project planning in consultation with RTSA management and Technical Working Group;
- (ii) Supervising and auditing of the architecture of the e-ZamTIS;
- (iii) Supervising and auditing of the architecture of e-ZamTIS sub-component interfaces;
- (iv) Supervising and auditing of the architecture of e-ZamTIS network interface;
- (v) Supervising and auditing of the development and implementation of e-ZamTIS (Including the system design, development and implementation to ensure that the coding meets ISO standards)

Duration of the Assignment

The total expected consultancy input for is: 24 man-months.

Selection Method

The Consultant will be selected by applying Quality and Cost Based Selection (QCBS) as prescribed in the Zambia Public Procurement Act No. 12 of 2008 with its regulations.

Shortlisting Requirements

The Consultant is expected to meet the following minimum requirements in order to qualify for shortlisting:

- (i) adequate experience in supervision and auditing of systems development or related assignments with minimum 5 years experience, including a list of clientele;
- (ii) financial capability to undertake the assignment (Auditor's report for the past three (03 No.) years with unqualified opinion);
- (iii) general qualifications and availability of appropriate skill among key staff including project management, system development, systems modelling and analysis and systems security skills.

Qualification Requirements

The Client will only shortlist up to a maximum of six best firms that shall be invited to submit Technical and Financial Proposals. In the event that more than six firms meet the above shortlisting criteria, the following qualification criteria will be applied in order to come up with the best six firms:

- (i) number of assignments of similar nature and complexity undertaken by the firm (the firm that had undertaken more similar projects in the field of assignment shall be considered for shortlisting);
- (ii) geographical location (in order to reflect a wide geographic area to provide opportunities for all eligible consultants, the shortlist will not include more than two firms from one country);
- (iii) experience in the region (for the purpose of this tender region is defined as SADC Region).

Interested Consulting firms may obtain further information at the address below from 0800 to 1700 hours. Terms of Reference (ToR) can be accessed on the Road Transport and Safety Agency website: www.rtsa.org.zm. Firms may associate in order to enhance their capability.
