Bank of Zambia Foreign Exchange
Market Guidelines 2024

IN EXERCISE of the powers contained in Section 50 of the Bank of Zambia Act, 2022, the following Guidelines are hereby made:

1. Short Title and Purpose

These Guidelines may be cited as the Bank of Zambia Foreign Exchange Market Guidelines, 2024 and are aimed at enhancing transparency, efficiency, and effectiveness of the domestic foreign exchange market in Zambia.

2. Interpretation

In these Guidelines, unless the context indicates otherwise:

“Authorised Dealer” refers to a commercial bank or an eligible non-bank financial institution, authorised by the Bank of Zambia to engage in foreign exchange dealings;

“Board rates” refer to the exchange rates that Authorised Dealers have displayed on offer to buy foreign currencies from, or to sell to, their clients;

“Foreign currency” means any currency other than the Zambian Kwacha and is deemed to include any bill of exchange, letter of credit, money order, promissory note, travellers’ cheque, or any other instrument of foreign exchange;

“Person” means an individual, a company or an association of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate; and

“Prescribed negotiable amount” means the minimum amount of foreign exchange at which a person is allowed to negotiate an exchange rate different from the prevailing Board rates. This negotiable amount shall be determined by the Bank of Zambia and communicated through Authorised Dealers.

3. Application

These Guidelines apply to persons undertaking transactions in the foreign exchange market.

4. Transactions in Foreign Exchange Market

(1) A person conducting transactions in the foreign exchange market shall abide by the following provisions:

- (a) The buying or selling of foreign currency is prohibited unless one of the parties to the transaction is an Authorised Dealer.
- (b) For a person resident or registered to operate in Zambia, the trading of Kwacha for foreign currency shall only be done with an Authorised Dealer.
- (c) A person buying or selling foreign currency for Kwacha in quantities up to the prescribed negotiable amount shall transact at rates displayed on the Authorised Dealers’ Board rates. Amounts above the negotiable amount may be transacted at negotiable rates.

(2) A person who contravenes this part commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) The Bank may impose an administrative penalty on a person for failure to comply with a provision of these Guidelines as prescribed.

5. Furnishing of Information

The Bank of Zambia may require a person to provide it with information relating to that person’s transactions in the foreign exchange market.

6. Effective Date

These Guidelines shall take effect on the date they are published in the Gazette.

F. CHIPIMO,

*Deputy Governor - Operations,
Bank of Zambia*
