(3) The Commission shall prescribe the form in which complaints may be made, indicating the particulars to be provided and any supporting documents to accompany the form.

(5) Members of staff of the Commission shall render any necessary assistance, free of charge, to enable any person to make a complaint in terms of this section.

(5) For the purposes of any hearing or inquiry in terms of this Part, the powers, rights and privileges of the Commission are the same as those conferred upon a commissioner by the Commissions of Inquiry Act [Chapter 10:07], other than the power to order a person to be detained in custody, and sections 9 to 18 of that Act apply, with necessary changes, in relation to any hearing or inquiry by the Commission under this Act and to a person summoned to give evidence or giving evidence at the hearing or inquiry.

(6) The Commission may request the attendance, at any investigation, hearing or inquiry, of a police officer to keep order during the investigation, hearing or inquiry and to remove at the request of the Chairperson any person acting in a contemptuous manner.

(10) The President or the Minister may, at any stage during a hearing of or inquiry into a complaint by the Commission, produce to the Commission a certificate in writing signed by the President or the Minister to the effect that the disclosure of any information specified in the certificate is, in his or her opinion and subject to section 86(1) and (2) of the Constitution, contrary to the public interest on the grounds that it may prejudice the defence or internal security of the State, whereupon the Commission shall make arrangements for any such information to be given in camera and shall take such other action as may be necessary or expedient to prevent the disclosure of that information.

(11) Upon receipt of a certificate referred to in subsection (10)—

- (a) the Commission or any member of staff of the Commission shall not communicate any such information to any other person for any purpose without the approval of the President or the Minister and subject to such conditions as the President or the Minister may fix; and
- (b) the complainant may, in accordance with the Administrative Justice Act [Chapter 10:28], appeal against a certificate of the President or the Minister and the court hearing the appeal shall treat any evidence or documentation subject to the certificate in the manner specified in section 8 of that Act.

the Commission shall make such order or recommendation in the matter as it considers appropriate in the circumstances for the redress of the misconduct, and the order or recommendation shall be accompanied by reasons therefor and by a report of the findings of the Commission.

(2) If the report makes any recommendation in respect of the matters referred to in section 5(1)(a)(b), (c), and (d), a copy of the report shall be sent to the security service concerned, the appropriate Minister and the President or the Minister.

- (3) The Commission may, where it considers it necessary—
